

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 45, No. 23

THE NEBRASKAN

Friday, November 9, 1945

Coeds Foot Evening's Bills At Mortar Board Dance

Coeds will have an opportunity to act as escorts and repay social obligations to their favorite man by footing the evening's bills at the turnabout ball the Mortar Boards will sponsor Dec. 1.

Long dresses will mark the ball, the first semi-formal dance since 1941, and surprise entertainment will be presented during the evening, said Alice Abel, publicity chairman for the Mortar Boards.

Morton Wells Orchestra.

Morton Wells and his orchestra

UN Gridders Leave Today For K State

Thirty-one Nebraska gridders leave Lincoln Friday noon for Manhattan, Kas., where they will meet the Kansas State Wildcats on Saturday in a Big Six battle.

The game is the final conference test for the Huskers who have won one and lost three to date, and also the last road trip.

Expect Passes.

Kansas State is expected to toss an aerial barrage at the Huskers, for the Wildcats had unusual success with passes against Iowa State last week, completing 16 of 30 tosses for a total gain of well over 200 yards.

Bob Korte may start at one of the end positions for Nebraska, as Alec Schneider, Scottsbluff wingman, suffered slight injuries and is not in top shape for the contest. The rest of the starting lineup remains unchanged.

Probable Starters.

Expected to start Saturday are Bunker and Korte at ends, Tegt and Sedlacek at tackles, Hoy and Lorenz at guards, Bob Cistello at center and Moore, Fischer, Story and Robinson or Skog in the backfield.

The traveling squad:
ENDS—Korte, Bunker, Kipper, Hornby, Schneider, Sailors.
TACKLES—Tegt, Wilhelms, Williams, Sedlacek, Edling, Wiemers, Johnson.
GUARDS—Lorenz, Hoy, Lipps, Rolfmeyer, Sack, Buchanan.
CENTERS—Costello, Short, Lowe, Bauer, Fink, Skog, Robinson, Sloan, Fischer, Young, Moore.

Religious Week Opens Sunday On UN Campus

Since Religious Emphasis Week will open here at university on Sunday, the churches are centering their weekend activities around campus mass meetings.

All students are urged by the churches to attend the campus wide mass meeting at 7:30 Sunday evening in the Union.

Student Class.

Sunday morning the Methodist student class will meet at 10 o'clock. At 6:30 there will be a church supper at the Wesley foundation, after which the group will go to the Union to hear Dr. Blake Smith speak at religious emphasis mass meeting. Reservations for the supper must be made in advance.

Army Chaplain.

Rev. William J. Roesler, a discharged army chaplain who is residing in Lincoln, will deliver the sermon and conduct the Lutheran chapel service Sunday morning at 10:45 in room 215 at the Union. Elaine Otto will accompany the hymns.

will play for the crowd who will dance in the coliseum from 9-12. Playing at the Music Box in Omaha for the past few months, Wells has also appeared at the Turnpike several times during the last six months.

Corsages fashioned into radish roses and lilies composed of carrots and turnips will be the order of the day and transportation will range from wheelbarrows to milk trucks. Coeds will buy the $1.25 tickets, call for their dates, and perform the usual vice-versa duties which include opening doors, checking coats, providing cigarettes and carrying shaving kits.

In 1932 the Mortar Boards sponsored the first turnabout ball and men and coeds responded so enthusiastically that the affair has been an annual event since then, announced Miss Abel.

Square Dance At Ag Initiates Union Activities

Square dancing from 8 to 11 tonight in the Ag college activities building will be the first weekend event sponsored by the Union. Dave Sanders will call the dances and a piano, violin, and accordion will play.

Ballroom Dance.

Jimmy Phillips will play in the Union ballroom from 9 to 12 tomorrow night. Tickets for the dance are 44c and each university student may bring one guest.

Sunday at 5 there will be a coffee hour in the Union lounge and at 7:30 Blake Smith, Baptist minister from Austin, Tex., will speak in the Union ballroom.

UN Receives $1000 Donation From Bracelen

One thousand dollars has been received by the University of Nebraska as a gift from the estate of the late Charles M. Bracelen of New York City, Chancellor C. S. Boucher announced today.

Native of Nebraska.

Mr. Bracelen, who died in August, 1942, was a native of Humboldt, Neb. He graduated from the University of Nebraska with an AB degree in 1902 and was recipient of an honorary LLD degree from the university at commencement exercises in June, 1942. For many years Mr. Bracelen was general counsel and vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Chancellor Boucher said the sum would be used to purchase books for the College of Law library.

