

'Elijah' Features Five Soloists, Choral Union

Featured soloists at today's presentation of "Elijah," are Fanabel Tripp, Mary Berner, Joyce Stuve, Cleve Genzlinger, and Floyd Hanson. Dr. Westbrook is at the piano.

The University Choral Union, comprising 500 voices of the four campus singing groups, presents Mendelssohn's oratorio "Elijah" today at 3 p. m. in the coliseum. The five solo parts will be sung by Cleve Genzlinger, Floyd Hanson, Fanabel Tripp, Mary Berner and Joyce Stuve.

Under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westbrook, the combined groups include the Ag College Chorus, the University Singers, the University Chorus (groups I and II) and the University orchestra. Assisting the orchestra, prepared by Emanuel Wishow, will be Myron Roberts at the organ and Earnest Harrison at the piano.

Title Role.

Cleve Genzlinger, who will sing the title role of Elijah the prophet, graduated in 1943 with a bachelor of music in education and appeared in university musical productions. He was a member of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia. During his three years in the armed forces, he soloed in 20 light operas.

Hapeman Wins Top Ranking In Tournament

Lucy Anne Hapeman, senior in the college of arts and sciences, was awarded the cup for earning the highest accumulative rating in the intramural speech contest which closed Saturday morning.

Delta Gamma won the gavel, which is presented the organized house whose two contestants have the most accumulated points. Eleanor Knoll and Pat Lathen were Delta Gamma entrants.

Knoll Second.

Eleanor Knoll, with an accumulative score of 52, was second in individual competition. Richard Schleusner ranked third and Jackie Gordon, fourth.

Beta Sigma Psi was second in organization entrants, Sigma Delta Tau, third, and Alpha Omicron Pi, fourth.

Eight Finalists.

Twenty-six students began the contest last Tuesday, and second round competition was Thursday evening. Pat Lathen, Betty Jo Packard, Mary Dunnell, Eleanor Knoll, Jackie Gordon, Richard Schleusner, Robert Holland and Lucy Hapeman were the eight finalists.

Ivy Day Practices

Junior and senior coeds not living in organized houses, desiring to be in the Ivy or Daisy chain for Ivy Day ceremonies, should come to practice on Tuesday, April 30, at 4 p. m., in the Union, room 316, according to Susanne Pope, Mortar Board, in charge of the chain.

Floyd Hanson, who will sing the well-known tenor airs "If With All Your Hearts," and "Then Shall the Righteous Shine," is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan and an assistant instructor in voice at the university.

Another graduate soloist is Fanabel Tripp who holds three bachelor degrees from Hastings college where she graduated in 1945. She is working on an advanced degree here in sociology.

Contralto Mary Berner, school of music voice coach, is choir director and organist at Tabernacle Christian church. She holds bachelor of music degrees from Belhaven and Mississippi state colleges.

Joyce Stuve, the only undergraduate soloist, is a junior in the school of music where she is an active member of Delta Omicron and Alpha Chi Omega sororities. She will sing the part of the youth.

Hatten Receives National Delta Phi Delta Scholarship

Marion Hatten, a senior and art major has been awarded the National Delta Phi Delta scholarship for summer study at the Stillwater Art Colony in Stillwater, Minn.

As a member of Delta Phi Delta, honorary art fraternity, Miss Hatten received the single summer school art scholarship which the national organization of 34 chapters awarded this year.

Style Show

Charm Schools' style show, sponsored by Coed Counselors, will take place at Hovland-Swanson's at 7 p. m. Tuesday evening, according to Betsy Bahensky, who is in charge.

Name Julia Crom '46 Ag Goddess

Seated on a throne shaped into the replica of the moon, Julia Crom was presented to dancers attending the annual ag spring party as the '46 Ag Goddess Friday night in the Ag Activities building.

A member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home ec honorary society, the new Ag Goddess is a Tassel, a member of the Ag YWCA cabinet, home ec club and 4-H club.

Selected from 49 senior women who were nominated, the goddess was revealed by Arlo Wirth, master of ceremonies, at 10 p. m. Attendees to the Ag Goddess were the six runners-up in the election, Edith Pumphrey, Lois Ferguson, Vivian Ferris, Gerry Cowen, Margaret Alma and Lois Oppex.

Candidates.

Selection of the candidates was based on scholarship, qualities of leadership and participation in activities. Marianne Srb and Wilbur Blum were co-chairmen of the dance which was sponsored by the Ag Exec board. Dorothy Stevens was in charge of publicity.

Eleanor Johnson and Lillian Lock of the Home Ec club were chairmen of the presentation ceremony. Staging and decorations were under the supervision of Lois Bamesberger, and Virginia Hill was responsible for costumes.

Tassels Pick New Pledge Group at Tea

Twenty-five new Tassels were selected from a group of coeds who attended a Tassel tea at the Tri Delt house Saturday.

All organized houses elected coeds to attend the tea where the new Tassel members were chosen on a basis of leadership, scholarship and general good character, according to Joy Hill, president of the organization.

Necessary qualifications for membership in Tassels is a weighted 80 average and a sophomore standing.

The new members are: Patty (See TASSELS, page 2.)

Regulations For Election Announced

Roberta Collins, chairman of the Elections committee of the Student Council, has announced the regulations binding the coming elections.

Everyone in a specific college votes for the Student Council candidates from his college. For example, all students in Arts and

(See ELECTIONS, page 2.)

Bengston Discusses Registration Problems for Perplexed Student

BY RUTH ANN FINKLE.

Student: "How do you do, Dean Bengston. My name is Anne Rogers, and I would appreciate a little help from you in clearing up this muddle about registration. I'm still in the junior division myself, but from what I've heard even the upperclassmen are confused about registration. A bunch of us in the Crib just now were talking about it and we all thought one of us should come see you and get things straightened out by someone who would know."

Dean Bengston: "Really, I am sure you will find that registration is not at all the muddle you now think it is after we talk about it for a little while. Probably the best way to begin would be for you to ask questions about anything that puzzles you, so fire away."

Anne: "Questions about things that puzzle me would take in just about everything, I'm afraid, but—well, what is the very first thing we do? I mean, what starts the ball rolling?"

Dean Bengston: "All students in the university must report to their advisers during this time so as to provide ample time for the preparation of the program for each student; to meet requirements and also the preferences of the students. I would advise you to make this appointment with your adviser as early as possible in the three weeks' period provided for that purpose."

Anne: "But, Dean Bengston, I'm not going to summer school. Do I still have to register that early?"

Dean Bengston: "All students registration periods for summer school and the first semester of next year, for both junior division and upperclassmen students,

(See BENGSTON, page 2.)

Sing Groups Tell Selection For Ivy Day

Sororities, fraternities and organized houses participating in the Interfraternity sing on Ivy Day, May 4, have announced their songs and song leaders. The groups are listed and will appear as follows:

Alpha Chi Omega, "Dream Song, Peg Shelley; Alpha Omicron Pi, "Girl of AOPi," Donnie Wageman; Alpha Phi, "Alpha Phi Sweetheart Song," Barbara Jean

(See SING GROUP, page 2.)