

Independent Tourney Won By 520 Club

Wednesday night, on the coliseum floor, a hard pressed 520 club team eked out a 24-22 victory over the Bell Bottoms to win the championship in the independent basketball elimination tourney.

Konousky Stars.

The 520 Club has looked well all season and Wednesday sparked by Konousky's 11 points, it was just too much for the navy boys, who had gotten their team together after the navy tourney was over, in order to compete in the independent bracket.

For third place among the independents, the Lillies outscored the Gismos, 36-33, as the winner's whole front line hit at least ten points apiece.

The same evening, Alpha Tau Omega walloped Sigma Nu, 35-4, for third place in the fraternity tournament. The championship game, scheduled to be played that night between Sigma Chi and the Phi Gams, was postponed, and the two will meet next Monday to determine the fraternity championship.

Playoff Next Week.

Next week the frat champs meet the 520 Club, and the Demolition Boys, navy-winners, in a round robin of games to fight for the all-university championship.

UN Mermen To Face Beloit On Saturday

Coach Ed Higgenbotham's mermen go into action again this week as they clash in a dual meet with Beloit College of Wisconsin, Saturday at the coliseum. A high school invitational swimming meet will also be on the schedule.

The two meets will be held alternately. One college event will be run off and then a high school event will follow. The meet is scheduled to start at 3:30.

No admission is charged.