ACTIVITIES PICTURE SCHEDULE

The activities scheduled for the following settings must have all their members there as there are no relaxes.

The pictures are to be taken at the visual education department in the west stadium.

Friday, Nov. 9.
11:30 SEA Advisory Board.
Monday, Nov. 12.
12:30 YMCA.
5:15 Engineering Executive Board.
5:30 Ag Exec Board.
Tuesday, Nov. 13.
12:30 AUF.
5:30 Amer. Society of Civil Engineers.
5:30 L-R Club.
Wednesday, Nov. 14.
12:30 Corn Cobs.
5:15 Amer. Institute of Elec. Eng.
5:30 Amer. Society of Mech. Eng.
Thursday, Nov. 15.
12:30 Students (Phi Kappa Alpha).
5:15 Amer. Inst. of Chem. Eng.
Friday, Nov. 16.
12:30 Nu-Meds.

Who's Who Issues List

Don Cossack Group Gives UN Concert

The Russian Don Cossack Chorus, under the direction of Serge Jaroff, will arrive here on November 20 for a concert at the coliseum at 8:15 p. m.

The group, which is being sponsored by The Lincoln Journal and Star, are beginning their sixth thousandth concert, having traveled over a million miles around the world.

Ragged Soldiers.

These Russian singers were originally a group of ragged soldiers, torn from their Don River Valley homes in Russia by war and revolution. To console hunger and deprivations, they traveled the country singing. Serge Jaroff, who was a choirmaster before he entered World War I, began an organization of his comrades which is known throughout the world today, as the Don Cossack Chorus.

Only Reserved Tickets.

Tickets for this presentation, which will be sold by reserved section only, are now on sale at Walt's Music Store, 1140 O St. Prices are $3.00, $2.40, $1.80, and $1.20. A special section will be reserved for students and members of the armed forces who wish to take advantage of the lower price tickets, at 50c each. All prices include tax. No telephone orders accepted. Net profits will be donated to worthwhile enterprises.

Students Rally Today at 11:45

Want another victory? Care to show the team your appreciation for last week's game? If so, be at the Union at 11:45. Leave at 11:45.

The rally will take place after the team eats lunch and before they pull out at 11:45. UN students cheered long and hard last week for the Huskers, and school spirit is at its highest peak for many years. Let's keep it up and have the entire student body out to send them off to another victory.

Corn Cobs Cheer.

To set off the rousing cheers will be the newly formed Corn Cobs, plus the Tassels and cheerleaders. Our singing and cheering will make this rally a sensational prelude to Saturday's victory over Kansas State.

How about it, fans, let's be there cheering!

All Coeds Attend Weekly YW Tea This Afternoon

All coeds are invited to the weekly YW tea this afternoon from 4 to 5 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall to get acquainted with each other and with the YW members, according to Cleone Reetz, social chairman.

Hot cider and brownies will be served during the informal hour's get-together. The tea is a weekly affair for all university women.

Return All Proofs

Any proofs which are not returned to the Cornhusker studio on the sixth floor of Miller and Paine's by 4:30 today, will not appear in the yearbook, announced Joyce Crosbie, editor.

Sixteen University Students Appear in 1945-1946 Edition

Sixteen Nebraska students are listed in the 1945-1946 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

These students were selected from a list submitted by a Student Council committee of participation in university activities, leadership, and value to the university.

Students listed in the current edition are:

LES GLOFELTY, Mortar Board, Pi Beta Phi, Nebraskan editor, Theta Sigma Phi, Alpha Lambda Delta, W.A.A., Y.W.C.A., and Tassel secretary.

EDITH PUMPHREY, Mortar Board, Student council president, Alpha Lambda Delta, Omicron Nu, Loomis hall president, 4H club, Home Ec club, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Ag college Student-Faculty council.

JOYCE CROSBIE, Mortar Board, secretary; Delta Gamma; Cornhusker editor, Student Council.

JAN ENGLE, Mortar Board, Chi Omega, Phi Upsilon Omicron, A.W.S., A.U.F., W.A.A., Y.W.C.A., Coed Counselor, War Council, Omicron Nu.

MARY ANN MATTOON, Mortar Board, Alpha Phi, Alpha Lambda Delta, Delta Sigma Rho, Phi Mu Epsilon, Y.W.C.A. president, A.W.S., Debate squad, Phi Beta Kappa.

