

Ragged Edges

PAT TOOF.

With the likely specimens exhibited on the Tau and Fiji lawns the other morning reminding me of home (the farm) and my suntan getting lighter and lighter...vacation stretches inviting ahead.

Reminiscing over the Tussle and Triad... Lear and Sue Alexander are laughing about the Tussle's afternoon events... then there was Lee Krohn making a strong impression on Bob Martens, and it was a case of reciprocity I am happy to say after some difficulty... Tootsie Campen and Don Korf got together to take in the affair. Heard tell that the Triad was great success despite the fact that Beta boys were almost excluded... seems as if their door list was misplaced and some fast talking was in order. Bill Bacon and Dottie Thompson made their entrance tho, as did such couples as Pat Siedel and Jeff Litel... incidentally, this is one of the campus's more promising affairs... understand Jeff has definite interest, also Barb Kiechal and Bill Sieboldt, who carried their fun-making over into Saturday night, too.

Seeing Lincoln.

George Spelts and Donna Soulek, Chi O alum, chose to grace Lincoln for the weekend taking in the Pike Saturday night. Also seen in the crowd were Sue Lancaser and Beetle Bergquist... back from the Navy to occupy Sue's time and attentions.

It's a thing of the past for Forrest Christenson and blonde Helen Colberg... that Sig Ep heart is conspicuously absent from it's place beside Helen's arrow. Giving us the reverse on such subjects... Mary Armour and Dick Stone are letting it be known that they are again a steady twosome.

Pin Patter.

Latest pin planter to join ranks is Dick Buck as another Beta diamond leaves the fold to cinch his steady dating with Phi Polly Martz... an "extra" from the "Cupid Chronicle" brings to print the engagement of Betty Gompert, beauty queen, and Dean Underberg, whose diamond now flashes on Betty's third finger left hand... another romance developing for some time now came to focus with the pinning of Ag kids Phyllis Ross, Amikita, and AGR Gene Sims.

This weekend found Liz Stuart and Frank Calkins stepping out again after a brief interlude... guess Liz developed a strong case of measles after their last date, but we are confident with Frank that is worth taking a chance.

For an example of misunderstanding... talk to Frannie Like or June Korb, whose promising date Friday night never did materialize... thanks to some mix-up on time and place.

Sonny Tufts, Paramount star, has planted enough fruit and vegetables and put in enough livestock to make his Beverly Hills farm self-supporting. "No Yankee could live otherwise," he boasts. Sonny, as can be imagined, hails from Massachusetts.

YM-YW To Continue Famine Relief Drive Thru This Week

Under the cry "Food for Starving Europe," the YW and YM are continuing the famine relief drive begun by the 18th Century French literature class whose drive closed last Friday. The Y's are continuing the drive until Friday, May 17.

The French class drive netted over $100 and some 200 pounds of clothing and foodstuffs, according to information available.

Canned goods—especially fruits, vegetables and meats—and money to buy food are solicited. In a letter sent to every organization, the Y committee stated "Half the world is facing famine and we are living luxuriously. The least that we can do is to share a little of our plenty with those to whom it means LIFE."

Where's the Place?

Contribution boxes have been placed in the Union lobby, on the second floor of Ag Hall, and in every organized house on both city and ag campuses. The YW-YM committee will call for the collections on Thursday and deposit them in the Union lobby.

The Lincoln Board of Education has agreed to accommodate the university drive and will collect packages and mail all contributions, in connection with the pub-

A. F. Gallistel, University of Wisconsin; and operation of veterans housing units, led by B. H. Platt of Iowa State college.

The group will discuss maintenance problems Tuesday. Henry E. Pearson, University of Indiana, is president; and L. F. Seaton, Nebraska, vice president.

ROTC Parade

All basic and advanced ROTC students will form on the mall east of Nebraska Hall promptly at 5 p. m. Monday for the first practice parade in preparation for the annual federal inspection. Captain Harry R. Jackson announced Saturday.

lic school drive which is now in progress.

This food drive on the UN campus is typical of university drives all over the nation. Colorado university's drive was especially successful. The result of their drive was a large room of their Student Union filled to the ceiling with the regulation-sized 11-pound packages. "Surely Nebraska can do as well," said Marilyn Markausen and Gretchen Burnham, who are heading the committee.

Soloists Appear With University Symphony May 14

Elizabeth Nicolai, Marion Peck, Shirley Walsh and Lela Mae Jacobson are the four senior students in the department of music who will appear as soloists with the University Symphony orchestra Tuesday evening, May 14, at 7:30 p. m., in the Union ballroom.

Chosen by members of the senior class Miss Nicolai will sing "Ye suis Titania-Mignon," by Thomas; Miss Peck, flutist, will play "Concerto in G major, Al-legro Maestro," by Mozart, and "Ah, Je veux vivre-Romeo et Juliette" will be sung by Shirley Walsh. Lela Mae Jacobson, pianist, has chosen "Concerto in A Minor, Allegro Affetuoso," by Schumann, for her solo.

Directed by Emanuel Wishnow, the orchestra will also play "Zorahayda," by Svendsen, and "Russian Sailors Dance—The Red Poppy," by Gliere.

The cimbalom, which plays an important story point in Paramount's "Easy Come, Easy Go," is said to be the instrument from which all other multi-stringed instruments except the harp originated.
