

Clark Urges Victory Loan Campaign Aid

"If any of us begin now to think of returning to normalcy, the men coming back from the south Pacific will remember and remind us of the rows of white crosses on the islands over there." With these words Ray Clark Monday convocation speaker, challenged his audience to vigorously support the National Victory Loan drive.

Speaking for the present war bond drive, Mr. Clark utilized most of his speech in describing his experiences as a correspondent for Station WOW on Guam, Okinawa and later, Japan, and closed with a short plea for support of the Victory Loan drive.

Okinawa.
Describing the islands of the Pacific, Mr. Clark said that Okinawa, with its rice and green cane fields, was the most beautiful of those he had seen. Man's works in the island, however, were so disturbed that the U. S. government had to care for 1,000 of the native Okinawans.

The radio correspondent went on to tell of his ride on a bombing run in a B-29. He described for his audience of 800 people all of the steps in a bombing trip, the takeoff, the flight to the destination, the bombing run over the target itself, and the flier's view of the target after the bombs have been dropped.

Visits Japan.
Mr. Clark also told of his visit to Japan lasting thru the first few weeks of the occupation. He was one of the small group of correspondents present at the official flag raising and surrender of Honshu island.

Dr. George W. Rosenlof, director of admissions, introduced the speaker, who is traveling over the midwest speaking for the Victory Loan drive.
