

Huskers Defeat KU; Tangle Again Today

A two run outburst in the eighth inning gave the University of Nebraska baseball team its sixth victory of the season Monday afternoon against the Kansas Jayhawks by a 7-5 count, on the Nebraska diamond.

The Huskers had an early 3-0 lead, but the visitors got to starting pitcher Wally Scheef in the fourth inning for two runs and added three more in the sixth off Johnny Olson to take the lead.

Big Jim Sandstedt was on the hill for Nebraska when the Scarlet forged back into the lead, and the husky Omaha right hander received credit for the win. In the three and two-thirds innings that he pitched, Sandstedt allowed one hit and fanned seven batters.

An error by KU pitcher Tom Saffel allowed Nebraska to take the lead in the eighth. With Bob Bolen on third after a walk and a Texas league single by Sandstedt, Fritz Hegwood laid down a bunt in front of the plate. Saffel came in on the ball but bobbled it and Bolen scored. Hegwood also scored, being forced across when Wes Maser walked with the bases loaded.

Huskers Score.

Nebraska's first runs came in the opening frame. Third baseman Wilbur Baack singled with two out and scored on Wes Maser's triple to deep left field. Maser scored on a passed ball to give Coach Frank Smagacz's team an early lead.

Baack and Maser collected over half of the Huskers' seven hits, as each garnered two safeties. For the visiting Kansans, Irv Hayden and Dale Morrow were the sluggers. In the fourth frame Hayden tripled and Morrow followed with a home run to terminate Sheef's stay on the mound.

The two teams play again today at 4, and Coach Smagacz has announced that right hander Harold "Tap" Jacob will pitch for the Huskers.

Five IM Sports Remain For Late Spring Finish

Events remaining on the intramural sports schedule are the tennis doubles, softball, horseshoes, golf and outdoor track and field. All of these sports are now underway except golf and track, which are scheduled for May 12 and May 16 and 18, respectively.

In Paramount's "Calcutta" Alan Ladd plays an airline pilot flying the treacherous "hump" between India and China.

Track and Golf Squads Remain Idle This Week

While the Nebraska track and golf squads lay off this week in preparation for the Big Six championships in Lincoln May 17 and 18, the Husker baseball and tennis squads take over the variety sports scene.

Coach Frank Smagacz sends his baseball team into action three more times this week, after the Kansas game yesterday. Today the Jayhawks are the foes for the second time, and Friday and Saturday the Scarlet nine moves to Ames for a return series with Iowa State.

Tennis Trip.

Cornhusker tennis players will make a two day invasion of Iowa, playing at Iowa State Friday and moving to Ottumwa Saturday for matches with the Ottumwa Navy Base netsters.

High school performers will take over the track and field spotlight as they compete in the state championships in four classes Friday and Saturday on the Memorial Stadium track.

Last week the Husker baseball and track teams made every start a winning one as they trimmed Missouri teams in both sports. The track team won a dual meet Saturday while the baseball squad swept a Saturday double header after Friday's game was rained out.

Phi Delta Theta Wins Volleyball Championship

Phi Delta Theta took first place honors in the intramural volleyball competition, which wound up last week after spirited rivalry among 19 teams, by defeating Phi Gamma Delta in the finals.

Sigma Phi Epsilon placed third, Sigma Nu fourth, Alpha Gamma Rho fifth and Delta Upsilon sixth in the final standings. By virtue of their win the Phi Deltas picked up 200 points toward the Jack Best trophy, and they now lead the field with 1,760 points.

The Phi Gams are second with 1,642 1/2, Alpha Tau Omega third with 1,615 and Beta Theta Pi fourth with 1,370 in the overall tabulation of Jack Best points.
