

Cheerleader Tryouts Set; Larger Yell Squad Planned

Cheerleader tryouts will be held in the Union ballroom tomorrow morning at 10, according to Bob Coonley, president of the Student Council. At that time, eight cheerleaders will be chosen to lead yells at games and rallies for the coming year.

To be eligible for participation, students should be sophomores or above, and taking at least 12 semester hours this current semester. There are no other qualifications necessary, and though experience may prove of value, it is not required.

Squad Increase.

The planned squad for the coming year will include four men, four girls, and the yell king, making a total of nine members. Although this is somewhat larger than the usual squad, it will be necessary to have this number because of the expected increase in the number of students and the larger crowds which will be in attendance at the football games this year, according to Coonley.

Tryouts are being scheduled early this year so that the new squad will have sufficient time to be prepared to lead a football rally for the Minnesota game. This will be the first rally of the year, and will be held next Thursday at 6 p. m. before the football team leaves by train at seven.

All students who are interested in trying out for the yell squad should meet at the Union ballroom at 10 Saturday morning, where they will be instructed in one or two simple yells, and then judged on potential ability, personality, co-ordination, and pep.

Room Space Still Available In Huskerville

There is still considerable space in the dormitories for single veterans at Huskerville, the university's housing project at Lincoln Army Air Field, Max Swan, Huskerville manager, announces.

The dormitories are divided into rooms accommodating two men each which are furnished with bunks, tables, chairs, lockers and study lamps. The rent is $10 per month.

Adequate Bus Service.

Adequate bus service to and from the base will be instituted Monday morning, Mr. Swan said. The first run leaves the base at 7:30 a. m. daily and the loading point on the campus will be in front of the Teachers College building. The buses may eventually operate on an hourly basis and special provisions are being made for late pickups on weekends.

Veterans interested should see Mr. Lawrence Braymen in the basement of the Administration building at the university housing office.

Vet Organization Schedules First Official Meeting

The first official meeting of the U. N. Veterans' Organization will be held in the Union, Oct. 2, according to Dick Sinsel, publicity chairman.

This first meeting which is to be transcribed and broadcast later over KFAB will be divided into two halves, a panel discussion in which the members on the platform will present their views on the veterans' part in current national and local problems, and an open discussion for members of the audience to state their opinions or ask questions.

Broadcast Series.

This broadcast, the first in a series of 13, is being arranged by Carl Booton, teachers college junior, who will be in charge of the veterans' opening session. Paul L. Bogan, university director of broadcasting, will handle the technical end of the broadcast.

Tentative plans are to have these transcribed programs broadcast by seven radio stations throughout the state, with 8:30 p. m. each Sunday as the hour for the KFAB broadcast.

Dean Johnston Invites Coeds To Tea Today

All coeds, especially freshmen and new students, are invited to the annual tea to be given by Miss Marjorie Johnston, Dean of Women, and her staff this afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 in Ellen Smith Hall.

Guests will be greeted by Miss Eleanor Knoll, president of Mortar Board, and Miss Mimi Ann Johnson, president of Associated Women students, and will be introduced to Miss Johnston, Mrs. R. G. Gustavson and Miss Elsie Ford Piper, in the receiving line.

Members of Mortar Board will meet the guests in the court. Assisting in the drawing room will be Miss Mildred Taylor, Miss Margaret Cannell, Mrs. Ruth Schmelkin, and Miss Marion Priest.

Preside at Table.

During the first hour, Mrs. W. W. Burr and Mrs. A. E. Westbrook will preside at the tea table in the dining room, and Mrs. F. E. Henzlik and Mrs. G. W. Rosenlof at the table in the court.

At the tea table in the dining room during the second hour will be Mrs. Roy Green and Mrs. Verna Boyles, while Miss Margaret Fedde and Mrs. T. J. Thompson will preside at the tea table in the court.

Assisting with the serving will be presidents and social chairman of the organized residences for women. Members of Delta Omicron, Mu Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Alpha Iota music groups will furnish music for the tea.

Lahr Appoints New Members Of Union Staff

Rosa C. Knickrehm, food director of the union, was appointed to her present position in July to succeed Inez White who resigned to accept a position at Carnegie Tech in Pennsylvania. Miss Knickrehm has served as assistant food director for the past three years.

