

Ragged Edges

PAT GILLIGAN.

Getting together to renew their pre-war friendship will be several frats this weekend—the Phi Gams and ATOs presenting their traditional Fiji-Tau Tussel, the first affair since 1942. An afternoon stag party will start things off with the winning frat in the athletic events presenting their Tussel Queen and losing frat, their King Picnic at the follow up dance at Antelope Pavillion. Chick Mormorn will be keeping Gracie Smith in the Tau house; while Sid Salzman's date, Margaret Woods, whom many of you know. Bob Richards is staying in town just to escort Marcile Schmid. When asked if she was from his home town, he replied, "No, but I wish she were." We understand Bob has a little confusion about his dates. Other dates will be the ever faithful twosome, John Call and Alice Christenson, and Warren Eisenhart with Ann Miles—seen more and more together.

Triad Wins Over Campus.

On Friday night at the Lincoln hotel the Phi Deltas, Betas, and Sig Chis get together for their Triad—celebrating the founding of the three frats at Miami University in Ohio. Barb Turk has succeeded in delaying her campus this weekend to attend with Jack Clemens. Incidentally, Barb barely gets out of one scrape into another—her fourth to be exact. A new couple taking in the party will be Marilyn Duffack and Clay Marsh. We had some trouble in extracting the name of Dale Hatch's date—but found it was Elli Lykke with the help of some brothers.

Monday night was anything but calm at the Triple Delta house when two girls came forth with the sweets—Carol McGrew announced her wedding date to Bobbie Glenn and Barbara Speer brought out the Beta pin of her Wisconsin heart interest. Incidentally, she has had the pin secretly for a year and a half. Some will power!

To Be Seen.

The Pi Phi Spring Formal Saturday night will find such couples as Jody Wolcott and Dean Neal—Ann Whitham with Bob Baum—and Ann Reinhardt with Harry Meese.

Stage Production

laughingly commented that the hardest costume accessory to find was a garter with a red rosette for Belle, the bar girl, to wear in the show's second act.

Make-up for the production was created by Gaylord Marr, make-up committee chairman. This group, Blanche Duckworth, Van Westover, Margaret Hunter, Paula Jones, and Dean Wells, did considerable research to insure authentic 1906 hair dresses, mustaches, sideburns and beards for the characters in the show.

Stage Crew

Gwen Christianson and Pat Heynan, assisted by Herb Spence and Dorothy Lasher, are in charge of lighting in the production. The stage crew, headed by Fred Lorenz, includes Van Westover, Bill Lucas and Dean Wells.

Student directors of "Ah, Wilderness!" are Blanche Duckworth and Margaret Hunter.

Following the show each night, the Nebraska Masquers offer the audience to "meet the Millers." The program will be held in the music room of the Temple building following each night's production.

Sinfonia Offers Annual Spring Concert Sunday

The annual spring concert of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, to be given Sunday, May 12 at 3 p. m. in the Temple, will feature a 40-voice male glee club, and ten instrumental and vocal soloists.

The glee club, under the direction of graduate member Alfred Blinde, will open the program with three Sinfonia songs and will perform the feature of the concert, a suite of sea chanties collected from old English and Scottish ballads.

Soloists.

Soloists for the Sunday concert include flutist Don Hartman who will play "Tourbillon" and "Fantasie for Flute," pianist Rudolph Barta whose selections are "Berceuse" by Chopin and "The Juggler," and the clarinet trio composed of Don Wenzlaff, Bill Kelly and Norman Todenhoff. Featured vocalists are baritones Glenn Clark and Leonard Blinde.

Taking part in the program will be the 30 active members and the 24 pledges of the national men's professional fraternity. Emanuel Wishnow is the chapter advisor.
