Vol. 45, No. 93

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Wednesday, April 24, 1946

Dr. Thornton Coeds Swim Will Address In Pageant Convo Friday

Dr. H. J. Thornton, professor of history at the University of pool Friday at 8:15 p. m. Iowa, will address an all-student convocation in the Union ballroom at 11 a. m. Friday. His topic is "History and Optimism."

Here for the 33rd annual meet of the Nebraska History Teachers' association, Dr. Thornton will give a series of talks in Lincoln Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 25, 26, 27.

Doctorate.

Since receiving his doctorate at the University of Chicago, 15 years ago, Dr. Thornton has been a member of the University of Iowa faculty. A popular lecturer and in great demand both among pro-fessional groups and before nonacademic audiences, he is the author of numerous articles and papers on historical and current house representatives or at the problems. He has in process of coliseum door. publication a work on the chautauqua movement in the country.

Dr. Thornton was born in South Africa and began his education there. He is a man of broad experiences and sympathies and is well prepared to interpret our present world scene.

Effort Will Be Made to Meet Teacher Need

To meet the teacher shortage in Nebraska's elementary and high schools, over 4,000 emergency teachers certificates will be issued this fall, according to an estimate made by R. D. Moritz, director of department.

Over 3,258 certificates were issued last year, and 27 in 1929 law was enacted to meet an anticipated shortage of teachers during wartime.

Sharp Increase.

being turned out by Teachers colleges; and the large number of servicemen's wives quitting the profession as their husbands are released from the armed forces.

Veach, Panadian, Jean Davis, Call take six credit hours during the long (nine week) session instead of seven. Minimum credit hour requirement for the short (six week) summer session has been reduced from five to four, Profes-

Friday Nite

Released today was the program for the "Melodies in Swim-time" recital. The demonstration is to be presented in the coliseum

Enacting the pageant are twenty-five coeds, members of the Aquaettes swim club which is instructed by Miss Jane Mott and presided by Dorothy Meshier. The presentation is staged as fol-

Aquatic Dance Forms. Rhumba, "Tico Tico." Waltz, "Artists Life."

Apple Pan Dowdy.'

Quadrille, "Quadrille." Ballet, "The Waltzing Doll." "Softly as a Morning Sun-

7. "Swinging on a Star." 8. Diving, "Shooting Stars." 9. Flashlight drill, "Moonlight

Cocktail." 10. "Star Dust."

11. Finale. Tickets are 40 cents and may be obtained at the WAA office in Grant Memorial or from WAA

USA Council Plans Meeting For Members

New members of Unaffiliated Student Association council will be introduced at a dinner for old and new members held in Parlor X of the Student Union Thursday at 6:15.

According to Don Huffman, re-tiring president of the council, who will be in charge of the dinner, a business meeting will be held, new officers elected and installed, and the constitution com-mittee will make its report.

New Members.

New members of the council for the university Educational Service | the coming year are: Cecil Jacob-Cornhusker Co-op; Dave Pickrell, Brown Palace; Nels Johnson, Pioneer Co-op; Bill Dra-per, Ag Men's Social club; Marian when the emergency certification Crook, Residence Halls for Women; Arlene Wacha, Raymond Hall Annex; Betty Hubka, Howard Hall; Jo Kellenbarger, Wilson Hall; Virginia Lee, Ross Bouten

Ruth Ann Medaris, Love Memo-Moritz said the sharp increase rial Hall; Betty Gustafson, Inter-in emergency certificates is due national House; Vivian Frasier, to many teachers in the service Loomis Hall; Cleo Schmoldt, Cox not returning to their profession Hall; Mary Ann Campbell, Towne after being discharged; insufficient number of trained teachers Veach, Palladian; Jean Davis, Cari take six credit hours during the

Department Places art Exhibit

the permanent collection out of storage the art department has now placed an exhibition or works purchased from many annual shows around the second floor corridor of Morrill Hall.

