

Minnesota Drops Huskers 55-30

Nebraska Cagers Lose Opener to Seasoned Foe

Nebraska's Cornhuskers suffered a 55 to 30 defeat at the hands of the potent Minnesota Gophers as the Huskers opened their 1945-46 basketball campaign at Minneapolis Saturday night.

The veteran Gophers, with a plentiful supply of returned veterans and former lettermen, were never threatened and roared to a 30 to 14 halftime lead on the strength of numerous fast breaks and sharp passing.

Heading the Husker attack was Leo Schneider, NROTC athlete from Rock Island, Ill., who scored ten points, six from the free throw line, to pace Nebraska's scorers. He also provided much of the "Scarlet's rebounding ability on the defense.

Carlson Leads.

War veteran Don Carlson led Coach Dave McMillan's boys to their third straight win with 18 points, while Max Mohr, letterman, was the sparkplug of the passing attack and a main cog in throttling the Nebraska offensive efforts.

Tall Boy Helps.

Lanky Jim McIntyre, six foot eight inch center, counted twelve points for the Gophers, but was more valuable in controlling the ball on the backboards, as the Huskers tried vainly to halt the Minnesota onslaught.

The Huskers will return to Lincoln at approximately 9:55 Sunday night, and will meet South Dakota U. in the coliseum maples Tuesday night at 8 p. m.

Wrestling Entries Due December 13; Meet Opens on 17th

With the deadline for entries in the intramural wrestling tournament nearing, fifty-one men have already signified their intention of participating for championships in the eight weight divisions.

First and second place winners will be awarded medals, and the team champion will receive a trophy as well as points in the race for the Jack Best trophy, symbolic of athletic supremacy in all sports.

The Phi Gams and ATOs head the entry list at the present time with full teams entered from each house. Several Nebraska football players are expected to make strong bids for honors in the heavier weight divisions, but there are weight divisions for men weighing 121 and under up to heavyweights over 175 pounds.

Entries must be in by Dec. 13, and competition begins under the direction of varsity wrestling coach Jerry Adam on the 17th.

Joel McCrea, virile title player in Paramount's technicolor western, "The Virginian," once attended the Hollywood School for Girls. It was the only school in his neighborhood that had a kindergarten.
