

Beauty Queens Reign at Dance

Eligible Bachelors Escort Six Finalists at Valentine Ceremony

Marcile Schmid, Barbara Blackburn, Betty Jean Latta, Jean Bogan, Colleen Kahoa and Betty Gompert stepped thru a large red heart and, as they were escorted across the stage by the eligible bachelors, were introduced by Margaret Neumann, Student Foundation president, as the six 1946 beauty queens.

At a tea dance yesterday afternoon in the Union ballroom, the Student Foundation broke tradition established by the Cornhusker to keep the beauty queens' identities secret until the publication of the year book in the spring.

Prof. Marvin Speaks Tuesday At Sigma Xi

Dr. Henry H. Marvin, chairman of the university department of physics, will speak on "Atomic Energy" at the Sigma Xi meeting to be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the auditorium of Morrill hall.

Dr. Marvin, professor of theoretical physics, will discuss the release of energy by atoms when they are bombarded by subatomic particles. He will point out the technical difficulties to be overcome before atomic energy can be put to general use.

Students have been invited to attend this lecture, which is open to the public.

Winners of 'Time' Contest Named By Union Director

Winners of the TIME current affairs test, Jean Matteson and Herman Mestl, will be awarded $5.00 each in books of their own choice, according to Pat Lahr, Union director.

In the test, sponsored by the Union, Miss Matteson placed first with a 92 out of a possible 105, and Mr. Mestl, a veteran student, was second with a score of 90. Consistent readers of TIME magazine and NEWSWEEK, Miss Matteson is a junior in Teachers college and Mr. Mestl has just registered on the campus.

Lowest score made on the test was 44 points, with TIME readers averaging 84. The average score made by college students is 35.

Miss Schmid was escorted by Lowell Anderson, Miss Blackburn by Bill Swanson, Miss Latta by Jim Pettis, Miss Bogan by Don Chapin, Miss Kahoa by Johnny Bell and Miss Gompert by Chick Story, substituting for eligible bachelor Don Barry, who is on a basketball trip.

A crowd of approximately 900 crowded the Union ballroom to watch the four brunette and two blonde beauty queens parade across the stage, down the steps and the length of the ballroom.

The Student Foundation sponsored the tea dance, decorated the ballroom and furnished brownies and punch.

David Rubinoff selected 12 coeds to vie for final honors at a preliminary judging in November. Pictures of the 12 were submitted to Harry Conover, head of the Conover modeling agency, who made the final selections.

Extension Division Gives Book Review Friday

The university Extension Division book review will be held at the Don L. Love Memorial library on the campus Friday at 9:30 a. m.

Miss Emily Schosberger, editor of the university press, will discuss "My Indian Family" by Hilda Wernher, and Mrs. Norma Kidd Green of the Extension Division will review "Voiceless India" by Gertrude Emerson.

YWCA Tea

A YWCA tea will be held tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 5:15 at Ellen Smith hall. All coeds are invited to attend, according to Virginia Demel, social chairman.

University Observes 76th Anniversary At Luncheon

Observing the 76th anniversary of the university, the Board of Trustees will meet for a luncheon at the Union today, Chancellor C. S. Boucher announced.

Today marks the university's second postwar celebration of Charter Day in one century. On Feb. 15, 1919, the university honored its World war I dead. Twenty-six years later the university remembers its war casualties of World war II.

Charter Day was set aside by the university and its alumni in honor of the passage of definite legislation by the state legislature on Feb. 15, 1869, for the establishment of the state university.

University Hall.

Since the dedication of University hall on Sept. 23, 1869, the university has grown to 33 buildings on 75 acres with a college of agriculture, an agronomy farm, a school of agriculture at Curtis, a fruit farm and an agricultural experiment farm. In 1909, the university was the 18th university chosen for membership in the association of American universities.

In former years convocations were held to observe Charter Day. Noted speakers addressed the students and faculty, and skits depicting early university life were given.

Seventy-seven years have made many changes in faculty and administration but old alums can still remember the days when The Daily Nebraskan was the Hesperian, when Ellen Smith was the registrar from 1877 to 1902, and when, in 1925, Nebraska was on the winning end of a 17-0 score in the Notre-Dame game.

Houses Vie For Honors In Carnival

Nineteen organized houses will compete for top honors in the annual Penny Carnival to be held Saturday in Grant Memorial gymnasium from 2 to 4 p. m.

A committee composed of Joy Hill, Sally White and Phyllis Sorensen are in charge of the Carnival, which is under the sponsorship of the Coed Counselors.

Tickets for the event may be purchased from any Coed Counselor, in the Union today or at the door of the gymnasium Saturday. Tickets sell for 20 cents and are punched at each booth during the carnival. They will also be used as ballots in the voting.

