League Games This Week.

Friday: Iowa State at Nebraska.
Saturday: Kansas State at Missouri.

The Cornhuskers have a chance to move into undisputed possession of third place in Big Six standings this week, when they meet the Iowa Cyclones Friday night here in Lincoln.

Louis Menze's five is currently tied with Nebraska for the third place spot, behind Kansas and Oklahoma, and has beaten the Scarlet once this season.

In their previous encounter Iowa State breezed past Nebraska 57 to 39 at Ames, as freshman forward Jim Stark potted 24 counters.

Kansas State goes to Columbia to face the luckless Missouri Tigers Saturday in the only other conference game this week. The host team will have to concentrate on stopping K-States' hot-shot forward Dave Weatherby, who scored 28 points against Drake Monday night.

Indiana Squad Nips Huskers By 24-6 Score

The University of Indiana wrestling squad crushed Nebraska's mat artists, 24-6, in an inter-sectional match at the coliseum Tuesday night.

Nebraska's only wins were turned in by Newt and Ed Copple in the 155 pound and 165 pound class.
