

Theatre-Goers Enjoy adaptation Of Chopin's Life

BY DEDE MEYER.

A classical touch was achieved Thursday evening, in the Temple theater, when an adaptation of Jewell Miller's "Polonaise Militaire," in the form of a musical reading under the direction of Clarence Flick, was presented by the Experimental Theater.

"Polonaise Militaire" centered around the life of Frederic Chopin, living with Madam George Sand, when he wrote the immortal "Polonaise," as a tribute to his enslaved homeland, Poland.

Reader's Part.

Avrum Bondarin, as the reader, carried his part of the performance excellently, though he was at times, a bit melodramatic. The essential emotions of the story, however, were well conceived, due to the high quality of Mr. Bondarin's speaking voice.

Martyne Akerson, the accompanist, played the selections of Chopin with an artist's touch. Her music, however, was somewhat subjugated.

The lighting effects of the production were superb throughout. Special merit is due, therefore, to members of the stage and lighting crew, which included Ann Proper, Betty Zumhlingst, Pat Heynen, and Mimi Hahn. Stage manager for the production was Gloria Beaumont, and business manager was Arlis Swanson.

Debaters . . .

Bondarin, University of Nebraska, received second.

Text of Resolution.

Complete text of the resolution, passed at the legislative assembly following a noon luncheon at the Union, follows:

We, the members of the sixth annual University of Nebraska debate and discussion conference, seeking to further the economic security of all nations of the world, adopt the following resolutions to be incorporated in the United States foreign economic policy:

1. The fundamental principles of the UNRRA shall be supported, subject to the jurisdiction of the UNO.

2. The provisions of the Bretton Woods agreements shall be supported as a long range program.

3. The gradual reduction of trade barriers with the eventual goal of free trade in an international organization composed of nations which have relinquished their sovereignty.

Participating in the "Forum of the Air," Saturday, on the merits of outstanding work in discussion, were Mr. Goodspeed, Miss McKinsey and Betty Erickson, Iowa university, with Tom Sorensen of Nebraska, serving as moderator. On the same basis, Earl Pollock, Morningside college, was chosen for speaker of the legislative assembly, Edith Bannon, Northwestern, served as chairman of the resolutions committee for the assembly, and Robert Gillan, Nebraska, as secretary.

Nebraskans Rate Superior.

Included in the group of superior discussion speakers who served on the resolutions committee were five other Nebraska students: Gene Hauge, Don Kline, Ardith Smith, Betty Jeanne and Marthella Holcomb. Four other Nebraska students were ranked superior in discussion: Dean Wiley, Ted Sorensen, Tom Sorensen and Mary Ann Mattoon. Of 125 participants, 31 were ranked superior.

Five Nebraska debaters received individual ratings of superior in debate: Gerry McKinsey, Mary Mattoon, Marthella Holcomb, Robert Gillan, and Tom Sorensen. There were 23 superior individuals included in the group of 220 who took part in the five rounds of debate.

The debate teams of McKinsey and Mattoon, Gillan and Tom Sorensen, were ranked among the nine superior teams.

Leroy T. Laase, chairman of the speech department, and Donald Olson, director of debate, were in charge of arrangements for the annual conference.

Student Affairs Office Lists Positions Open

Several positions for university women and veterans' wives consisting of general clerical and stenographic work are now listed with Lee Chatfield, assistant dean of student affairs.

Three or four of the positions call for typing and general office experience and are more or less full time ranging in salary from $80 to $120 a month. They are located both on the campus and in downtown Lincoln.

Interested women should contact Dean Chatfield's office of Housing and Employment on the first floor of the administration building, he stated.

VETS' CLUB.

A model constitution and charter will be presented at a meeting of the Vets' Club Tuesday, at 7 p. m., in the Union ballroom. The steering committee of six men will state the aims of the club at that time.