Composed mostly of prints the exhibition includes lithographs, silk screen prints and block prints, Subjects of the works are abstractions figures in action, scenery, animals, and groups of peo-ple, such as "Races at Deauville" by Duffy, "Night Repairs" by Louis Lozowick, and "Elephant and Clown," the artist unknown. Many works to come out of the Federal Art WPA Project are now represented in this collection.

tion which have been recommendof them. Student drawings from raphy.

Bringing about 100 works from the works show eye movement, are permanent collection out of dark and light pattern, line condark and light pattern, line contour and principle forms. Works represented by such analyses are B. J. O. Norfeldt's "Rooster," "Pensionnaire" by Jack Levine; "Lighthouse Point" by Joseph De Martini, "The Gray Horse" by Lee Jackson and "Backdrop of East Lynne," a tempera by Charles Demuth, all oils except "The Gray Horse."

> by Dwight Kirsch and "On the Beach" by Louis Breslow are two of the block prints shown in the exhibition, thruout which plates showing the steps in various craft and art processes have been placed with works showing these tech-

All the works from this year's An original lithograph by Nebraska Art Association exhibi- Thomas H. Benton, "Lonesome Road," is shown and a caption ed to the Board of Regents for hanging beside it tells how an er-purchase are now exhibited and ror in the position of the donkey accompanied by student analysis occurred in the processof lithog-

Orchesis Will Join Theatre

The Experimental theater and the Orchesis will combine to present a half-hour program of dance and choral reading in the Temple Theater tonight beginning at 8 p. m.

The program is based upon an adaptation of "The Congo," by Vachel Lindsay, which is a story Jitterbug, "Shoe Fly Pie and of the Negro race, including 'Their Basic Savagery" and "The Hope of Their Religion." The combined effects of interpretive dancing, solo and chanting voices backed by the rhythmic beat of tions will all lend towards recreating the savage worship of pagan gods.

Members.

part in the production are Jane Little, Peggy Maby, Elizabeth Lamb, Myra Lee Hadan, Donna McCandlass, Marian Falloon, Myrtis Rider, Jean Leinberger, Patricia Toof, and and Marilyn Duffock. Dances were conceived and directed by Erma Lou Fisher.

Students taking part in the speaking chorus are Bill Lucas, Dede Meyer, Van Westover, Herb-ert Spence, Don Stevens, Connie Kaminsky, Barbara Berggren, Lois Jarman, D. Ann Richardson, Betty Russel, Arlene Fischer, Eloise Shlensky, Dorothy Lasher, Annette Segal, and Lorraine Rabe.

Mr. Clarence Flick, of the speech department, will direct "The Congo." The performance is open to the public.

Vet Administration Revises Summer Session Requisite

Veterans attending the university summer sessions may register for fewer classes to qualify for full subsistence allowances, Prof. J. P. Colbert, chairman of the faculty committee on veterans affairs announced Tuesday.

"full time summer school course" sor Colbert said.

Coeds Will Model In Hovland's Style Show April 30

Charm School is presenting its annual style show April 30, at Hovland-Swanson's. Models for the show representing all organ-Manchester, Jane Little, Mary Beackson and "Backdrop of East synne," a tempera by Charles bemuth, all oils except "The Gray lorse,"

"R.F.D. Nebraska," a block print y Dwight Kirsch and "On the each" by Louis Breslow are two of the block prints shown in the

> The models will be notified as to time and place of the final meeting before the style show.

Awgwan Copy Awgwan editor Ruth Korb announced today that all copy for the May issues must be in the Awgwan office by Saturday noon.

M. C. Phillips Directs A

Acting as director of the all group is Beth Norenberg with Jan university fund for the coming Soulek taking the post of publicity school year will be Mary Claire director. Jean Chilquist is in organization, War Council mem- charge of the clerical division and Cornhusker news editor and an Harriet Quinn is head solicitor. AWS board member.

