

Candidates For TNC

Typical Nebraska Coed candi-dates will appear at the experimental theater in the Temple Sunday at 2:30 p. m., according to Midge Holtzscherer, AWS president.

The coeds are to appear in the clothes they wore last Sunday unless otherwise informed by the Follies committee.

Ni

20 Finalists Named.

Final selection for TNC has not yet been made. The 20 finalists named at the tryouts Sunday are Joanne Ackerman, Nancy Bachkora, Virginia Buckingham, Betty Chipman, Mary Cox, Mary Esther Dunkin, Dorothea Duxbury, Mary Dye, Joan Fankhauser, Priscilla Flagg, Betty French, Betty Lou Horton, Lorraine Kinney, Sylvia Lasher, Beth Montgomery, Harriet Quinn, Shirley Schnittker, Arlis Swanson, Joan Titus and Jackie Tobin.

Student judges for the event are (See CANDIDATES, page 2.)

AWS Board AnnouncesNew Campus Hours

AWS board last night announced new rulings for coeds living in organized houses.

According to the board, sopho-more coeds will be given 10:30 nights Monday through Thursday with permission of the housemother.

Senior coeds may take 11:00 nights Monday through Thursday, also obtaining permission of respective housemothers.

Sundays are to remain as 10:30 nights.

Men's Houses,

As a reminder, coeds are not to be in men's houses before 5:00 p.m. or after 9:00 p.m. on Monday through Thursday. Friday hours are from 3:00 p. m. to 12:30 a. m.; Saturday, 12:00 p. m. to 12:30 a. m., and Sunday, 12:00 p. m. to 10:30 p. m., according to Midea Holicabase Midge Holtzscherer, AWS board president.

Meet Sunday Queens at Dance Today

These twelve coeds were recently chosen by Dave Rubinoff as beauty queen semi-finalists and their pictures were sent to Harry Conover for final judging. The pictures of Mr. Conover's six selections will appear in the 1946 Cornhusker, and Margaret Neuman, Student Foundation president will also present the six winners at the Foundation tea dance this afternoon. The twelve semi-finalists are, left to right, Betty Gompert, Frances Poulos, Donna Alfrey, Dorothy Thompson, Barbara Blackburn, Marchile Schmid, Evelyn Ainsworth, Janice Campbell, Patricia Winter, Jean Bogan, and Colleen Kahoa. Betty Jean Latta is not shown in picture.

Bachelors Escort Beauty

Neuman To Present Six Coeds

The six Cornhusker beauty queens for 1946, to be presented this afternoon at the Student Foundation Valentine tea dance, will be escorted from the stage by the university's "most eligible bachelors."

The dance, scheduled from 4 to 6 p. m. in the Union ballroom, will feature juke box music and refreshments and is free to everyone, according to Lorene Novotney, committee chairman.

Semifinalists.

The six beauty queen finalists, chosen by Harry Conover model-ing agency of New York, were selected from the 12 semi-finalists who were: Betty Gompert, Frances Poulous, Donna Alfrey, Doro-See QUEENS, page 2.)

Committee Will

Decisive action will be taken on the matter of housing units for university veterans by the chamber of commerce working in conjunction with university and city housing authorities,

This was determined at a chamber of commerce meeting this week, according to Merrill Koser, chamber president.

The committee appointed for this action must deliberate on the problem. It revolves around the question of funds to make use of the government's permit to reconvert the hospital quarters at Lincoln army air field into housing units. Also included is the acquisition of 200 prefabricated

Coeds Finish Group Plans For Carnival

Plans are being completed for the annual Coed Counselors Penny Carnival to be held in Grant Me-2 to 4 p. m.

Nineteen organized groups and sororities are entering entertainment booths in the carnival. The event is in charge of a general committee composed of Sally White, Joy Hill and Phyllis Sorenson.

Tickets 20c.

Tickets for the carnival, 20 cents each, will be on sale at the Union Thursday and Friday and at the door of the gymnasium on Saturday. The tickets will be (See CARNIVAL, page 2.)

Experimental Theatre Act on Housing Two Plays Situation Soon Presents

BY DEDE MEYER.

Contrast will be paramount p. m. in room 201. morial gymnasium Saturday from Thursday evening as the experi-2 to 4 p. m. Thursday evening as the experi-mental theater of the University Theater presents its first two pro-ductions of the spring term, "The Last of the Lowries" and "Family Album.'

The plays will be presented in

Keporters

Betty Lou Huston, Nebraskan editor, has announced that reporter beats have been assigned and are posted on the bulletin board in the office, Union basement.

Temple Theater, beginning at 7:30

"The Last of the Lowries," by Paul Green, is a tragic, down-to-earth drama, depicting melancholy and tension thruout.

The lightness and flippancy of "Family Album," second of the two plays to be presented, bears no similarity whatsoever to the first. It is pure sophisticated comedy, written as only Noel Coward can write this type of thing.

