

Nubbins Win, 33-6, Over Cyclone B's

Oklahoma and Mizzou Scores Boost Big-6 Conference Stock

BY WALT LOOMIS.

Memorial stadium was the scene Friday afternoon of the first football victory of the year for a Cornhusker team. Coach Ray Prochaska's Nubbins trampled the Iowa State College "B" squad to the tune of 33 to 6, and in so doing gave ample proof that the widely publicized T formation, if correctly used, deserves all the credit that has been given it.

Almost a quarter elapsed before the boys in red started to roll, but there was no stopping them after that. After picking up thirty yards on the first set of plays, the Cyclone attack bogged down and the first quarter developed into a punting duel.

Final Play.

The final play of the period produced the needed spark, however, as Bud Gerlach broke loose from the Husker twenty and raced all the way to the Cyclone eighteen yard line, where he stumbled and fell with no one between him and pay dirt. Three plays were needed by the Huskers to get their first six points, the tally coming on a pass from Del Weigand to Allen. Bob Harrington booted the extra point.

A few minutes later some sensational running by Bob Schreiner and Reichel accounted for another touchdown. Several plays took the ball from midfield to the State twenty-eight yard line, from where the shifty Schreiner circled his own left end for the score. The point after touchdown was again added by Harrington.

Shortly before the half ended, the elongated speedster from North Platte, Harvey Stroud, gave the boys in Gold and Black only a fleeting glimpse of his heels as he sped thirty yards to rack up a third score. His try for extra point failed. Included in this drive was beautiful piece of faking by Quarterback Gene Dillidine and the entire Husker backfield. As Dillidine received the ball from the center, the other three backs swung to the right, then suddenly reversed themselves and moved around their own left flank. The Cyclones were so befuddled that Dillidine had gone 20 yards before they got him.

Iowa Scores.

Iowa State garnered their only score shortly after the start of the second half, when they recovered a Nebraska fumble on the Husker thirty yard marker. A series of plunges by Paulson and a pass, Ferguson to Bennett, put the ball on the fourteen yard line. After punting up only two yards on running plays, Ferguson, who was the mainstay in the Cyclone backfield all afternoon, crossed up the Nubbins backs and flipped to Bennett for the remaining twelve yards and a touchdown. The conversion attempt was blocked by Goegelein.

Nebraska's fourth journey into their opponent's end zone came early in the fourth quarter. The Cyclones lost possession of the ball on their own forty-three when a fourth down pass attempt was incomplete. With Schreiner doing some more nifty ball carrying, the Nubbins moved the ball to the two yard line and then sent big Wally Hopp crashing over for the score in three plunges.

The final tally of the game came in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter. With the pigskin on the fifty yard stripe, Weigand airdropped to Parley for forty yards. The plev missing a touchdown only because the receiver did a juggling act with the ball and was forced to slow down to retrieve it. Hopp bulldozed his way to the seven, then Weigand again unleashed his throwing arm, this time pitching to Brestol, who took the pass all by himself in the end zone. Hopp placed the oval squarely between the uprights for the final point of the game.

The Huskers' weak points seem to be their tackles and defense against passes, but with a little more polishing of these defects, they should become a very smooth working unit.

Iowa State had very little to offer in the way of an offense except a passing attack which missed

IM Football Competition Gets Started

Plenty of fast action took place at the athletic field Thursday afternoon as 12 teams opened play in the Intramural Touch Football League. The Phi Delta Theta team led the scoring parade as they trounced the Phi Gamma Delta squad by a 35 to 13 count.

Beta Theta Pi came in second high in the point column as they beat Pioneer Co-op 19 to 0. Other scores include:

Sigma Alpha Epsilon 18, Phi Kappa Psi 6, Cornhusker Co-op 7, Alpha Tau Omega 9, Delta Upsilon 2, Alpha Gamma Rho 9, Sigma Nu 12, Brown Palace Co-op 6.

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

Big Six football prestige boomed today following the results of Saturday's gridiron struggles which found the Oklahoma Sooners giving Army the most uncomfortable afternoon the Cadets have had in a long time before they subdued the southwestern eleven 21 to 7.

