

UN Gridders See Action In Scrimmage

In the first game scrimmage of the spring football season, the Red squad scored three touchdowns to defeat the Greens as the Cornhusker coaching staff looked over the gridiron hopefuls as they performed under actual game conditions.

Myers Sparkles.

Jim Myers, York halfback, turned in the longest run of the day as he sprinted 70 yards to a touchdown. Fred Metheny went over from the 1-yard line, and Dick Hutton of Auburn dashed 35 yards with an intercepted pass for the other Red counters.

Two more scrimmages are in store for the Huskers, one on April 19 when high school football stars will be present, and the other on the last day of spring drills, April 25.

Red units:

No. 1—Ends, Mandaul and Nyden; tackles, Sarnelson and Leik; guards, Schwartzkopf and Lorenz; center, Costello; backs, Metheny, Hutton, Athey and Moore.

Williams Lists 'Ah Wilderness' Cast Members

Cast for the last major production of the University theater this season, "Ah Wilderness!" has been announced by Dallas S. Williams, director of the theater. The play, a comedy in retrospective, will be presented the evenings of May 9, 10 and 11.

Dean Graunke will play Nat Miller, editor of a small town newspaper, and Essie, his wife, will be portrayed by June Gast.

Both have appeared in University productions before, Graunke playing the part of Malvolio in "Twelfth Night" and Miss Gast was Juno in "Juno and the Paycock."

Bondarin.

Avrum Bondarin will appear as Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Nat Miller's school-teaching sister Lilly will be played by Dorothea Duxbury. Dave Andrews will take the part of Sid Davis, Nat's brother-in-law.

Other members of the cast include Arthur, Nat's young son, played by Howard Rosenberg; Mildred, Nat's daughter, Anna Marie Proper; Tommy, Nat's youngest son, Jeff Segar; David McComber, one of Nat's business acquaintances, Rex Cosler; and Murian McComber, his daughter, Eleanor Dent. Wint Selby, a classmate of Arthur Miller's at Yale, will be portrayed by William Mohr; Belle, a college girl, Mimi Hahn; Nora, Roma Rohn; bartender, Wayne Denning; and salesman, Robert Wheeler.

Tennis Workouts Slated for South Street Courts

Tennis drills for men seeking places on the University of Nebraska squad will be held every day this week at the Lincoln Tennis club courts at 36th and South streets, beginning at 3 p. m., according to Ad Lewandowski, who is handling the squad this spring.

Oklahoma Next.

A ladder tournament will be held to determine the players for the Nebraska squad in their next match. The Huskers will be host to the University of Oklahoma racquet wielders on April 19 in their next start.

University Staff Members Judge Music Contests

Four Nebraska high school music contests and clinics were judged by university school of music faculty members April 11 and 12.

Earnest Harrison and Lawrence Tagg were judges for the district music contest at Fremont Friday and Saturday. J. Dayton Smith and Donald Lentz conducted the high school music clinic at Wayne and David Foltz and Emanuel Wishnow judged the district music contest at Hastings Friday and Saturday.

Earnest Harrison also judged Lancaster county piano contests yesterday at Nebraska Wesleyan university.

Specialist in Drugs.

Over half of Dean Lyman's former students, all of whom he knows personally, have gone into drug research work, but he has this to say of today's corner drug-

"The pharmacist is a specialist in drugs. He is trained to know more about drugs than any other human being. It is his business to know their proper dosages and the combinations that will be the most satisfactory to the patient. It is his business to see that drugs get to those destinations intended by the physician, and keep them from reaching those who would be injured by them. He is a guardian of the public health."

Prep Pigskin Rally to Be Held April 19

The university, in cooperation with Nebraska Wesleyan, will be host to the Sixth Annual All-State Football rally Friday, April 19. On that date high school coaches throughout the state will bring their standout football players to Lincoln for a day of entertainment sponsored by the Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Full Slate of Activities.

High school athletes are given an opportunity to inspect the facilities at both schools, as well as attending a variety of athletic events scheduled for the day.

The university coaching staff heartily endorses the plan, and Football Coach Bernie Masterson urges every boy who is eligible to take advantage of this opportunity to get a look at the university scene.

Co-chairmen for the day are Dr. D. W. Edwards and Francis Minard of the junior chamber, who have lined up an attractive agenda of activities for the visiting athletes and their coaches.

Football Scrimmage.

Coach Masterson will have his Cornhusker spring football candidates go through a full game scrimmage at 4 p. m. as the high spot of the day's events. In addition to this gridiron action, high school players will be able to watch Nebraska varsity teams in action in three other sports.

At 1:30 the Husker golf team will face the University of Oklahoma team at the Lincoln Country club, and at 2:00 the Scarlet tennis players begin competition against the Sooner team at the Lincoln Tennis club.

The baseball team will also face the University of Oklahoma, in the first tilt of a two-game series. The Sooner nine has been cutting a fancy figure in its first games this season, and is touted as an outstanding contender for the Big Six title.

Cornhusker baseball mentor Frank Smagacz will send his team onto the field at 4:00, as the Scarlet make their first start Yukon.

Beta Sigma Psi led off with "Yukon If You Think You-Kon," an Alaskan melodrama in Orange Crush and the Chanetuse Fanny won out over the forces of evil. Sigma Phi Epsilon's "A Cold Winter's Evening" capitalized on singing waiters, campus personalities and situations, plus a jitterburg ensemble.

"As You Like It" found the Delta Tau Deltas broadcasting the Tom Feenamint show, with selections by the Andrews Sisters and Frank Sinatra, who was carried in on a stretcher.

The No Gin, No Sin Society invasion of the local taprooms by the Beta Theta Pis, culminated in "Wages of Sin." A phone booth, plus the usual fraternity goings-on, featured the Kappa Sigma "Third Floor, Northeast." Sigma Nus presented "This Is It," again on a radio theme, this time sponsored by Zilch's Fertilizer, and featuring a campus commentator, Calla Phones.

The Barefoot Boy with Cheek theme was utilized by the Phi Kappa Psis to produce "Welcome Home." Part of the reorientation of the returned veterans included meeting local glamour girls, and a pony chorus clad in abbreviated gym suits.

Registration at the Junior Chamber headquarters at 10 a. m. is the first activity on the day's slate, and the JCC will be host to the visitors at a noon luncheon at the chamber.

Bus Trip.

After the luncheon the high school stars will be taken on a bus trip to the Wesleyan campus and the Ag campus.

The itinerary for the trip:
1:15 Leave JCC.
1:30 Arrive Wesleyan.
2:30 Leave Wesleyan.
2:45 Arrive Ag College.
3:45 Leave Ag College.
4:00 Arrive at downtown campus.

The day will close with supper at the Student Union at 6:30. The meal is sponsored by the N Club, varsity lettermen's organization.