MARGARET NEUMANN, Mortar Board, Gamma Phi Beta, Vestals of the Lamp, Student Foundation president, Y.W.C.A. secretary, Theta Sigma Phi keeper of the archives.

CLAIRE KEPLER, Mortar Board, Omicron Nu, A.W.S., vice president, B.A.B.W., Y.W.C.A., Ag Y.W.C.A. cabinet, Tassel.

GERRY MCKINSEY, Mortar Board, Delta Gamma, Tassels president, Y.W.C.A. vice president, Alpha Lambda Delta, Delta Sigma Rho, Varsity debate.

MADELINE HOLTZSCHERER.

C. S. Boucher Announces New Faculty Profs

The addition of two associate professors to the university faculty has been announced by Chancellor C. S. Boucher. George C. Ernst will assume his duties in the college of engineering Jan. 15, 1946, and Emanuel Wishnow will begin Nov. 15 in the school of music.

Mr. Ernst was engineer-in-charge of the Timber Mechanics laboratory at the U. S. Forest Products laboratory in Madison, Wis., before coming to Nebraska. He previously taught at the University of Maryland, Iowa State College and Syracuse University, and was associate editor of "Stresses in Framed Structures," which is part of Hool & Kinne's "Structural Engineers Handbook Library."

Michigan Graduate.

A graduate of the University of Michigan and holder of a Master of Science degree from Iowa State College, Mr. Ernst will teach classes in hydraulics and structural design.

Mr. Wishnow, just released from the service, has been on leave of absence from the university where he is professor of violin and conductor of the university orchestra string ensemble. While in the service he was a member of the Glenn Miller army band which entertained U. S. forces overseas.

Mortar Board, Delta Delta Delta, Tassel president, A.W.S., Phi Upsilon Omicron, Omicron Nu, Y.W.C.A. first cabinet, Omicron Nu.

MONICA ANN ALBETY, Mortar Board, Home Ec club president, Omicron Nu, Phi Upsilon treasurer, Coed Counselor, Y.W.C.A., Ag Student-Faculty council president, Tassel.

BARBARA GRISWOLD, Mortar Board president, Coed Counselor vice president, A.U.F., advisory board, Towne Club, B.A.B.W. vice president, War Council.

MARY JO GISH, Delta Gamma, Vestals of the Lamp, Y.W.C.A. W.A.A. president, Student Council.

LOIS OFFER, Omicron Nu, Mortar Board, Ag Y.W.C.A. president, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Towne Club, Tassel.

STUART GOLDBERG, Zeta Beta Tau president, Student Council treasurer, A.U.F. advisory board, Cornhusker staff.

JANE McELHANEY, B.A.B.W. president, Phi Beta Kappa, Y.W.C.A.

Palladian Has Founders Day Dinner Friday

Celebrating 74 years of continuous activity, active and alumni members of Palladian Literary society will hold the annual founders day banquet Friday, Nov. 16, in the Union.

Founded one year after the university opened, Palladian is the oldest social organization of the campus. Originally a debating club for men, the society has developed into a social group for unaffiliated men and women. Listing only men in school since the war broke out in 1941, the Pal service flag has 42 stars, two of them gold stars for Don Dobry, x-45 and Harold Alexis, '43.

Toastmaster.

Presiding as toastmaster at the banquet will be Judge Ed. C. Fisher, who will introduce Janet Hutchinson, president of the active chapter, and alumni speakers, Mrs. E. E. Brackett, Janet McLellan, Victor Seymour, Prof. Chauncey Smith, Lt. Col. Walter Lundy and T. F. A. Williams. Prof. Laurence Lindgren, president of Palladian alumni association, will welcome the guests, and a humorous skit and music will be presented by this year's pledges.

Regents Establish Honorary Award For State Citizen

Establishing a new honorary award, the Board of Regents announced today that the "Nebraska Builder" award will be presented annually at Charter Day ceremonies to an outstanding citizen of the state, selected by the university.

Outstanding Services.

Candidates for the award, which is to be granted in recognition of outstanding services to citizens of the state, will be nominated by the university's administrative council, composed of deans of the colleges and directors of the various schools. Nominations will be studied by the university senate and final decision will be made by the Board of Regents. An engraved scroll will be the symbol of the recognition.

Citizens nominated for the honorary award need not be alumni of the university.