

Ragged Edges

By Pat Gilligan and Georgie Wythers.

New fad of the Sigma Nus seems to be that the fellas wear the girls pins. Might have something there kids! Can't tell! Anyway, proof of the fact can be found on Bob Holman, who the other day was seen wearing Shirley Staats' pin under his shirt pocket flap, and then—brother Jimmy Alexander came to class flaunting the pin of Mary Lou Kennedy.

Speaking of pins (and diamonds too), business flourished during the brief vacation. One of much interest is that of Perry Branch and Mary Lou Holtz, which promises to develop into bigger and better things in the future, and are we ever glad to see this!!!

Mortar Board gals did themselves right proud when Edith Pumphrey received a diamond from Gene Solomon, and Suzie Pope showed her talents by securing Bill Fitch's med. pin. Congrats to you all!

This is just the beginning. Please string along, there's plenty on the way yet. For instance, diamonds went the way of Mary Verink—Don Patterson doing the honors. Jean Jirton is flashing a ring from Don Steen, and the engagement of Topsy Ramsey to Bob Kieffe. The broken record. Turn it off!!!

Needed—Sleep!

"Spider" Baughn came dashing up with hot off the wire news and here it is! It seems that Dick Stone will hold hands with Mary Armour but won't relinquish his pin. Why not stop this, so as Joe Brown can get some needed sleep? Think Baughn needs some too.

Surprise date of the week! Jo Guenzel with Leo Beck last Friday at the Pikes? Dancing to the smooth (so they tell us) music of Sunny Dunham. And, speaking of this Dun' m boy, Friday night will see him at the junior-senior prom. There too will be Virginia Deforest and Bob Lewis, Ellie Delacy and Bob Sleighbough, Pat Thompson and Bob Veeder, Nancy Mines and Bob Richards, Betty Burns and Curt Hasselbach, Alice Christenson and John Call, and Fran Edee with Bob Jordan.

Dorothy Carnahan and Bob Olson are back together again. Dorothy gave up her job in St. Louis to come back and be with him. "Love is blooming out all over."

Undecided.

After months of indecision between two interests, Marg Ross

One Hundred Speech Teachers Will Attend Convention Here

More than 100 teachers of speech have already indicated their intention of being present at the Nebraska Teachers Speech Association annual convention being held here in the Student Union this week-end with the university serving as host, according to speech department chairman Leroy T. Laase.

The program, under the direction of Dr. Laase who is also president of the organization, opens at 3:00 p. m. Friday with a general session followed by four sectional meetings in play production, declamatory, debate and speech correction.

Luncheon.

The speech association luncheon will be Friday evening with Dr. Laase as the principal speaker. He will discuss the "Status of Speech Education in Nebraska." At 8:00 p. m., members of the association will be guests of the Nebraska Wesleyan Plainsmen's Players' production of "Dark Victory."

Saturday morning, Dr. Leo Black, director of supervision and curriculum in the state department of public speech instruction, will give an address on "The Improvement of Speech Education in Nebraska."

Two Workshops.

Following his talk, the convention will break up into two school administrator-teachers speech workshops for the discussion of "How to improve teaching of speech in the classroom" and "How to improve Extra-Curricular activities and Contests."

A business meeting at 1:30 p. m. Saturday will close the convention which will be the first one held since the beginning of the war. Approximately 75 speech teachers and school administrators are participating in the program.

decided that Darrell Scharmann was the man and brought that Phi Gam pin from her jewel box to place beside her own Gamma Phi pin.

Another list will be published tomorrow upon request, and seeing as everyone is slightly against them, please, please offer suggestions. No advanced prices, no publicity necessary.

Regents Will Award $250 Scholarship

The recipient of a new $250 scholarship in the college of business administration will be announced in the near future as the result of action taken March 23 by the Board of Regents.

Regents decided to establish the $10,000 fund left by the late Prof. W. G. Langworthy Taylor as the foundation of an annual scholarship for some woman student in bizad.

Conditions for the scholarship will be determined by the faculty of the college and nominations will be received immediately thereafter. A committee composed of Dean John D. Clark and two members of the faculty will make the award.

Professor Taylor organized the department of Political Economy at the university in 1894 and retired in 1910. He left, at his death, substantial bequests to the university.

