

Mizzou and Sooner Players Head All-Opponent Team

Missouri and Oklahoma, finishing one-two in the Big Six conference football standings, stack up in the same order in the number of candidates on the Cornhusker varsity squad's all-opponent team.

Husker players named nine Tigers and six Sooners as the toughest customers they had to face during the conference season. Four Iowa State players; three from Kansas and one from Kansas State concluded the squad.

Players chosen were:
ENDS: Oakes, Missouri; Schmidt, Kansas; Haas, Kansas State; Burgart, Oklahoma.

TACKLES: Tallichief, Oklahoma; Kekeris, Missouri; Hallett, Oklahoma; Burk, Missouri.

GUARDS: Fathauer, Iowa State; Eigelberger, Missouri; Tillman, Oklahoma; Day, Kansas.

CENTERS: Stewart, Missouri; Ridings, Iowa State.

QUARTERBACKS: Brown, Missouri; Gear, Kansas.

HALFBACKS: Howard, Iowa State; West, Oklahoma; Hopkins, Missouri; Phelps, Iowa State; Brinkman, Missouri.

FULLBACKS: Vanable, Oklahoma; O'Connell, Missouri.

Coliseum Pool Now Available For Swim Meets

Competitive swimming enters the intramural picture this week with announcement from Head Coach Ed Higginbotham that organizations may challenge one another to dual swimming meets.

Groups must schedule their own meets and reserve the coliseum pool for the time and date decided by contacting the intramural office. Contests may be held on Mondays from 5 to 6 p. m.; Wednesdays from 5 to 6 p. m. or 8 to 9 p. m.; and on Fridays from 5 to 6 p. m.

A team is to enter two men in each event; there is no limit to the number of events an individual may enter. The following order will be used: 75 yard medley relay, 25 yard free style, 25 yard breast stroke, 25 yard back stroke, 50 free style, 50 yard breast stroke, 50 yard back stroke and 100 yard free style relay. Points will be awarded on a 5-3-1 basis for the first three finishers.

Fem Fun

The volleyball tournament has really gotten off to a swell beginning with seven victories to those teams which could outplay seven other good teams. And so ask the Pi Phi's second team how they won that little victory of theirs. It's one for the books when you can have the score 27 to 3 and still win—legally.

Most of the victories were a little lopsided in favor of the Alpha Chi (1), Alpha Phi (2), Howard hall, S. D. T. (1), Rosa Bouton and the Dorm.

For the next week, the schedule for games is as follows:

- Monday:
 Theta (1) vs. Alpha Xi (2).
 Alpha Chi (2) vs. D. G. (1).
 Alpha Chi (3) vs. "T" House.
- Tuesday:
 Dorm vs. Pi Phi (1).
 D. G. (3) vs. Alpha Phi (1).
 Tri Delt (2) vs. Kappa (3).
- Wednesday:
 Gamma Phi (1) vs. Rosa Bouton.
 Barbs vs. Howard hall.
 A. O. Pi (1) vs. Raymond.
- Thursday:
 Kappa (1) vs. Wilson.
 Chi O (1) vs. Gamma Phi (2).
 Theta (2) vs. Tri Delt (1).

Gophers Set For Huskers With Vets

University of Minnesota basketball workouts of the past week indicate that Coach Dave MacMillan is pretty well set on the lineup he will use against the Huskers on December 8, when Nebraska opens its season against the Gophers.

Consistent choices at the forward posts have been Dave Ruliffson of Minneapolis, recently discharged army vet and 1942-43 letterman, and Phil Snoy, navy V-12 student from Middletown, Ohio. Jim McIntyre, 6 foot, 8 inch freshman who last year led Patrick Henry high of Minneapolis to the state prep championship, has the edge on the center job.

Don Carlson of Minneapolis who was called into service during the 1942-43 season has a firm hold on one guard post. Teaming with Carlson will be Max Mohr, prewar letterman, or Walt Rucke, navy vet who earned his "M" last season as a regular guard.

UN Matmen Prepare for Full Schedule

Coach Jerry Adam has sounded a call for varsity wrestlers, as the rough and tumble sport resumes its place in the Nebraska athletic picture.

Twenty-seven men are working out daily under the direction of Coach Adam at the present time, and more candidates in all weight divisions are urged to report to Adam at the mats in the coliseum basement any afternoon for places on the squad.

Letterman Ed Copple, 165 pound grappler, is looking very trim in early workouts, and his brother, Newt Copple, Big Six champion and fourth place winner in the National Championships before leaving for the service, is expected to return to school at the beginning of the second semester to resume activities in the 145 pound class.

Means To Tour "Mashed Potato" Circuit This Week

Loufs E. Means, director of student physical welfare, will be the principal speaker at football banquets held in Scottsbluff, Minatare and North Platte next week as highlights of a tour of Nebraska high schools.

Getting acquainted with coaches, principals and physical education directors, and looking over the state's athletic facilities, are the principal aims of Means' trip. Motion pictures of university football games will be shown at the banquets.

UN Grad Becomes 12th Air Service Group Director

Lt. Col. Maurice J. Hollman, 1933 graduate of the university, has been appointed commanding officer of the Twelfth Air Service group, according to an announcement from Brig. Gen. Albert F. Hegenberger, commanding general of the Tenth Air Force.

The Twelfth group, formerly a part of the Fourteenth Air Force, but now assigned to the Tenth to assist in the redeployment of Chinese troops, consists of seven squadrons totaling approximately 1,300 officers and men. Known as the "Service Commandos," the Twelfth was the first complete air service group to enter the China theater. Most recent assignment of the unit in the Fourteenth Air Force was in support of the famous Chinese American Composite Wing.

Supply Officer.
 Colonel Hollman was formerly staff officer in charge of supply and material and later executive officer of the group. Overseas since November, 1943, he holds the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with one bronze campaign star, and was recently awarded the Soldier's Medal for heroism. He enlisted as a second lieutenant in April, 1942.

Nebraska Navy Rifle Team Loses To Yale NROTC

Two teams, separated by over 1,500 miles competed in a rifle match early this week. One of the teams was the University of Nebraska Naval ROTC team, the other the Yale university NROTC team. The score: Yale 892 and Nebraska 789.

The match operates this way, according to Lt. Daniel Hurley, Nebraska NROTC gunnery officer. Each team fired on its own range. Scores were tabulated by impartial judges, totaled, and air-mailed to the other team.