Jan Engle, present AUF director, has announced other appoint- Shirley Jenkins, former publicity

May 4, Marks Union's Eighth Birthday Party

The eighth annual Union birthnative drums, and weird incanta- day party will be celebrated Saturday evening, May 4, from 8:30 drives were included to midnight, in the Union ball-groups' work this year. room, announces Pat Lahr, Union

The Union activities committee Members of Orchesis taking has engaged Jug Brown's orchestra for the affair. The band is best known here for its recent two year engagement at Peony park in Omaha. Brown boasts musical ability on bass fiddle, clarinet and Ventriloquist. Ventriloquist Bud Levinson, familiar with pre-war campus audiences, will bring his friend Johnny Dugan to the Union stage during intermission. Levinson, in the special service corps during the war, took friend Johnny overseas several times.

Also featured will be Gene Ellsworth, who is scheduled to Bill Roberts is the student chairplay solovox requests in the man, lounge from 9 to 11:30 p. m. Free punch and brownies will be served. Only admission needed is the student's identification card.

Dean Clark, Elliott Attend Economics Meeting in Chicago

Convening on April 25th, 26th and 27th in Chicago is the Midwest Economics Association which Tourney Entries discusses current financial problems and reviews the postwar labor policy at the general meeting.

Representatives from the Nebraska campus are Dean John D. fice for the bridge tournament The Veterans administration Postwar Geo-Politics and Economics. Dr. Curtis M. Elliott ad316, according to Pat Lahr, union dresses the group Friday on the director. at the request of the university to Problems of Teaching Economics. Not Dry.

Says Dr. Elliott, "there is a need for removal of all criticism, however small, so that our stu-(See CLARK, page 4.)

AUF advisory board members, as announced by Miss Engle, are ments. New treasurer of the director, Evelyn Lashinsky, past soliciting head, Margaret Hall and Martin Pesek. A fifth member of the board will be appointed following the Student Council elections, as one Council representative serves on the board.

> Heading all campus charity drives, AUF has combined the activities into just one drive a semester. The WSSF and National War Fund and the Red Cross drives were included in the

Groups Meet

The city campus YMCA commission groups will hold their weekly discussions tonight following a 7:15 business meeting at the Temple building.

Personal Effectiveness will meet at the home of Dr. Warren Baller to discuss "Evaluating Vocational Tests for Personal Use."

Host.

Dr. O. H. Werner will be host to the Faith For Life commission which will talk about "An Tter-nal Faith" under the leadership of Warren Thomas.

John Ellis will lead the Political Effectiveness group in a discus-(See YWCA, page 4.)

Saturday Bridge Due This Week

Students should register sometime this week in the Union of-

Registration should be by pairs for the tournament which includes three rounds of six hands each, Two double decks of cards will be awarded as prizes to the first and second place winners.

Dr. Westbrook Directs Choral Union in 'Elijah' Next Sunday

Felix Mendelssohn's "The Eli-jah," one of the favorite oratorios of all time, will be presented in Other Soloists. the coliseum Sunday at 3 p. m. by the university Choral Union, composed of singing groups from both city and ag campuses. The chorized houses are: Helen Jacobs, Ann uses and the university orchestra, Manchester, Jane Little, Mary Be-prepared by Emanuel Wishpow, will be under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westbrook.

Leading Role.

The leading baritone role of the prophet Elijah will be sung by graduate student Cleve Glenzlinger who was heard in that role when "The Elijah" was last presented in 1942, While an under-graduate, Mr. Glenzlinger appeared in university musical productions including the operas "Robin Hood" and "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Thru competitive audition he was also chosen to solo with the Lincoln Symphony orchestra but entered the army before the performance. Consequently he will time last year.

Other soloists include Fanabel Tripp, graduate soprano, Mary Berner, contralto, and Floyd Hanson, tenor, both voice coaches of the school of music faculty, and Joyce Stuve. Miss Tripp and Mr. Hanson were heard earlier this season as soloists in Handel's "Messiah," presented by the Choral Union in December, Or-ganist Myron Roberts and Pianist Earnest Harrison will assist the orchestra.

Text for the oratorio is the Old Testament story of the prophet Elijah, and of his experience with the followers of the false god, Baal. The Choral Union presents a major choral work each semes-ter, the "Messiah" being the traditional first semester offering. The second semester selection varies from year to year. Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater" were given at this