High school track and field stars from all corners of the state move into Lincoln and onto the University of Nebraska cinder layout at Memorial Stadium today as the state high school championships get underway at 1:00 this afternoon.

Today's Finals.

Finals in the one mile run, shot put and discus will be held today, as well as preliminaries in the high and low hurdles, 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes. Saturday's program will begin at 9 a. m. with finals in the broad jump and pole vault, but the competition moves into high gear Saturday afternoon when finals in all other events will be concluded.

Husker Coach Ed Weir will parade some of his varsity runners Saturday afternoon in a special university relay slated for 3:00. Harvey Stroud, Al Brown and Dean Kratz will be running as one combination, while Bill Moorhouse, Blaine Young and Bobby Ginn will provide the opposition over a mile and three-quarters course.

Moorhouse and Stroud will match strides in the 440 leg, Young and Brown will battle in the 880 distance and Kratz and Ginn will run the anchor mile.

The team champion race is wide open in Class A, with Omaha Benson, Hastings, McCook, Kearney and Lincoln all expected to be near the top. The Links qualified 21 men for the state meet, but are not tabbed to pick up many first places. McCook, on the other hand, is basing its hopes on versatile Leo McKillip, ace hurdler, sprinter and broad jumper, and quarter miler Corky Reed.

In the lower classes plenty of fireworks are expected before team champions are determined. Many schools have one or two outstanding performers who may be able to muster enough points to put their school near the top.

Under new qualifying regulations this year prep stars had to qualify in district meets last week end to earn their places in the state championships. The first four place winners in Class A regionals, the first three in Class B and the first two in Class C and D are allowed to compete, plus any field performer who exceeded the fourth place mark at any regional meet in his class.

Records in Danger.
 Several existing state records are in danger, particularly Harold McAferty's high jump mark of 6 feet 2 3/4 inches which has been exceeded by Richard Powers of Sargent. The prepster leaped 6 feet 2 3/4 inches in the Ord Invitational, for the only record-bettering performance in the state this year.

Norval Barker's high hurdle time of :14.9 is only .1 ahead of the :15 flat clocking achieved by Benson's Bob Berkshire. Another Benson performer, Jim Martin, has turned in a 2:00.4 half mile and is in threatening distance of Bobby Ginn's 1:59.3 record which the Madison harrier established in 1939.

Class B athletes will be hard-pressed to match the individual performance of Broken Bow's Frank Wooters who has been an outstanding competitor in several events. Warren Kelly of Akinson and Don Vollertsen of Talmage are similar stars in Class C and D ranks.

In the mile finals today Bill Mountford of Red Cloud is ahead of the field. The Class C distance ace has a time of 4:37.1 to his credit, ahead of Marvin Zimmerman of Nebraska City who paces the Class A runners with a 4:41.7 mark.

Standouts in the shot and discus events, which are also slated for this afternoon, are Marvin Gill of Kearney, Fritz Davis of Northeast and Don Batt of Lincoln. Gill has a discus throw of 146 feet 3 inches, while Batt and Davis have been the best of the shot putters throughout the spring season.

UN Tennis Team To Meet Cyclone Netsters Today

The Nebraska tennis team goes into action this afternoon at Iowa State in the first match of a two-game road trip for the Huskers who will play at the Ottumwa navy base in Ottumwa, Ia., on Saturday. Acting Coach Bud Marsh has named Bob Evans, Norfolk, to handle the No. 1 position, with J. B. Hatton, NROTC member from Grand Haven, Michigan, in the No. 2 slot. Bob Buxton, Lincoln, will be No. 3 man and Bob Radin, Lincoln, a newcomer, to the squad will take care of the No. 4 position.

Barrett Out

Bill Barrett, Lincoln, who had been playing in the Number 1 spot will not make the trip because of a wrist injury.

Iowa State mentor Harry Schmidt has chosen Wardell Johnson, Ken Donelson, Fay Dunn and Lawrence Gilley to oppose the Husker netsters.
