

Fine Arts Society Chooses Initiates

At its annual banquet Tuesday evening, the fine arts honorary Alpha Rho Tau named the eleven seniors and four faculty members elected for initiation. Annual awards for outstanding student achievement in the departments of art, music, and speech were presented.

Seniors elected on the basis of scholarship were Alice Louise Putney, Roberta Caroline Collins, Marian Elizabeth Hatten, Martha Mae Nickerson, Adrienne Waggoner, art; Ava Lauretta Bromwich, Mildred Myrtle Huttenmaier, Marian Evelyn Peck, Shirley Margaret Premer, music; and Joan Carolyn Bohrer and Geraldine Yvonne McKinsey, speech and dramatic art.

First Time

For the first time in its history, Alpha Rho Tau elected a member from outside the field of fine arts. Dr. W. H. Werkmeister, department of philosophy who gave the address of the evening, was given this honor. The other three electees were Mrs. Freda Spaulding, art; Earnest Harrison, music; and Paul Bogen, speech and dramatics.

The cash awards, given each year for outstanding creative achievement, went to Marian Hatten, art; Dorothea Duxbury and Geraldine McKinsey, drama and debate respectively; and Lee Kjelson and Harry Harter, music. Original compositions, for which the music awards were given, were feature of the banquet. They were Kjelson's song, "Peace," sung by Helen Laird, and Harter's woodland quartet, "Folk Dance."

Retiring president, Myron Roberts, who presided, announced that the newly-elected president is Paul Bogen.

Hep Cats Join For Union Quiz Friday--Lahr

"Hep Cat Quiz" is the title of the quiz program to be held in the Union music room at 4 p. m. Friday with Pat Lahr, Union director, as mistress of ceremonies.

Seventeen questions concerning the latest jazz and swing records, band leaders, and orchestras will be asked, and to the winner a Duke Ellington album will be awarded.

Last Dance.

Friday night from 9 to 12, Smith-Warren will play in the Union ballroom for the last orchestra dance of the year. Tickets are 44c per person.

Coffee Hour will be at 5 p. m. Sunday in the Union lounge and at 8 p. m. the variety show will feature the Frank Capra production, "Meet John Doe," starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck.

Cosmopolitan Club Sponsors Dance Saturday in Union

An all-university dance sponsored by Cosmopolitan club, an organization which promotes friendly relations between foreign and American students, will be held Saturday, May 11, from 9 to 12 p. m., in the Union ballroom.

Highlights of the program include introduction of foreign students and singing of national songs. The club president will speak to those present.

Sponsors.

Tickets for the event are on sale for 25 cents in the Union main office. Free refreshments will be served.

Sponsors of Cosmopolitan club are Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, registrar; Dr. Joseph Alexis, head of the modern language department; Dr. W. K. Pfeiler, professor of Germanic languages; and Miss Emily Schossberger, university editor.

PRE-MED STUDENTS.

Pre-Med students are urged to attend the program, "A Preview of Med School," sponsored by the Omaha chapter of Nu Sigma Nu tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Garden Room of the Hotel Lincoln, according to John M. Kroyer, Nu Sigma Nu publicity chairman.

Examination For Entrants Held Early

Counseling and guidance examinations for university entrance will be offered in advance of regular registration days for the summer and fall session this year, Dr. George W. Rosenlof, director of admissions, announced Tuesday.

The advance examinations, which must be taken by all entering students, have been scheduled to avoid congestion and delay in registration, he said. Nearly 4,000 students are expected to enroll for the summer term and about 8,000 next fall, both of which represent big increases over enrollments in recent years.

Omaha Exams.

Veterans and high school seniors in Omaha and vicinity may take the exams at Omaha Central high school May 11 and 18. A similar exam will be given for veterans and high school seniors in Lincoln and vicinity, simultaneously with summer session examinations at the coliseum May 28 and 29.

Dr. Rosenlof said summer session registration had been advanced to May 31, and will continue June 1 and 3 to accommodate and increased number of students. Previously only June 3 had been set aside for registration.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING.

The Student Council will meet tonight at 5 p. m. in room 313 of the Union. Attendance is required of all new members to complete the organization of the new Council and to dispose of several matters carried over from the 1945-46 Council.

Kirby Page Here For Talks Today

Dr. Kirby Page, noted lecturer, author, and speaker, will talk about the place of education and religion in the establishment of an international peace at a joint YMCA and YWCA luncheon meeting at noon today in the Temple.

