

Nubbins Lose To Concordia By 42-28 Score

Nebraska's B team went down to a 42-28 defeat at the hands of a sharpshooting Concordia college five Monday night, in a prelude to the Nebraska-Oklahoma game.

The two quints matched baskets during the first ten minutes of the half with the visitors sporting an 8-7 advantage, but the alert, smooth-passing Concordia squad widened the margin to 22-13 at the half. Brummer counted 15 points to take scoring honors for the evening.

The Nubbins worked the count to 28-23 midway in the second half, but quick Concordia baskets nullified the Husker threat.

Bull scored 10 points on short set shots to lead the Husker scoring parade.

Husker Grapplers Lose Two Tilts With Iowa Rivals

The Cornhusker wrestling team suffered defeat at the hands of Iowa Teachers College Saturday, 25-5 and by the University of Iowa Monday, by a score of 19-9. Both matches were held in Iowa territory.

In the bout with Iowa Teachers, Harold Boker, a new heavyweight for this trip, pinned his man for the Husker's only win of the meet. At the University of Iowa, Boker decisioned his man 4-0.

Newt Copple suffered his first defeat of the season at the Iowa Teachers match, being outpointed by his opponent. He made a comeback in the match with the University of Iowa, winning by a decision of 8-1.

The third win over the University of Iowa was by Mickey Kelly. This UN 121 pounder won by a close 10-9 decision over John Nyberg, a former member of the Omaha Central wrestling team.