The winning booth will be determined by both student voting and faculty judging, and a trophy presented to the best entry, while booths placing second and third will receive honorable mention. The ballots will be counted at 3 p. m. and the results of the voting will be announced at 4 p. m.

Delta Delta Delta has won first place for the past two years, with Alpha Omicron Pi placing second.

Coed Follies

Houses participating in Coed Follies should submit their lighting plans no later than Saturday to Tibby Curly at the Alpha Chi Omega house, according to Mitdge Holtzschere.

Typical Coed Candidates Meet Sunday

Candidates for Typical Nebraska Coed will appear Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the experimental theater in Temple, according to Mitdge Holtzschere, A.W.S. president.

The coeds are to appear in the clothes they wore last Sunday unless otherwise informed by the Follies committee.

Final Selection Not Yet Made.

Final selection for TNC has not (See CANDIDATES, page 2.)

Perry Branch Announces Student Fund

The Mary Ellen Brown Scholarship and Fellowship fund has been established for undergraduate and graduate students in the department of home economics, Perry W. Branch, director of the University Foundation, announced Thursday.

Saint Valentine Theme Predominates In Weekend Student Church Activities

Five church groups are planning parties, most of them with a St. Valentine's day theme, for this weekend.

Gamma Delta, Lutheran student organization, under the direction of the Rev. Henry Erck, is inviting Lutheran students and their friends to a party at the Y.M.C.A. club room, Temple building, Saturday evening at 8:30.

Christian students of the university will have a party Friday night at the First Christian church, and Catholic students are invited to attend a dance at the city CYO hall, also Friday evening.

A party will be given for Presbyterian students, at the Presbyterian student house at 8 p. m. Friday. Evening's entertainment will include dancing, singing, stunts and refreshments.

Methodists will have their regular "Friendly Friday" party at 8 p. m. Friday, at the Methodist student house, with Betty Douglas and Alice Allen conducting folk games, and Dace Baylan telling about her life in Alaska. Refreshments will be served.

Regular LSA Meeting.

Lutheran chapel service will be held Sunday morning at 10:45 in room 315 of the Union, with the Rev. Erck conducting the service. His sermon will be "The First Sacrifice." Elaine Putensen will be accompanist for the hymns. The regular LSA meeting, directed by the Rev. Alvin Peterson, will be held at five p. m. Sunday evening in the basement of the Baptist student house.

Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at the First Christian church Sunday at 5 p. m. During the meeting, an Old Testament study (See CHURCH, page 2.)

Kosmet Klub Prepares For Strategic Return

BY KITTY KOSMET.

In hibernation since their March 1942 performance, the Kosmet Klub this week began making extensive preparations for a comeback this spring.

Approximately eight new members will be selected next week from the men on the campus by the old Kosmet members who have returned to the campus. The new honorary members will be chosen on a basis of leadership, scholarship and general ability, according to Dick Folda, president.

Hilarious Spring.

Students who witnessed the hilarious spring performance of '42 still chuckle, when they remember the "Pott Shots" show in which Max Whittaker as Millie, the Mata Hari Type campus oomph girl, had the audience in the aisles and the Pony Chorus will go down in U.N. history as one of the most riotous shows ever presented.

Instead of the annual spring show that the Kosmet Klub usually presents, the revived group will offer a series of skits this year and revert to their normal schedule next fall. The Klub also plans to introduce a Nebraska Sweetheart at the show, to be presented some time in April.

Besides the two annual shows the Klub presented each year, they also sponsored the inter-fraternity Ivy Day sing and offered a scholarship fund.

Prof. E. F. Schramm, advisor to the group before the war, assumes his former duties and John Cook has been elected business manager.

Varsity ROTC Band Presents Concert

DONALD LENTZ

Under whose direction the Sunday concert will be presented.

The university ROTC Symphonic band, under the direction of Mr. Donald Lentz, will be presented in a concert Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the university coliseum.

The soloists will be Phyllis Fischer on the marimba and Margaret Modlin on the cornet. The director of military training activities is Col. James P. Murphy.

Glinka's "Overture" from "Russian and Ludmilla" will begin the program, and works by Liszt, Gould and other composers will be included.

Present "The Legend."

"The Legend," by Paul Creston, a contemporary American composer, will be presented with Miss Modlin as soloist. "The Legend" is one of the few concert numbers originally written for band, and is rich with harmony, melodic material and exciting rhythmic designs.

Miss Fischer will assist on several selections, including "The Slavonic Dance in A Flat," by Dvorak and "Two Armenian Dances," by Khachaturian.
