The Nebraska coaching staff has divided the roster into two teams,

'N' Club Makes No Formal Stand On Council Vote

No official action on the Student Council resolution concerning inter-racial restrictions in the Big Six was taken at the special meeting of the N club called Thursday night to discuss the matter.

Jerry Kathol, president, said the session held in the N club room at the coliseum was not fully attended, and that no formal resolution was drawn up. "The men seem to feel that the council action was hasty and ill advised," Kathol told the Daily, "and most of them do not believe the council members took full consideration of the possible results of the threat to leave the Big Six."

Orchesis Recital Will Be Presented Twice This Year

Orchesis presents its 19th annual spring party on May 3rd and 4th at 8:15 p. m. on the Grant Memorial stage. The group decided to perform on two evenings this year after playing to capacity audiences during its past two recitals.

Celebrating its 19th year on this campus, the honorary modern dance club of the University of Nebraska, was first organized here in 1927. Today almost all of the larger colleges and universities have orchesis groups, some of them giving recitals that rank high in artistic merit. It is estimated that about 50,000 coeds and men are enrolled in college modern dance classes in this country.

Sponsored by the Department of Physical Education for Women and the W.A.A., Orchesis is advised by Dr. Aileen Lockhart, dance instructor.

Due to the intense interest in modern dance shown by students on this campus, a second group called Pre-Orchesis was organized last year. Orchesis and Pre-Orchesis totals 40 in membership—entrance being based on tryouts, an informal examination and election.

partment of Physical Education for Women. The coliseum pool will be the scene of the recital on April 26th at 8:15 p. m. Included in the program are demonstrations of rhythmic swimming and classic water patterns by the Aquaettes.

The Aquaettes, girls' swimming club, consists of 20 coed swimmers sponsored by Miss Jane Mott. Dorothy Meshier is president of the group.

A limited number of tickets are now available at the WAA office in Grant Memorial and from WAA house representatives. The price of admission is 40 cents.
