

Ragged Edges

BY PAT GILLIGAN AND PAT TOOF

After much sweating and laboring in a 5c phone booth (the two of us together) here's your dope. Any complaints as to libel or slander may be addressed to The Nebraskan. AWGWAN! Let's forget it. PLUG!!!!!!

Ohhhhhh these candy passings. From Alpha Xi Delta way comes word of the engagement of Cleone Reetz to Sgt. Claude Blankenship, stationed at Sioux City Air Base. Bev Murray, Alpha Phi, passed the candy Monday night, announcing her engagement to Ken Kimball, medical student at Omaha. Kappa's had big doings Monday night when Marilyn Boettcher and Fred Hecox, Phi Psi treated the girls to that well known box of goodies. Then topping it all off were the triple Delt pledges who handed out the sweets to their actives, signifying their formal pledge pinning.

Wedding bells rang at the Chi Omega house last Saturday night for the marriage of Virginia McDonald to F/O E. W. Cox.

Disappointed Phi Psi brothers tubbed Ted Wechter for not sealing his big deal with Theta Jenny Magnuson with something more than his identification bracelet.

Such couples seen at the Homecoming dance at the coliseum last Saturday night were: Sig EP Kenny Fletcher and Gamma Phi Donna Eilers (Sunday night too); Sister Chris Deines was with Pete Peterson, NRO; Rita Fitzmorris, DG, danced the hours away with SAE, Harris Graves, Kappa Kappa Gamma girls Alice Christenson and Shirley Lierk were with Beta Del Roth and Phi Psi NRO Howie "dream man" Esser respectively. AOPi girl, Bobbie Mohler was seen with old high school flame Sterling Maus, ATO. Also, Kite pledge Dot Bennison tripped the light fantastic with Phi Delt Bill Rolfsmeier.

The following is for the benefit of Jack Hoyt, ATO who wants publicity thrown towards 1433 R. ATO, ATO, ATO, ATO, ATO, ATO, ATO!!!!!! Speaking of the Taus, brother Jack Cawood (nominee for the best dressed man on the campus) and Grace Smith, Gamma Phi, were seen together Friday night, and then it was Alpha Phi, Ellie Lykke on Saturday. Sister Nancy Mines went with ATO, Bob Veeder to Homecoming. ATO Boyd Waddle and Kat pledge Joan Farrar hiked it to the Pike.

With the able assistance of Gordie Ehlers, Delt, we have secured the following: Warren Van Norman Delt, and Mary Clare Clark, KKG, are seeing quite a bit of each other lately. Another big deal that deserves attention is that between Helen West, Alpha Xi Delta, and Richard "Smiley" Kolfoot, Kappa Sig. Thank's so much Gordie!!!!!!

For a slight additional charge, copies of the Ragged Edges will be cheerfully distributed during lecture classes.

Huskers 4th In Big Six Title Race

Nebraska's once victorious Huskers, fresh from their initial win, resumed drills this week in preparation for their battle Saturday with Kansas State at Manhattan.

The game is the final Big Six encounter for the Huskers, and also the last road trip. Their two remaining games will be played on the friendly sod of Memorial stadium against South Dakota and Iowa university.

By virtue of the win over Kansas last Saturday the Huskers are now resting in fourth place in the Big Six standings, ahead of both Kansas 11's. The Wildcats have yet to win a conference game, and have won only once this year. That victory came in their season's opener against Wichita university.

Other conference teams have used the Kansas Staters as a doormat, for Oklahoma, Iowa State and Missouri have all racked up at least 40 points against the youthful Wildcats.

In recent games, however, Kansas State has become assertive in first half play, leading Iowa State at the half last week and the week before holding Oklahoma to a narrow margin at halftime.

	Won	Lost	Tied
Missouri	3	0	0
Iowa State	2	1	1
Nebraska	1	3	0
Kansas	0	2	1
Kansas State	0	3	0

Barrett Opposes Miller in Tennis Finals Thursday

Individual champion in the fall intramural tennis singles tournament will be determined tomorrow at 2 o'clock when Beta Bill Barrett and Dick Miller of Pioneer Co-op match strokes on the courts south of Bessey hall.

The two aspirants to the title have never competed against each other and all indications point to a hotly-contested three-set match.

UN Grad Donates Electrical Units

Two precision instruments for the department of electrical engineering were donated to that department by Ralph S. Mueller, university alumnus, engineering dean Roy Green announced today.

One of the instruments is a 50-cycle precision fork. The other is a wavemeter for use in the range of 16,000-50,000,000 cycles per second.

Mueller, the donor, graduated from engineering college in 1898 and received a professional engineer's degree in 1933 and an honorary doctorate of engineering in 1943 from Nebraska.

A portable arc-welding unit with a current capacity of 300 amperes has also been received by the engineering college. The unit came from the same company which gave the college the unit which it has used for 15 years.

YW Commission Group Meetings Open to Freshmen

All freshmen coeds who are interested, but who did not sign up for a freshman commission group in the YWCA at the tea last Thursday, are asked to come to the YW office in Ellen Smith Hall at their first opportunity to sign up for a group, according to Mildred Taylor, YW secretary.

Group leaders and time and place of their meetings are: Monday at 5 p. m., Grace Heins, dining room A, and Pat Raun, drawing room B (first Monday in the kitchen); Wednesday at 5 p. m., Mimi Ann Johnson, dining room; Tuesday at 4 p. m., Marilyn Markussen, S. W.; Thursday at 4 p. m., Cathryn Curley, S. E.; Olive Pope's and Beverly Swartwood's groups which meet at 4 p. m. Thursday and Wednesday, respectively, are now closed. The first meetings will be held this week.

Purpose of Groups.

The purpose of these commission groups is to teach the new students about the YWCA. The groups are also formed to help students become better acquainted with each other.

Freshmen commission groups are the only opening for freshmen in the YW other than Vespers. Next semester students will be able to sign up for advance groups.

New cabinet members are: Gretchen Burnham, Vesper choir leader, second cabinet; Helen Schroeder, membership chairman, first cabinet; Mary Esther Dunkin, publicity chairman, first cabinet.
