

Ragged Edges

BY BET KING.

This is especially to those friends of Pat Gilligan and Pat Toof who have recently become their enemies—as of the last Ragged Edges column. The two Pats are innocent. All the daggers belong in the backs of Georgann Wythers and Shirley Campbell. The printer is just learning to read so please be patient with him. He usually gets the right by-lines on stories, and one mistake is excusable.

Off to K-State.

Another out-of-town game for the football team, this time at Manhattan, Kansas. At least, it will give those who follow the team some tall tales to tell for the next two weeks. The stories of escapades in Ames are getting a little old. SAE Dud Olney and Alpha Xi Elaine Washburn are thinking of things to enliven the fair state of Kansas. Sister Dody Easterbrook and Kappa Sig pinmate, Art Beindorff, will be out to cheer the team to victory, and, incidentally, to see that all the guys and gals from NU cheer their hearts out. Alpha Chi's Lila Latham and Jackie Scott are trekking down with Taus Gene Weiler and Lee Baughan. Getting to be a habit—these football games. Chuck Gleason and the newest of his long line of girls, Phi Babette Stenger, ought to make an interesting couple, but keep your eyes on the game. Pi Phis Joy Hill, Les Glotfelty, Janice Blakesele and Mary Sherwood are migrating down to add the Nebraska touch on K State's campus.

On Campus Excitement.

Here at home, the Fiji "Lil Abner" party and the Tri Delt "Nightmare" party vie for attention. Triple Deltas Shirts McKenna, Marilyn Lowe and Bobby Sprow are importing Bud Whiteman, Jim Jones and David Dodd for the occasion. Something the matter with the local crop?

Taking in both deals are Tri Deltas Sally Whiteman, Cookie Fredrickson and Merrill Shutt, with Fijis Dutch Myers, Bob Korte and Jerry Johnson. The theory is that if one party provides excitement, two will double it.

Believing that the Phi Gam party alone will provide all the fun necessary for one night are Kappa Sue Alexander and her date for the deal, Jim Myers. Tom Cornish and arrow girl, Jan Schwartz, will be in on all the fun the Fijis can cook up for Saturday night.

Fraternity Pledges Sneak.

This seems to be the season for fraternity pledges to hold sneak nights. Monday night saw the Beta pledges on their way to Omaha. What they did they are not saying, but they brought back a bee-utiful bird bath. Understand they wanted a statue, but at three in the morning they were willing to take most anything. Sigma Chi pledges pulled an impromptu sneak Thursday night. At two in the afternoon, no one knew where they were going or what they were going to do. If you know anything more about

Ag Council Elects Klingman, Lyness, Lock As Members

Laura Klingman, Marilyn Lyness and Lillian Lock have been revealed as the new freshmen members of the ag-student faculty council. Elected by the freshmen women, they will serve for one year.

Formal Introduction.

Formal introduction of the new members was made at the annual tea for home ec students Wednesday. Sponsored by the student-faculty council, approximately 100 women attended.

Other Members.

Other members of the council are Beth Norenberg, Mary Ann Srb, and Margaret Bowen, sophomore representatives; Marolyn Hartsook, Joan Rapp and Helen Wulf, juniors; and Monica Alberty, Ginny Bobbit and Gerry Gowan, senior members. Faculty councilors are Misses Margaret Fedde, Bess Steele and Mary Guthrie.

the deal, tell us.

Dorothy Manifold has learned the meaning of the word "triangle" the hard way Wednesday night when her date met one of her recent admirers face to face on the dance floor with Dorothy in the middle.

Wee Hours.

In the wee hours of Wednesday morning Dave Epstein and Chuck Movaney carried out a five dollar bet. It's still a mystery whether they got into a certain lake past their toes or not. Anyway, one owes the other five bucks. Who's going to do the collecting?

Things with Beta John Smedley and kite-girl Mary Latta seem to be on a good solid basis. Still in the there's-no-one-but-you stage are Kappa Joan Titus and Sigma Nu Gene Miller. It can't get steadier unless they put more hours in a day. Could be that this together-constantly stuff is contagious. AOPi's Marilyn Miller and Nancy Lee Smith have caught it, if it is. They're always with NRO's Bob Green and Johnny Burgstrom.

Friday night is the slump in this weekend, but Chi Ohhhh Margie Amend and Sig. Chi Vaughn Johnson are making plans to keep the ball rolling.

Flash from Mortar Boards.

The Mortar Boards are giving you gals advanced warning—the MB party comes up December 1. Get on the ball and get your dates early. This is the time for you to ask that fellow you've always wanted to date. By the way, the deal is semi-formal. Haul those formals out of mothballs and start getting prepared for a wheeeee of a time.

NEWS IN BRIEF

by
BILL ROBERTS

BIG NEWS this week is the Labor - Management Conference now being held in Washington.

Purpose of the gathering is to formulate methods of settling controversies between the two participating groups and, in general, to further industrial amity.

Although President Truman seems to be pinning all of his hopes on the conference, it is not at all certain that his faith will be rewarded. Representatives of both management and the A.F.L., a clear majority, are opposed to even discussing the wage question, chief problem in industrial relations.

Tension is heavy between the two groups and the country is waiting.

GROWING DISTRUST and discord seem to be the rule on the international scene these days.

In a debate in parliament, Churchill expressed his direct opposition to sharing atomic bomb engineering secrets with Russia. At the same time, it seemed probable that the U. S. would share those secrets with his own nation.

The implications of recent Anglo-American policy in regard to the atomic bomb were obviously clear to the Russians. In a recent speech, Molotov referred to this policy concerning the bomb, saying, "Nowadays there ought to be no secrecy on this subject."

UNCOMPROMISING Indonesian leaders adamantly rejected this week a compromise proposal by the Dutch government that would have given dominion status to Java and her neighbors. Dr. Soekarno, head of the revolutionary movement, said that he and his followers would hold out for complete independence.

VICTORIOUS in the New York mayoralty elections this week was former district attorney O'Dwyer, democratic candidate.

Defeated in Detroit elections for mayor was Richard Frankensteen, widely known leader of the UAW union.

Larry's last lindy

Larry's wilted collar and billowy shirt are heading him straight for the stag line—permanently. You are looking at his first and last partner.

Take a tip from Gertrude! Be a smooth dresser as well as a smooth dancer! Wear an Arrow, the shirt with the non-wilting collar and the Mitoga-fit which conforms to the lines of your body.

Get your Arrows at your local Arrow dealer. If he doesn't have your favorite today, try him again later.
