

Ragged Edges

By Jody Harrison.

Frat pledges are having a rough time with their social life. Between study hall and pledge duties, Bud Hoffman steals a few minutes with Pepi Votava.

The Phi Gam outing at the roundhouse Friday night was the main attraction of the week end. Larry Wentz's party with Doris Frahm, Barb Sullivan and Bud Johnson, Barb Keichel and Bill Seibald, Nell Scott and Bob Walters helped add to the fun, while Don Dory announced his pinning to Julie Ann House. Wedding bells will soon be ringing for Phyllis Holbrook and Boyd Brewster. The Fijis seem to be doing quite well for themselves!

Home Town Loyalty.

Cheering Fremont on to their 32-6 victory over Norfolk were Jean Compton and Roy Farris. Others who journeyed to Fremont to see the old home town come through were Marolyn Legge, Pat and Gene Jensen, Bob Weinberg, Tink Herman and Bob Lee.

The Phi Deltis had quite a turnout at the Pike Friday night. Mary Louise Weidman was with Newmy Buckley, and Mary McNair with Wes Maser. Also enjoying the music of Jerry Wald were Mary Stuh and Walt Samuelson, Willy Polite and Dorothy Borgens.

Distractions.

Despite strong distractions, Judd Ankrom has settled his attentions on his ex-pinnate, Barb Windle. Steady is the word for it. Delt Bill Ballew has left his pin with a nurse in Omaha. What's the matter with the local talent, Bill? Chi O Mary Ann Marshall is proudly wearing a diamond from her man at Michigan.
