

Ragged Edges

By Sarah Murray

Spring has different effects on everyone . . . and then there is the effect Joan Vingers has on Don Davis. Navy boys were awakened the other night by Mr. Davis literally beating his head and cooing, "Joanie, oh, Joanie."

Giving a new angle to candy passing, Gene Merchant and Marolyn Hartsook treated the Delta Gamma's to the "sweets" Monday night, only to have the male party burst out with measles five minutes later . . . Oh, well, the D. G.'s didn't want to go out of the house these last three weeks anyway.

Also giving out with candy and cigars and all that goes with them, were Jan Swartzter and Duell Anderson when the Phi Delt's and Pi Phi's got together to celebrate their pinning.

Taking just a wee bit more advantage of spring are Joanne Steinbeck and Bill Heinzelman who have set the wedding date for May 10th.

Tri Delt's will be running competition with Glenn Miller Friday night when they have their spring formal at the Cornhusker. . . Such people planning to don their formal clothes are Rose Marie Grow and Bob Schleiger, Mary Ann Boyle and Chuck Carothers, Bobbie Sprow and Howard Bradley, and Jane McArthur with Johnny McDermott . . . Jane McArthur is the gal with troubles. What is a girl to do when a fellow like Dick Crahan comes home from overseas and stays at your house while you go out with another?

Also running competition will be the Kappa's and Phi Psi's with both their formals scheduled for Saturday night . . . Beaming faces at the Kappa party will be Mimi Ann Johnson with Marion Mitchell, Mary Dunnei with Willy Henderson, and steadies-of-one-week, Shirley Anderson and Hermie Hanson.

Final Group Meetings Held By YM Tonite

The last in a series of city campus YMCA commission group meetings in homes of faculty members will be held tonight at 8 p. m.

President Bill Miller has called a 6 p. m. cabinet meeting which will precede a short business meeting and worship service for all members at 7:15 p. m.

Dr. Norman Hill will be host to the World Relatedness commission which will be under the leadership of Sam Warren.

Led by Dean Jensen, the Faith For Life group will hold their discussion at the home of Dr. O. H. Werner.

Personal Effectiveness and Political Effectiveness will meet jointly with Dr. Leroy T. Laase. Bill Roberts will be in charge of the discussion.

This is the third and last series of commission group meetings held by the YMCA this year, according to Secretary Gordon Lippitt.
