

Ragged Edges

BY PAT GILLIGAN.

Notice: Kenny Younger, ATO, tall, blond and handsome. Norrie Anderson, Phi Gam-Marine, tall blond and handsome. Both unattached.

They used to blame it on war hysteria—but just what do we call the fast run of events now, unless it is the fact that school days are almost over and everyone is trying to latch on to something before it is too late? Mary Lancaster and Bob Hopkins have now set the date for wedding bells ahead from September to May 28. June 2 is the date chosen by Pat Colton and Dick Lodge. While we are on the subject, we hear eight Zips are tying the old knot this summer, too.

While some succum, others recover and the pins fly back—especially over Pi Phi way with the return of Bob Pierce's Sigma Nu pin via the mail by Betty Lysinger—a safe way to do it with no chance to weaken. Right, Betty??? Bob Coonley's Beta diamond has found its way back to the fold, also—Les Glotfelty involved. Thus, life goes on its merry way!!

Disillusioned.

Homer Thompson has returned and Jo Guenzel is still seen out with Chick Story frequently.

Friday night brings the DG formal with Mimi Loomis and Jerry Johnson, Julie Rathbone and Dick Hepperly, and Barbara Polite with Bob Scott among the couples in attendance. Gordie Ehlers has reserved the evening for Jackie Scott. What happened between Gordie and his former anchor girl???

It seems someone with a weird sense of humor left a dead snake on the Theta porch Tuesday night which caused many a weak heart among the girls. Humor, that is. Warren Van Norman seems to be a one girl man—at least one girl at a time—for he is back again on the steady list. This time with an old flame in Omaha. Just to keep things going—Gilbert Litel and Pat Seidel have been having pretty smooth sailing according to latest reports.

Gene Weiler and Sid Salzman have been picnicking much this week. For two nights in a row, they have turned to the outdoor life with Ellie Lykke and Shirlee Wallace.
