

Ragged Edges

BY PAT TOOF.

Back again with the main tools of the industry . . . chiefly satire, irony, the metaphor, simile, and allusion. . . The ways of saying what lies between the lines or what you think lies between the lines. . .

Looking back on the big attraction. . . Mainly the prom. . . An attractive couple was Chuck Mulvany and Betty Hubka. . . Colorado must have changed you, Chuck. Also joining the swish of formals were Marg Blomendahl and Victor Michaels. . . Ramey Beechly with Betty Lysinger. . . and Beth Polhemus with Boyd Clements. It was a big night between Roy Farris and "Blackie" Blanchard. . . Appreciating it too were Kae Diers and Dick Martin. Surprising twosome was Pat Warren squired by Dale Hatch. . .

The unbelievable occurred when a handful of Betas and Taus ignored the prom, declared a truce, and formed the "Big Six" Friday night.

The geometrical figure this week, commonly known as the triangle, includes Jack Clements, Dot Manion, and Jim Stoddart. Complications do arise, eh what, Dot? . . .

A pair to check for looks. . . Cute Ginny Pester and much-heard-about Milton Mack. . . Seen together lately in the local

Mu Phi Epsilon Presents Concert Today In Temple

Piano and vocal numbers will be featured in the concert which the Nebraska chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music group for women, present at p. m. today in the Temple Theater.

Included in the program are "Toccata," piano solo by Martyne Akerson, Omaha; vocal solos "Yesterday" and "O Mio Babbino Caro," by Donna Peters, Lexington; "A Bird Flew," by trio Betty Nicolai, Beatrice; Ann-Mari Jacobs, and Miss Peters; "The Brilliant Bird," a duet by Miss Nicolai, and Marian Peck, Wichita, Kas., flutist; "Colors" and "Three Blind Mice," by the Vocal Sextet; "Malaguena" and "Prelude No. 2 in C Sharp Minor," by piano duo Bernice Zajicek, Wilber, and Ara Jane Hill, Lincoln; and "Panis Angelicus," "Cradle Song," and "Our Triangle," by the Vocal Ensemble accompanied by Miss Akerson.

spots. Competition there, Mack . . .

A post-vacation surprise was handed to the Sigma Kappas as Frances Richmond and Dale Steele unexpectedly made the tie last Wednesday. Jane Gillett and George Postlethwaite are another happy couple for the same reason. Cupid's arrows flew thick and fast in Kay Watson's direction during vacation too. . . Proof of this—her return with med student Dudley Wilken-sin's pin.

Phys Ed Coeds Attend Annual Health Convention

Five representatives of the university's department of physical education for women will be included in the program at the American Association of Health's annual convention in St. Louis, April 8 to 12.

Dr. Mabel Lee, department chairman, Dr. Alleene Lockhart, Miss Jane Mott, Miss Frances McPherson and Miss Eunice Way make up the quintet. Others from Nebraska who will attend the meeting include Miss Clara Rausch, faculty member, and Miss Mary Jo Gish, senior phys ed major.

Any student wishing to write can work on The Daily Nebraskan staff.

Debate . . .

(Continued from page 1.)

sion; and Mary Ann Mattoon, eight firsts in three years of debate and discussion.

Highlights of the debate seasons: 1941-'42—Frank Mattoon, first unanimous first place choice in oratory in 15 year history of Missouri Valley contest; 1942-'43—Frank Mattoon and George Blackstone, only undefeated debate team at Iowa Invitational contest; 1943-44 Geraldine McKinsey, national champion in extemporaneous speaking contests at Washington, D. C.; 1944-45, Two debate teams undefeated at Illinois Invitational contest at Northwestern; 1945-'46—Thomas Sorenson and Robert Gillan, undefeated in debate contests during entire season which included four major invitational meets.

Vets Hear Plan For Reserve Air Corps at Meeting

The regular meeting of the Veterans Organization, April 13 at 7:15 p. m. in the Union, will feature a talk by John Campbell of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, who will discuss the proposed Reserve Air Corps unit for this area. The meeting is open to anyone interested in the topic.

Mr. J. P. Colbert, chairman of the Veteran's consultation board, will also be present to answer any questions in regard to problems of veteran students.

Those members holding membership cards for sale are asked to record their sales with the treasurer at the next meeting.

Two Gay Spring Favorites

Frivolous petal disc, or pert jewel-studded scottie . . . both of felt in vibrant Spring colors . . . both frothed with veiling . . . both priced for budget-brightening

$1.98 each

SEARS

10th at "O"—Lincoln, Nebr.

BEN SIMON & SONS Our Fortieth Year!

Young Towner Variations in the Easter Parade!

A scooped out neckline and skirt fullness add frivolity to eyelet and rayon crepe. Navy with pink or blue. 9 to 15.

22.95

Manford's two piece casual styled in Tegra, features expert detailing and leather belt. Pastel colors in sizes 10 to 18.

12.95

Fourth Floor