

UN Relay Team Runs At Drake Meet Today

Nebraska fans will be watching the results from the Drake Relays this afternoon with special interest, for the Huskers' best bet for a relay team championship will be in action.

The distance medley relay team, composed of Harvey Stroud, Blaine Young, Dean Kratz and Bobby Ginn will run this afternoon in one of the finals which will occur today.

Against the Scarlet runners will be the Drake team which finished a close second to the Weir-men last week at the Kansas Relays, as well as a highly touted University of Illinois quartet. The Nebraska combination ran the two and a half mile distance in 10:30.2 a week ago, with Ginn producing a 4:25 mile on the anchor leg to outlast Fred Feller of Drake in the drive to the tape.

Stroud, lanky North Platte sprinter, will open the race with a 440 yard sprint, followed by Blaine Young who will take care of the 880. Dean Kratz is the third runner, at a distance of three-quarters of a mile, and Ginn completes the distance with the one mile anchor leg.

Other Huskers Perform.

Other Nebraska performers will also shed their sweat suits today, for finals are scheduled in the discus and broad jump, plus preliminaries in the individual track events and some field events.

Leonard Wibbels and Joe Pappas are entered in the discus, and Fritz Ware will compete in the broad jump.

Two Relay Teams.

On Saturday the Husker one and two mile relay teams, javelin ace Herb Grote and pole vaulter Dick Miller will make their bids, along with shot putters Ned Nutzman and Don Hansen. Wibbels will also toss the javelin, while hurdlers Norval Barker and Ralph King will go to the mark in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Nebraska Golf, Tennis Squads Meet K State

Hoping to repeat an earlier triumph, the University of Nebraska tennis team will match strokes with an invading Kansas State squad this afternoon at the Lincoln Tennis club.

Barrett No. 1.

Acting Coach Bud Marsh has named Bill Barrett, Lincoln freshman for the No. 1 spot, with Julian Hatton, Grand Haven, Mich., an NROTC member slated for duty at the No. 2 slot.

Bob Evans, Norfolk, will play in the No. 3 position and Bob Buxton, Lincoln, is No. 4 man. Altho the doubles combinations are not definite, Marsh has indicated that Bob Radin, freshman performer, would probably see action.

Coach Bud Williamson's Husker golf team will also battle Kansas State foe today. The Wildcats hold a 17½-½ won over the Nebraska team in a match played April 13 at Manhattan.

Husker Nine To Meet IS Today at 4

The University of Nebraska baseball team will make its third start in Big Six play today when they take the field against the Iowa State Cyclones at 4 p. m. on the varsity diamond.

In Second Place.

Currently in second place in the Big Six race, the Iowa State outfit has scored decisive victories over Oklahoma and Minnesota. Both of these teams took two-game series from the Huskers.

No lineup changes are contemplated by Scarlet mentor Frank Smagacz, other than the use of Rog O'Donnell behind the plate in place of the injured Bill Kinnamon. The loss of Kinnamon definitely was a blow to the Husker hopes, for the hard-hitting catcher was the team's top batter as well as being the steadying influence on the other Nebraska players.

Although he has refused to name his starting pitchers, Smagacz will probably nominate Jim Sandstedt and Harold Jacob for starting roles, holding Wally Sheef, Johnny Olson and Dick Lebbs in reserve. Cyclone Coach Chick Sutherland has indicated that he will open with Ralph Theobald, undefeated right hander, and follow with Dane Peterson in Saturday's tilt.

Saturday's game will begin at 2 p. m., and in case of rain today a doubleheader is scheduled for Saturday. Bill Keefer and Joe Wilcoxon will umpire both games.

One of the mainstays in the Cyclones' drive to overhaul the league-leading Oklahoma team is Dave Jones, second baseman who played high school ball at Omaha Central. Jones is currently sporting a .320 batting average.

College Grads' Minds Needed Here—Griswold

The inquisitive minds of college trained young people are needed in Nebraska, Gov. Dwight Griswold told members of the graduating class at the Curtis school of agriculture Thursday.

"I believe the general inquisitive attitude of you young people," said Griswold, "can be of tremendous benefit to your state and nation. We don't want to maintain the status quo in Nebraska.

Modernites.

"To you young people with modern ideas buzzing in your heads belongs the job of helping to bring worn-out political thinking up to date. And you can do the job," the governor continued.

Griswold pointed out that in time of national stress the people look to the middle west, which has developed "our greatest leaders."

Better World?

"You are young men and women who have seen something of the shortcomings of those of us who belong to other generations. Profit by our errors. Build a better world, a peaceful world," the governor urged the graduates. "Go out, not to forsake Nebraska, but to build it. Nebraska offers you opportunity. It's your turn to offer Nebraska leadership."