Engstrom Elected New Palladian Club President

Mildred Engstrom was recently elected president of the Palladian society succeeding Dorothy Christian who is retiring president.

Vice president is Donald Kroger and Janet Hutchinson was elected critic. The new recording secretary is Dorothy Johnston and corresponding secretary is Marjorie McCorkle. The new officers will be installed at the next meeting of the group.

The new Palladian pledges are Don Samuelson, Dave Swanson, Erwin Cone, Hugh LeMaster, Charles Grimes, George Meheuron, Rolf Isankson. Initiates who are now active members are Dorothy Johnson, Donald Kroger, Kathryn Ellingson, Robert McKenzie, Marjorie McConkle, Robert Lowell, Jack Burley, Robert Feiler, and Richard Veach.

Alumni . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

head up the reunion of the Innocents Society, senior men's honorary, planned for the Round Up weekend.

Mrs. Schmelkin will work with active members of the Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, in arranging plans for a reunion of the alumni members.

Reporters

There will be an important meeting of reporters for the Daily Nebraskan at 3:00. Excuses must be presented in person, according to Lou Huston, editor. All reporters who expect to continue work on the paper must attend the meeting.

Lucia Anderson Wins Ak-Sar-Ben $500 Fellowship

Lucia Elizabeth Anderson has been named the recipient of an Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation $500 research fellowship in agriculture for the 1946-47 academic year, according to Dean Robert W. Goss of the graduate college.

The fellowship is the first to be awarded from the Ak-Sar-Ben fund, which was established last December with the university foundation. The fund provides two $500 fellowships in agriculture and eight $300 scholarships to freshman students in the agricultural college.

$200 Awards.

During the current academic year the Ak-Sar-Ben Foundation will also award eight $200 scholarships to agriculture college sophomores and eight $100 scholarships to juniors.

Miss Anderson is a graduate student working on a masters degree in bacteriology. She received her B.S. degree from the university in 1945.

The Ak-Sar-Ben Fund was created to help stimulate research in fields which will do the most to aid Nebraska's agriculture economy.

his discharge last fall. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Martin, he has had one-man shows in London and Paris.

Cottonwood trees are always either male or female.

UN Tracksters To Perform in Texas Relays

Following their appearance at Norman yesterday for the dual meet with Oklahoma university, the Nebraska track and field team continues south to Austin, Texas, for the Texas Relays Saturday.

Coach Ed Weir has named a pair of relay teams for the meet, as well as a considerable number of individual entries. The exact roster for the individual events will be determined after the Huskers perform in the dual meet.

Two Relay Teams.

Nebraska will be represented in the distance medley relay and the two mile relay. Bill Moorhouse, Dean Kratz, Bobby Ginn and either Al Brown or Blaine Young will probably compose the medley team, while the two mile relay quartet will include four half milers.

Probable entries in individual events are:

Hurdles: Norval Barker, Aurora.

Dashes: Fritz Ware, Omaha and Harvey Stroud, North Platte.

Pole vault: Dick Miller, Fairbury.

Javelin: Herb Grote, Omaha.

Shot put: Don Hansen, Nehawka.

Discus: Leonard Wibbels, Wolbach.

UN Grad Artist's Works Displayed

Paintings and drawings by Keith Martin, former university student with the class of 1933 will be on exhibit in Miller and Paine's auditorium through Saturday.

A camouflager with the army in Iceland, England and France, Martin has been in Lincoln since

"By far OUR LARGEST SELLING CIGARETTE" SHERMAN BILLINGSLEY'S — FAMOUS STORK CLUB IN NEW YORK

A ALWAYS Milder B BETTER TASTING C COOLER SMOKING

ALWAYS BUY CHESTERFIELD

The RIGHT COMBINATION of the WORLD'S BEST TOBACCO — PROPERLY AGED

Copyright 1946, LOECOT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Add
Flight Training
to your curriculum.
Private courses now available at—
UNION AIR TERMINAL
Call 6-2835 for details.

SPRING CLEANING
Polish up your wardrobe at
The Evans
2-6961
LAUNDRY-CLEANING

Reporters
There will be an important meeting of reporters for the Daily Nebraskan at 3:00. Excuses must be presented in person, according to Lou Huston, editor. All reporters who expect to continue work on the paper must attend the meeting.