Other Union appointments announced by Miss Pat Lahr, Union director, include Wanda Jean Wright, '46, who will serve as assistant food director.

Mrs. Richard E. Hiatt, formerly Jean Carnihan, '43, has been chosen as assistant director of the Union and will be in charge of the Ag Union as soon as the building is completed. Construction is blocked at present because of lack of materials, according to Miss Lahr, but the building is expected to open the latter part of October.

Student Council Meeting

The Student Council will meet at 11:00 this morning in room 313 of the Student Union. It is urgently important that all members be present to make preparations for the cheerleader tryouts Saturday morning, according to Robert Coanley president.

Final steps in organizing the Council must be completed and committee assignment considered, Coanley stated.

Veterans, Students Form Democratic Party on Campus

In line with the increase of activities, a new state organization, the University of Nebraska branch of Democratic Veterans of World War II and Young Democrats club, has recently organized on campus with Donald Morrow as chairman. The group has held two meetings and has scheduled another meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the YMCA room of the Temple.

The immediate purpose of the group is to organize a student democratic party. Consistent with this policy will be the organization's efforts to disseminate information concerning the policies and aims of the democratic party, among students of this campus.

One of Several.

The university branch is one of several in the state recently organized and headed by Wood Shurtleff as state chairman. Each club is headed by a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary.

Chairman Morrow announced that the members of the organization will participate in a dance sponsored by the Nebraska Young Democrats, at King's Ballroom, Friday, Sept. 27, with Morton Wells and his orchestra furnishing the music.

Ragged Edges

BY JEANNE HICKEY.

The men have been given the "go" signal to begin, the coeds have set the traps and the rat race is on!

Parties of all descriptions have taken the spotlight and acquaintances are swiftly being made like whose time has been taken by Duke Derry. Chick Story is majoring in the female field as well as football this year while brothers Irv Gainer and Chick Neal have been bidding their time with Mary Dye and Jean Metzger. With the eventful opening of the Crib Alice Christianson and Johnny Coll are giving it proper initiation while Lorene Novotny with Dick Toren are finding the cokes a most refreshing pause.

Some of the traps have snapped during the summer and new two-some is Janie Fry and Ramey Beachly, while sister Jody Harrison has been occupied with recently returned Don Linn. It looks as though candy passings will be regular Monday night occurrences at the rate things are going. Julie Ann House has called it a pinning while sister Martha Clark shares the happiness with Hank Jones. Speaking of good deals the pinning of Ann Doudna and Reggie Davies looks quite serious. Jim Ward added the finishing touches to a beautiful summer by pinning Bette Heckenlively, and sister Dottie Bennison is sporting the pin of See Chapin. Jan Soulek has made known her marriage which takes place today to Tom Crooks. This looks like the best deal possible.

Ken Spradling and Marge Sauer bade "I do" to married life while Jack Buffington and Sal Shirley bid adieu to their pinning this summer. Jo Bauer sent the D. U. pin to Ware Christianson via the postman after a wonderful summer in California only to be equaled by Barb Turk who ended her whirl with Jack Clemens early this summer. Pat Lee and Bill Stunkel make a happy couple whose summer romance was completed with the pinning. Helen Humel has been connected with a pin but as yet no one knows who the D. U. man is.

For long war years the males on campus have been few but the women are now prepared to give you the show. The femmes will back-pedal, throw in the towel and give you the floor. Take it away. Yessir, this looks like a good year!

VETERANS EMPLOYMENT

All veterans and veteran's wives who plan on working during the coming year can get employment forms from the University veteran's organization in room 209 of Nebraska Hall according to Marion Mitchell, the organization's chairman of publicity.

Due to the recently announced change in class schedule the university YM and YW "New Students" picnic on Ag campus has been cancelled. The originally planned all-men's reception on city campus will be held Wednesday, Sept. 25, 7:30 p. m., at the Y.M.C.A. in the Temple building. The upper class rendezvous for the Y.W.C.A. will be held at Ellen Smith Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. All students will initiate YM-YW activities with a party Tuesday evening in the activities building.
