

Ragged Edges

Strange As It Seems: Not only Ripley has his oddities but the UN campus has a few freak situations, too. Now take: Bill Lear crawling back to Billie Trombla after a six weeks solitude following Phi Gam pin trouble; Deuel Andreson and Jan Schwartz, steady or not steady is Chick Story's question; cornering Babs Stenger at the Phi hour dance was Ivan Hasek with his well-known saxy look; Lee Baughn with his many girls posing as the smooth operator; black and white—Morris Galter with Hink Aasen; and then, there's Buss Black and Jean Harvey.

Coming up Saturday night is the Sigma Nu spring formal—and the Kappas night to shine when—Jean Guenzel passes the time of night with Lee Farmer, the tuxedo kid, and Joan Titus dances with prexy Keith DeLashmutt. Social chairman Dale Hanway will be socializing with Joyce Smith. We understand Neal Helmus is still looking the field and will appreciate any offers he may receive. The girl making the offer will be accepted.

Norma Lee Stribling has her social calendar well filled this weekend when Omaha boy, Jack Glasnick, comes to town to give her the big whirl.

Back-bending Ware Christenson with his gang of henchmen invaded the Alpha Phi house Monday night—occasion, the pinning of Ware to Joan Bauer. They must have been saving up their energy for the trip.

Understand Jim Nicola was in Norfolk the past weekend where he attended several mixed parties while Jan Campbell "reluctantly" left for Minneapolis and the Student Union Board meeting. Hear there were several "mixed" parties up there also.

Throwing a Big picnic Saturday for the boys will be the pledges of ATO—but some of the boys seem to be having trouble getting dates (as usual). Jack Hoyt has a 'tentative' date with Ginny Swanberg—while Harry Gerhard has big plans with Ann Chamberlain. Sid Salzman broke down and invited Shirlee Wallace—after much talk against it.

Time's up, got to run!

Bulletins

French club will be postponed one week. The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 25.
The executive committee of the President's assembly will meet at 5:00 today in the Student Council office to plan the spring luncheon.
No evening meeting will be held by the Assembly this month.

Campus Queens.

Mary Dunnell's discussion of campus queens, under the heading, "It Should Happen to a Dog," brings to light a few intimate notes from someone's little black book.

There are, also, some incidental contributions from the well nigh immortal (lifeless) Tierney. One has been honored with a title, "Fud, Blet, and Gears," which is nearly above your head, cousin, since you've been sleeping in that basement apartment on the corner of 14th and R. It's on the corner all right, if it were any closer, you'd be walking in the storm sewer instead of your front door.

At this point, "All We Have to Say Is,"—Awgwans may be picked up (magazines, that is) at the booth in the Union after ten o'clock any day this week.

University Party

The University party will meet in Parlor Y of the Union at 3 p. m. tomorrow afternoon, announced Margaret Neumann, temporary chairman. All students interested in the newly organized party are invited to attend.

Juke Box Dance Planned in Union

Union activities for this weekend begin with a free juke box dance in the ballroom Saturday night from 9 till 11:30. There will be no dance Friday evening because of a high school function to be held in the ballroom.

The Campus Line and Crib will be open as usual on Easter Sunday, Pat Lahr, Union director, announced. There will be a coffee hours at 5 p. m. in the lounge.

Junior Division Students

All students now in the Junior Division are requested to call at the office in U hall, room 1, for instruction sheets covering registration procedures for summer school and the first semester of the next college year. Appointments with advisers should be made now for the registration period beginning April 29 and continuing until May 18, according to Nels Bengston, dean of the Junior Division.

ROTC Band Reorganizes Music Society

Reorganization meeting of Gamma Lambda, music honorary made up of members of the ROTC band, was held Wednesday noon in the Union, with Stanley Lowe, 1942 president, presiding.

Nine pre-war members, now returned to campus, attended, and elected Mr. Lowe president pro tem, to serve the remainder of the semester. Other temporary officers are Dick Weekly, vice-president; Verlyn Swanson, secretary-treasurer; and Harry Haskins, pledge chairman. Donald Lentz, director of the band, is sponsor, and was present for the luncheon.

Group Plans.

Plans for reforming the group and for pledging, which will take place in the near future, were discussed by Norman Capsey, Alfred Blinde, Bill Mumford, Bill Feehan and Ed Jordan, other old

NEWLY ENLARGED
SCIENTIFIC VAULT

. . . and a thorough examination by an expert furrier assure your furs the best of care!

We have just completed installing one of Nebraska's first post-war and most modern and largest fur storage vaults. The latest scientific knowledge has been used in its construction! The humidity and temperature controls prevent the natural oils from your furs from drying out and rendering the skins brittle and weak. The vaults are fully insulated against heat and fire and protected by the ADT system against theft of your precious furs.

Each garment is . . .

- ★ RE-VITALIZED with clean, dry blown air
- ★ GAS STERILIZED to destroy infestation of all kinds . . . safe and odorless.
- ★ COMBED and BRUSHED to dislodge foreign matter, dirt, grit and larvae.
- ★ HUNG INDIVIDUALLY at full length in our modern clean and sanitary spacious vaults.
- ★ GUARDED AGAINST MOTHS—HEAT—FIRE—THEFT!

Then, to restore its loveliness and preserve its beauty longer, let us clean your fur coat by the furrier's scientific cleaning method!
