

Huskers Win Pair From Colorado U

The University of Nebraska baseball squad copped a 5 to 3 decision from Colorado Saturday afternoon to make a clean sweep of the two game series between the two clubs. The Huskers won the opening tilt on Friday by a 10 to 0 count.

Scheef Opens for U. N.
Wally Scheef, Gretna hurler, started on the mound for the Nebraska team, but before the game ended Coach Frank Smagacz had sent five pitchers to the mound. The Buffs gathered eight hits off the combined offerings of Scheef, Dick Lebbs, Johnny Olson, Floyd Stork and Harold Jacob.

For five innings Lefty Art Gray held the Huskers scoreless, but in the last of the fifth Bill Kinnamon singled, advanced to second when the Colorado center fielder bobbled the ball, and scored on Bob Bolen's double down the right field foul line. Bolen scored on Lebbs single thru shortstop.

Colorado came right back to knot the count in the sixth as O'Keefe, who collected three hits during the game, singled and went to second as Bobby Rubino dropped the throw from the outfield. He scored on an infield out. The second tally came when Bud Crow's long fly landed just inside the left field foul line for a triple. He scored when Husker third sacker, Wilbur Baack erred on Kinney's ground ball.

The Scarlet batsmen kept up their assault on Gray's teasing assortment of slow stuff in their half of the sixth. With two men away Wes Maser singled, advanced on an error and scored on cleanup hitter Frank Brown's single. Brown stole second and then crossed the plate as Truck Williams produced his second hit of the day.

Olson, N.R.O.T.C. pitcher from Detroit, scored Nebraska's final tally in the eighth as he walked, moved to second as Gray threw the ball away, in attempt to catch him off base, and scored on Rubino's single.

Colorado added their last run in the ninth when O'Keefe came thru with a single after Stork had walked two batters.

Smagacz Juggles Hurlers.
The Husker mound staff got plenty of work, as Smagacz experimented with his hurlers, while Kinnamon, Williams and Brown were dangerous at the plate with men on base.

Scarlet Wins Opener.
Jim Sandstedt was in command all the way on Friday, as Nebraska pounded out a 10 to 0 win. Jacob relieved Big Jim in the sixth and continued to baffle the Colorado hitters.

Kinnamon's home run and triples by Baack and Frank Brown were the big blows in Nebraska's attack.

Golf Hopefuls To Play Final Round Today

Varsity golf coach Bud Williamson has announced the pairings for the last round of qualifying play which will produce the Nebraska golf team for coming intercollegiate competition. The eighteen hole round will be played this morning beginning promptly at 10 at the Hillcrest Country Club on East O Street.

Five threesomes are listed for today's play, and the eight low men will compose the varsity squad for the Huskers' first match on April 12 against Kansas University at Lawrence.

Don Spomer, who won the intramural individual crown last fall, paced the field in the first round of qualifying play which reduced the field to fifteen men.

Pairings:
Don Spomer, Kenney Adams and Eddie McElligott.
Johnny Church, Tom Gillespie and Scott Greenwood.

Jim Liggett, George Dailey and Rex Gribble.

Bus Whitehead, Earl Auvinen and Ted Waechter.

Roland Bailey, Mac Graham and Don Stroh.

Butalo Bill was born in Iowa in 1846.

The bulge on Bessey is not a bustle, but the auditorium.

SWIMMING PICTURE.
An official photograph of the varsity swimming team will be taken at the Coliseum pool Monday, April 8. All squad members are asked to be present promptly at 4:30.

Texas Relays
Dick Miller tied for first place in the pole vault with a mark of 13 feet at the Texas Relays, run at Austin over the week-end, according to incomplete results received up to press time Saturday night.
Herb Grote won second in the javelin with a 192 foot 4 inch throw, and Don Hansen got fourth in the shot on a 44 foot 9 7-8 inch heave.

Quartet Schedules Fine Arts Concert

A recital by the School of Fine Art string quartet will be presented April 10, at 4 p. m. in Temple theater.

The quartet, composed of Emanuel Wishnow, Wilbur Price, violinists, James Nehez, violist, and Sara Davis, cellist, will be accompanied by Earnest Harrison.

Included on the program are excerpts from "Quartet in D Major," by Beethoven, and "Quintet in F Minor," by Brahms.

DON'T BE CAUGHT ASLEEP... at the fashion parade... "RIP" down to Harvey's and shoot a glance over the fashionable new assortment of spring neckwear... These bright colored ties are tailored in Tahoe crepe... cool as placid Lake Tahoe nestled at the foot of the fabulous Sierra Nevadas, they come in soft browns, exciting blues and sunny shades to suit everyone's fancy...

Can you fancy long-sleeved sport shirts of grey, tan, green or blue?... These very smooth jobs are equipped with convertible collars and three button cuffs... Did you hear about the two fish that did it on porpoise?

What we need for these jokes is a dash of Seaforth... the fragrance of those fine products will disguise anything...
