

Ragged Edges

Pat Toof.

After vacationing from these dusty lines, I struggle back, valiantly waving a box of Kleenex and screaming Excelsior!

The campus is seething with activity this weekend with Harriet Freeman and Jimmy Weinsell right in the midst of it and enjoying every minute. Incidentally, these two have been "almost steady" since school started.

Correction of Friday's column: Beta PLEADGES claim all credit for said Valentine candy. Youse is good boys. Speaking of Betas, want to bring to attention their honeymoon party of last night. Ann Abel was there with Hal Burke—Jim P. rotzman linked with Jane Mudge—while Bob Holland appeared with Marge Sauer. Would like to bring in Dean Neil, but just can't keep up with him.

Let's Make Up Our Mind.

and attention to Gloria Rabe. Leo Beck seems to have decided upon Sally Stuht—at least for the present. Nancy Mines wishes to break it gently that she is again a free woman as of Friday night. Quote, "Jim and I are still good friends, though, and will date occasionally." Unquote—the phone number is 2-5332, fellas !!!

At the same house is Janie Little, but with Lee Lovan claiming most of her time. Would like to know where Lee got the Ronson lighter that is now part of Janie's possessions.

The Phi Psis grabbed blankets and other major picnic items and headed for Seward Saturday night. Among the happy crowd were Betty Stanton and Rod Monismith—Sally Graham making her debut on campus with Johnny Cook—last to mention but not least, Jack VanDecar and Dottie Thompson.

Time on Their Hands.

Spending much time together are Nancy Finkle and Sam Zimmerman—A carry over from grade school days—so they say. Another interesting combo—Phil Hoke, of bowling fame, and Dale Hatch. Would like to hear more of this.

Don't Get Caught!

Caught looking as if you had just lost an election bet . . . caught on campus without one of the beautiful new lightweight "V" neck sweaters now featured at Harvey's . . . these sweaters to be worn under suits are in all the vibrant colors of spring . . . A matched pair of these in mottled blue would make Jim Gilliland and Betsy Strain look even more pinned . . .

The latest thing in dress attire for dating seems to be HATS . . . Not the pancake job that Bob Lee sports . . . (All his needs is a three foot pheasant feather) . . . but something much less casual and much more suave . . . At any rate with this new trend in fashions . . . George "The Hat" Shestak is right in vogue . . .

"Where did that veteran get that black eye?"

"In the war."

"What war?"

"The boud war."

And for YOUR boudoir . . . have you seen the sharp "Ski Pajamas" in soft knit . . . blue or tan . . . that is for the navy and army vets . . . the colors in vice versa . . . of course.

So get caught up on your wardrobe by stopping in at Harvey Brothers, that distinctive store for men, at 1230 "O" street . . .
