

Bernie Lists Four Teams; Moore Ready

Coach Bernie Masterson laid the groundwork for scrimmage plans, as he named four tentative squads from the ranks of Nebraska spring football candidates.

Moore Reports.

The backfield picture received a bit more of the rose-hued tone with the appearance of Jerry Moore, crashing Walthill fullback, who had previously said he would not compete. Moore was one of the most savage plunging backs in the Big Six at the close of the 1945 season, and his presence assures Masterson of a reliable man when one or two yards are needed thru the center of the line.

Named on the tentative No. 1 squad are Jim Fricke, Bayard, and Ed Nyden, Lincoln, at ends; Carl Samuelson, Grand Island, and Gordon Hall, Lincoln, tackles; Fred Lorenz, Lincoln, and Ed Schwartzkopf, Lincoln, guards; Bob Costello, Lincoln, center; Fred Metheny, Lincoln, quarterback; Dick Hutton, Auburn, and Marvin Athey, Wauneta, halfbacks, and Bill Hewitt, David City, fullback.

Six Lettermen.

Six of the first eleven listed are lettermen, but only Costello and Lorenz were regulars last year. Other lettermen on the present No. 1 group are Nyden, Metheny, Athey and Schwartzkopf.

The No. 2 unit listed Bob Schleiger, Omaha, and Bob Korte, Fairbury, at ends; Edgar Thompson, Lincoln, and John Sedlacek, Seward, tackles; Joe Lukas, Omaha, and Dick Goeglin, Lincoln, guards; Jim Taylor, Garden City, Kas., center; Dick Thompson, Lincoln, quarterback; Bob Lipps, Lincoln, and Harold Hungerford, Hershey, halfbacks, and Ray Boehmer, Lincoln, fullback.

Franklin Christensen, Fremont, and Roy Nyden, Beatrice, are ends on the No. 3 group; Bob Tegt, Fremont, and Francis Leik, Hastings, tackles; Wilburn Borwn, Auburn, and George Anderson, Ogallala, guards; Ed Murphy, North Platte, center; Carl Dilldine, Falls City, quarterback; Alex Fink, Lincoln, and Bill Vleck, Wahoo, halfbacks; and Dick Skog, Omaha, fullback.

Running with the fourth team were Francis Mandula, Youngstown, O., and Dick Page, Wyoming; Eugene Simm, Nebraska City, and Mila Wilhelms, Auburn, tackles; Bill Rolfmeyer and Bill Crawford, both of Lincoln, guards; Lou Howard, Long Island, N. Y., center; Neil McCluhan, Winnebago, quarterback; Bud Mockelstrom, Omaha, and Chick Story, Lincoln, halfbacks, and Dale Wismer, Lincoln, fullback.

Lipps was a guard on last year's Nebraska team, but has been shifted to a right halfback spot this spring.

Men's PE Club To Meet Tonight

The Men's Physical Education club, which was to have met last week, was forced to postpone its initial meeting, and will meet this Wednesday night, March 20 at 7:30 in the N club room at the coliseum.

At the meeting Wednesday night, new officers will be elected, and plans discussed for the coming year, as well as for this spring, and summer school. All majors and minors in physical education are invited.

Phi Gams Take IM Cage Title; Beat Sigma Chi

Phi Gamma Delta walked off with the crown in the all-fraternity basketball tournament Monday night by defeating a fighting Sigma Chi team, 28-22, on the varsity court.

The Fiji's two tree-topping cagers, Bob and Dick Schleiger, reached up high and often to dump in nine points apiece. Whitehead's matching nine points kept Sig Chi's in the game however, and after trailing, 8-13, at the half, they stayed with the winners basket for basket through all of the last two quarters.

The Fijis, after early season defeats, picked up the Schleiger brothers as second semester enrollees, and have had things more or less their own way on the hardwoods ever since. Now they face the 520 Club, independent champion, and the Demolition Boys, navy champs, in around-robin tourney starting tonight, to determine an all-university champion.

Triangular Meet Added To Schedule

The University of Nebraska track schedule has been enlarged with the addition of a triangular outdoor meet slated for May 4 at Ames, Iowa, and involving Nebraska, Iowa State and Minnesota.

This date leaves only the May 11 spot empty on the Husker outdoor campaign. During that weekend the state high school track and field championships will be held at the Memorial Stadium oval.

Coach Ed Weir's men have been working on the Memorial stadium cinder track when the weather permits and a number of new prospects have turned out for the squad.

Fem Fun . . .

Highlighting the coeds activities this week are the WAA elections tonight. Posted on the Grant Memorial bulletin board are the names of voters eligible to ballot. Also listed there are the bowling practice hours for the forthcoming tournament, the days scheduled being Monday, March 18 thru Friday, March 22.

A week following spring vacation brings the badminton tournament for which contestants are preparing.

INTRAMURALS

Basketball:
Beta Theta Pi 34, Cornhusker Coop 21; high scorers: Farris (Beta) 14, Thompson (Coop) 10.

SCHEDULE:

Phi Gamma Delta vs. Demolition Boys, March 21, 8:00 (V).

Water polo competition begins this week, so all teams should have at least one practice period before they enter actual games. The games will be of five minute halves, and contests will be sandwiched, one-half of one game being played, followed by the first half of another.

Oklahoma Aggies Drop KU 49-38

The Oklahoma Aggies won the right to represent the Fifth District in the NCAA regional play-offs at Kansas City by scoring a 49-38 win over Kansas University

Monday night at the Kansas City municipal auditorium.

Coach Henry Iba's Cowpunchers had too much Bob Kurland for the Jayhawks. The seven foot Aggie center swished 28 points through the hoop to lead the winners' scorers.
