

Nebraska Cindermen Win Triangular Meet

BY GEORGE MILLER.

Coach Ed Weir's Nebraska cindermen concluded preparation for the Big Six conference meet next week, by scoring a convincing triumph in a triangular meet Saturday night with Kansas university and Kansas State. The final tabulations showed the Huskers with a total of 60 points, Kansas with 41½ and Kansas State with 29½.

The win may have been a costly one for the Huskers, for Ralph King, elongated timber-topper, pulled a muscle in the low hurdle event, as he finished second to teammate Norval Barker in the race. Whether or not King will be able to compete in the conference championships next Saturday depends upon the extent of the injury.

Kratz Upset in 880.

Hal Hinchee, Jayhawk half-miler, turned in the surprise of the evening, when he upset Dean Kratz in the 880 yard race by a 15 yard margin. Hinchee's time was the best posted in Big Six competition this year, for he broke the tape in 1:59.8 after taking the lead from Kratz on the second lap.

Bobby Ginn, Madison distance runner, proved conclusively that he is back in his prewar form, as he romped to an easy win in the two mile run. The diminutive Scarlet runner lay back in the early stages of the race, but took off at the beginning of the gun lap and moved out in front to win in the time of 10:33.2. Wayne Raads, the winner of the past three two-mile dual races, finished third behind Ray Adee of Kansas State.

Prior to his defeat in the 880, Kratz won as he pleased in the mile, leading teammate Don Yocum to the tape. The mile time was 4:32.2. Harold Moore, the KU ace who was slated to give Kratz plenty of trouble, was kept at home by illness.

The Huskers piled up plenty of points in the hurdles, as Barker and King finished one-two in the lows, and reversed this order in the highs.

Leroy Robinson shoved the shot 46 feet 6 inches for the best mark of the season in the Nebraska indoor track. Ned Nutzman placed second with a toss of 44 feet 4½ inches, and was followed by two more Huskers, Don Hansen and Leonard Wibbels.

Jayhawks Get Seven Firsts.

Kansas university collected seven first places, while Nebraska managed to amass five. The lone Kansas State win went to Dick Fuller, who took the 60 yard dash in :06.6.

An unprecedented total of seven triangular records were shattered, but Saturday night's competition was only the second three-way meet on record involving the three schools. The 440, 880, mile relay, high jump, broad jump, pole vault and shot put records fell before the onslaught, which was witnessed by an overflow crowd, the largest of the season for the Nebraska indoor meets.

Hinchee's 880 performance was a new mark in the dual meet records between Kansas and Nebraska, the eighth of the evening, bettering the 2:02.2 mark by Morris of Nebraska in 1926.

The Huskers were actually victorious in three different meets, for in addition to the triangular win, the Scarlet thin clads won a 58 to 46 dual meet from Kansas and swamped Kansas State 71 to 32½ in a similar bit of competition. The third dual meet contained in the evening's program wound up with Kansas ahead of Kansas State 56½ to 46½.

Bob Stoland, Kansas jump artist, was high scorer with nine points, as he tied with fellow-Jayhawker Tom Scofield in the high jump at 6 feet ½ inch, and took an undisputed first in the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet 11 inches.

UN Cagers To Wind Up Home Season

The University of Nebraska basketball team will wind up its home season Monday night with a Big Six game against Missouri at the coliseum beginning at 8 p. m.

The Tigers have been strengthened since the last meeting between the two teams, which the Huskers won 44-42 at Columbia. Thornton Jenkins, a former conference standout, has returned to school and has bolstered the scoring punch of Coach George Edwards' quintet.

Schneider to See Action. Leo Schneider has recovered from his shin splint troubles, and will start at a guard position. Jim Sandstedt will pair with Schneider in the back court, while Bob Korte will handle the center duties. Gayle Lebsack and Joe Brown are expected to get the call at the forward posts.

Spring Football

All men interested in spring football will meet in the training room of the field house Feb. 27th at 7:30 p. m. for physical examinations. Arrangements for equipment will be made at this time, according to Elwyn Dees, trainer.
