

UN Mermen Prepare for Competition

Twenty university mermen have answered Coach Ed Higginbotham's call for varsity swimmers and are working out daily under his tutelage in preparation for a five-game schedule tentatively arranged to get underway early in February.

The tentative schedule opens with meets at Colorado University and Colorado A & M on Feb. 8 and 9. Plans for a trip to Iowa to vie with the Cyclones on Feb. 15 and with the Hawkeyes at Iowa City on the 16th. The lone home engagement thus far, will be with Iowa State on March 2.

There will be no Big Six swimming meet in 1946. Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas are without squads; and it is doubtful if Kansas State will compete.

Men working out daily in the coliseum pool include Lowell Ankrom, Falls City; William Burr, Lincoln; Preston Tucker, Ypsilanti, Mich.; Fred Hass, New Carlisle, Ind.; William Gard, Geosse Point, Mich.; Stanley Johnson, Friend; Robert Olney, Lincoln; Fred Hamlen, Dover, Mass.; David Landon, Manhattan, Kas.; Conrad King, Omaha; Ted Lehman, Lincoln; William Pearson, Lansing, Mich.; Pete Foe, Lincoln; Neale Copple, Albuquerque; Dwight Woodruff, York; James Moore, Omaha; Ward Quilter, Buffalo, New York; Jack McGin, South Bend, Ind.; Sid Wells, Fremont; Harry Marsh, Omaha.

Other men wishing to try for a position on the squad are urged to report to Coach Higginbotham at the coliseum daily at 4:00. Competition for places on the team is still wide open, with divers especially in demand.