The two performances will have (See PLAYS, page 3.)

Rachmaninoff

Coed Advises Young Love Talent Search On Meaning Of Valentines Under the slogan "To Discov America's Outstanding Your Pianist," the Rachmaninoff Fun Inc. is sponsoring the first

BY ELLIE SWANSON.

men and women whose interests cavemen, a particularly alluring are sentimentally directed toward members of the opposite sex, we needlessly announce, is Valentine's Day.

To young love, who need not be reminded, to girls who hinted and new sarong when a gigantic dinoemerged the victor, and to the dashing hero who finally forked over, this article is affectionately dedicated.

It seems that Valentine's Day evidently neither Webster nor the Encyclopedia Brittanica have heard about it or else they are extremely dull romanticists. Webster, kill-joy No. 1, informs us that "February 14 was observed as a festival in honor of St. Valmate. (This presumably is limited imagination like I do! only to birds.) The custom of sending love tokens at this time has no actual connection with the saint, whose name was i.troduced through mistake."

his implications that the whole quence, but the art has developed mous box of candy . . . it may thing is just a big mistake. I, personally, prefer to think that long of that we are sure. For example, but it certainly tastes good!

Today, for the benefit of young days of prehistoric monsters and card reading to this effect . . cavewoman won the heart of Upfg, idol of the barefooters (Van Johnson variety). One day, in her own dainty, feminine fashion, she was out killing leopards for a saur with dimensions beyond description attacked her with full if a gentleman receives a card intentions of stealing a lock of her hair.

Arriving just in time to avert has a long, elaborate history, but the tragedy came Upfg, who, with only the aid of his boy scout knife, slayed the monster and presented its heart to his terrified sweetheart. (Gory, isn't it?) This, I am convinced, was the first Valen-tine's Day, but to learn how this day came to be called what it is, entine. It was a very old notion read next week's breath-taking is-that on this day birds begin to sue of the "Rag" or use your own

Maybe you've wondered how the custom of sending sentimental poems and love tokens on this don't give up yet . Well, so much for Webster and How it began is of small conse-

ago, in the appallingly hideous if you receive in today's mail, a

Even though it may not look it, This valentine was inspired by cupid.

Although it only says "Hi Stupid!"

don't give it another thought it's his way of saying he loves you. (I hope.) On the other hand, reading thusly . .

All by her ownsome a girl gets lonesome But I'd gladly take it on the chin

If you would care to fence me in.

07

I may not be so glamorous, But, boy, I'm sure amorous!

there . . . do something about it!

Well, the time to go has come. As I depart, I leave with you this thought. If your mailbox was not full of lace and heart, and if no candy or perfume came your way, . remember day originated . . . well, so have you still have eight hours at best to work, and if worse comes to worse, send yourself an anony-

Fund Begins

Under the slogan "To Discover America's Outstanding Young pital reconversion cost will run approximately $200,000 will run Inc. is sponsoring the first of three contests to encourage talented young American pianists, conductors and composers - the three fields in which the late Sergei Rachmaninoff was eminent.

The inal winner will receive a coast-to-coast tour of the U.S.A. as piano soloist with leading symphony orchestras under the joint-management of Columbia Concerts, Inc. and the National Concert & Artists' Corp. In addition, if plans mature, a similar tour will be conducted thru Russia, the native country of Rachmaninoff.

To the semi-finalists from each region, the Fund will arrange appearances with a regional symphony and in recital.

Contestants must be U.S. citifor pete sakes, don't just stand zens between the ages of 18 and 25, except service personnel who may be 28. Each applicant must have a repertoire of 15 solo numbers and three concerts drawn from a list prepared for the fund by musical authorities. Pianist Vladimar Horowitz is president of the association.

Street, New York, 19, New York. Moritz.

houses allotted to the university by the army for a two-year period.

Reconversion.

It is estimated that the hosapproximately $200,000 with an additional $50,000 for furnishings. The total cost of 300 living units would be $250,00.

It was disclosed by L. L. Seaton, Nebraska university purchasing agent, that 300 units are considered the least possible to enable the project to pay for itself. Figuring on a $40 monthly minimum per unit, occupied for at least a ten month period each year for five years, the total return would be approximately $300,000

(See HOUSING, page 2.)

k

0

Future Teachers Meet Thursday

A second meeting of prospective teachers for the school year 1946-47 will be held Thursday, February 14, at 4 p. m. in sosh auditorium.

Richard D. Moritz, director of teacher placement, will give final instructions for completing registration in the placement bureau.

The meeting, which will not be a Interested students who wish repetition of the one held in Defurther information should write cember, should be attended by to The Rachmaninoff Fund, Inc., all students who plan to teach Steinway Hall, 113 West 57th next year, according to Mr.