Missouri also helped re-establish midwest football in the brackets of the nation's elite by bouncing back from a thorough trouncing at the hands of Texas last week to battle the highly-touted Ohio State Buckeyes to a 13-13 tie.

Nebraska and Iowa State bowed to Big Ten foes by decisive margins, the Huskers fading before Gopher power to take a 33-6 defeat, and the Cyclones enduring a 40-9 pasting at the hands of Northwestern.

Friday night the Kansas Jayhawks added another win to the conference record as they edged the Denver Pioneers 21-13 in the Mile High city.

The Sooners were out in front of the mighty West Point team during the first half by virtue of a blocked punt which a Sooner substitute recovered in the Army end zone. Army tied the count late in the second quarter and then went on to garner two more touchdowns in the last half.

Uphill Battle.

It was an uphill battle for the Ohio State outfit, rated as one of the strongest squads in the Big Ten this year. The Buckeyes trailed 13 to 6 at the end of the third quarter and had to push over a counter in the final period to gain a tie with the hard-charging Tigers.

Coach Mike Michalske's Iowa State Cyclones sported a 3 to 0 lead over Northwestern at the close of the first quarter, but this margin soon faded under a barrage of Wildcat scores and at the half the home team had a 20-3 edge.

The Cornhuskers found themselves opposing a Minnesota team which presumably had no passer. Wily Bernie Bierman came up with Ev Faunce, Iowa State performer in 1945, and the ex-Cyclone completed 11 of 12 aerial efforts to pace the Golden Gophers to their 33-6 win.

Only once did the Husker's T formation function as it should. A third quarter drive produced the six points, as Bill Moomey of York counted the touchdown on a quick opening play from the 10 yard line.

The Jayhawks' Friday night win over Denver indicated that their ace back Ray Evans is regaining his old form. He paced George Sauer's aggregation to their first win of the season.

Iowa Surprises.

In other games involving Nebraska foes, Iowa University scored an unexpected 16 to 0 win over the Purdue Boilermakers at Iowa City. The outcome indicated that Dr. Eddie Anderson knew whereof he was speaking when he had intimated earlier that the Hawkeyes would be tough.

Indiana dropped their second straight game, losing a Big Ten contest to Michigan by a 21 to 0 margin. Two touchdowns in the last quarter gave the Wolverines a clean-cut win over Bo McMillin's Hoosiers.

The Navy-Villanova game, regarded as a test of the comparative strength of the Middles and Army turned out badly for the Annapolis eleven. Navy was able to manage only one touchdown against Villanova, while Army scored a 35-0 win last week.

Notre Dame's 26-6 win over Illinois was by an unexpectedly large score, and another upset occurred when the University of Arkansas held Bob Fenimore and his Oklahoma A. & M. mates to a 21-21 deadlock.

Texas University proved that their 42 to 0 win over Missouri was no mistake as they turned on the power to trample the University of Colorado by a crushing 76 to 0 count.

In the south North Carolina State surprised by tripping Duke 13 to 6, and Alabama was forced to fight all the way to gain a 7 to 6 win over Tulane.

NOTES ON THE PASSING PARADE ... sly eyes of coeds tactfully glancing at the third finger, left hand ... noon hour dances being thoroughly enjoyed by the jitterbugs ... Nooksters crowding six in a booth and still having room to drink coffee ... the campus brain who suggested installing a fire slide on one side of Sosh to relieve congestion, then realized it would be limited to only men and wouldn't solve any problem ... chuckling story of the week concerns a conscientious Coed Counselor who, upon noticing a good looking boy holding his credential folder, started to take it away from him with, "Don't you know you aren't supposed to have your folder?" The embarrassed fellow stammered, "But, I'm an adviser!" Slowly she turned and crawled away ...

THE SHARPIE ... on campus this week will be wearing a sleeveless sweater from HARVEY'S ... and especially one of the Ski patterns by MANCHESTER ... beautiful color combinations include a soft grey and red recently seen on campus on Dual Andresen ... 100% wool and moderately priced, a sleeveless sweater is the ideal mix and matcher for classroom comfort.
