

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

Sidelights from the U.N.-Colorado track meet:

Starter Ed Higginbotham could scarcely believe his eyes as the entrants in the 120 yard high hurdles lined up for the start. One of the Colorado entrants looked down the track from behind his starting blocks, pulled off his sweat suit and discovered that he had no running trunks beneath his sweat pants.

He immediately pulled on his sweat suit and dispatched his teammate, who was also entered in the event, to obtain the necessary apparel. The seeker returned successfully and the race went on as scheduled. Incidentally, the Nebraska hurdlers, Norval Barker and Ralph King, finished one-two in the event.

The Colorado broad jumper, Jack McEwen, who won the first event with a leap of 22 feet 4 in., was competing in his second meet of the season. He joined the squad two weeks ago, won first place in the Colorado Relays last Saturday and then added first place in Wednesday's dual meet to maintain an all-victorious record.

Scarlet Track Squad To Face Tigers May 4

The Nebraska track and field team will make its last appearance of the season before the Big Six championships when the Scarlet-clad athletes face the University of Missouri in a dual meet at Columbia Saturday.

Grote Remains Behind.

Coach Ed Weir will probably send the Huskers into action in the same events in which they competed in Wednesday's dual meet with Colorado, but will leave Herb Grote and Don Hansen at home.

Grote is nursing a pulled arm muscle which hampered his javelin tossing Wednesday when he was forced to take third place with a toss of 163 feet, and Hansen is kept idle by scholastic duties.

Another pole vault battle is in prospect, for the Tigers boast Dick Higgins, who was second in the Big Six indoor meet, against Nebraska's Dick Miller who took the championship in the indoor meet.

The Tigers have a strong squad of sprinters, including Bob Crowson, who has been near the front in every dash he has entered this year; plus high jumper L. D. Howe who has a leap of 6 feet 5 3/4 inches to his credit. This jump came last year when he was competing as a member of the Columbia Midshipmen.

Once again Nebraska will rely on strength in the 880, mile and two mile, and Weir has declared that he may give Blaine "Okie" Young a shot at the mile distance Saturday.

Traveling squad:

Bobby Ginn, Madison; Dean Kratz, Sidney; Al Brown, Omaha; Harvey Strood, North Platte; Phil Moorhouse, Chicago; Norval Barker, Aurora; Ted Randolph, Ord; Fritz Ware, Omaha; Ralph King, Waterloo; Blaine Young, North Platte. Stan Martin, Merna; Don Yeoman, North Platte; Wayne Roads, Scottsbluff; Dick Miller, Fairbury; Maurice Fitzgerald, Rapid City, South Dakota; Ned Nutzman, Nebraska; Warren Eisenhart, Culbertson; Leonard Hand, Fairbury; Joe Pappas, Hastings; Bill Gear, Fairbury.

UN Baseball Nine To Face Mizzou Today

With half the season gone, the University of Nebraska baseball team will be bidding to bring its won-lost percentage up to the .500 mark this weekend, for the Huskers will invade Columbia for a two-game series with the Missouri Tigers.

Coach Frank Smagacz has named a 15 man squad for the jaunt, the next to last road trip of the year for the Scarlet baseball players. Big Jim Sandstedt and Harold Jacob will probably get the mound assignments for the series which opens with a game this afternoon.

than a passing interest in the grade school relay which was sandwiched into the latter part of the meet, His son, Bill Weir, ran the anchor leg on the blue-shirted half mile relay team which won the race by a narrow margin. The midget speedster showed plenty of endurance, and amazed the spectators by pulling up after 220 yard sprints with no ill effects.

Nebraska's mentor had more excitement during the afternoon, for an errant javelin scattered the crowd near the pole vault pit, and came to earth not more than an arm's length from where Weir had been standing.