Page, who is in Lincoln under the sponsorship of the American Friends committee, will also give a public address at the St. Paul Methodist church tonight at 8. The Y.M. and Y.W. are both adjourning their meetings this week so that members may attend the program, according to Secretary Gordon Lippitt.

Author.

Author of 24 volumes on international, economic, social and religious questions, Mr. Page's latest book is "Now Is the Time to Prevent a Third World War." His works have been translated into French, German, Dutch, Swedish, Danish, Greek, Bulgarian, Spanish, Chinese and Japanese. In addition, his books have been published in England and India. Nearly a million copies of his books and pamphlets have been sold.

A graduate of Drake university, Page is an ordained minister of the Disciples of Christ and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He was formerly on the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary in New York City.

Page has crossed the Atlantic 20 times and has visited some 35 foreign countries. He has spoken at 300 colleges in all parts of the United States.

Prof Smith Voices Plea For Change

That the architectural training given "structural or architectural engineers" in the nation's universities and colleges should be broadened, was the plea voiced by Prof. Linus Burr Smith, architectural department chairman, when he spoke before the annual meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture Monday.

Professor Smith said that the so-called "architectural engineer" plays a vital role in modern construction work, yet he is unable to be accredited by the national architects accrediting board because of deficiencies in his schooling.

He urged the association to take the lead in the program to either incorporate architectural engineering in schools of architecture, or include more architectural training to courses offered by engineering colleges, sufficient to enable accreditation.

'Russia' Theme Of University YW, YM Forum

The second All-University Forum of the year, discussing "Russia, Our Ally," will be sponsored jointly by the Y.W. and the Y.M. on Wednesday, May 15, in the Union Ballroom. Dr. G. W. Gray, of the history department, will act as moderator.

The purpose of the forum is to promote understanding between Russia and the United States, and (See THEME, page 4.)

"Ah Wilderness" Crews Finish Fonnal; Theatre Production

After many weeks, "Ah, Wilderness!" by Eugene O'Neill, last major production of the University Theatre this season, is ready to hit the boards.

It has taken a long time to complete the three stage sets and their accessories that are required for the production of this play. In charge of this technical end has been Max Whittacker, of the Speech Department.

Under the direction of Dallas S. Williams, the play will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday night at eight o'clock in the Temple theater. Student directors are Blanche Duckworth and Margaret Hunter.

Those students comprising the construction crew for "Ah, Wilderness" which is headed by Gloria Beaumont, are Rex Coslor, Dorothy Lasher, Dede Meyer, Jan Staley, Robert Wheeler and Dean Wells.

Costumes.

Barbara Berggren heads the costume crew. Her helpers are Lois Jarman and Barbara Hockenberger.

In charge of lights for the production are Gwen Christianson and Pat Heynan. They are assisted by Herb Spence and Dorothy Lasher.

The property crew is composed of Shirley Sabin, chairman, and Elaine Hensel and Jan Staley.

Stage Crew.

Workers on the stage crew are Fred Lorenz, chairman, and Bill Lucas, Van Westover, and Dean Wells.

Two of the leading players in the "Ah Wilderness" University Theatre production May 9 through May 11 are Eleanor Dent and Avrum Bondarin.

BABW Holds Tea, Presents Pins May 10

All unaffiliated women are invited to the annual Barb Recognition tea to be held Friday, May 10, from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall, according to Helen Wulf, B.A.B.W. president.

Highlight of the afternoon will be the presentation of Barb pins to the 12 women who have been outstanding in campus functions. Each woman must have earned a minimum of 100 activity points to be eligible. Jane McElhaney, past president of B.A.B.W., will make the awards.

Sponsored by the Barb Activities Board for Women, the tea will be the last Barb activity for the year. Fern Bohken, vice president of the board, is chairman.

Play Cast, Food Viewed At "Meet Millers" Program

Something new and different in the way of a reception is being sponsored by the Nebraska Masquers. A "Come and meet the Millers" program will be given in the music room of the Temple building, immediately following each night's production of "Ah Wilderness!"

At this program, the Millers, principle characters in the play, will be presented to those attending. There will also be good entertainment in Gay-Nineties style, and ice cream and coffee will be held.

Cornhusker Banquet

All members of the 1946 Cornhusker staff who plan to attend the banquet May 15 must sign up in the Cornhusker office by Thursday, May 9, according to Marilyn Adler, business manager.
