

Merchantmen Run Into Heavy Seas Down Under

Life is so monotonous for American merchant seamen in Australia! Crewmen of the freighter Cape Stephens were swamped by Melbourne girls as they put into Victoria docks recently.

The lads were a little confused, to say the least, the situation being what it is in the states. One of the Americans asked a male Australian what the trouble was with the Australian men. He added that nowhere had the crew seen such a surplus of women. Apparently he got no answer.

Other crewmen complained that the girls had "pestered them beyond endurance" and that they'd been forced to stay aboard out of self-protection.

We take the whole thing with a large helping of salt. From here, it appears to be a plot to induce emigration to Australia.

Sunday Dinner

First in a series of Sunday night buffet dinners in the main dining room has been scheduled for 5:30 to 8 p. m. in the main dining room of the Union, according to Pat Lahr, Union director.

Jay Norris will provide dinner music on the piano during the dinner hours.

The Tale of Elmo; Or You Too Can Be An Open Houser

BY DEDE MEYER

Elmo Fratbug, of Getta Mo Booza affiliation, spent a big Saturday. Up at noon and a cold shower easily took care of any effects from a big Friday night at King's. First on his list of Saturday duties was a brief glance at some tabloid sheet that intognito persons had distributed the previous night. Its off-color jokes sent him into gales of off-color laughter.

Next our Elmo placed himself in a crimson litter, where he was born by Getta Mo pledges to the East Stadium and placed grandly in a choice seat. (Getta Mo Booza has seven campus prexies in its fold, and their block faces the fifty yard line.) Loudly Elmo applauded as the Huskers rallied and scored victory after victory.

Then back to the house after the game, a quick shower, shave and change, and Elmo was ready to go open-housing.

First on the agenda was the Letta No Advanca party. Coffee and doughnuts were served, while Dorothea Poremore presided at the table.

Next came the stop at the Brewa On Tappa house. Here Elmo ran into a bit of trouble, as several of the girls wanted to sit down in the only vacant chair, but Elmo triumphed. Punch and doughnuts were served.

A brief stop at the Matas for punch and doughnuts, and then Elmo ended his trip at the Collecta Pinna's, where he saw Georgia Gimmy, his best girl.

Yessir it was a great day. Elmo felt that it was well-rounded, and he felt no effects except a slight aversion to doughnuts.

But taking the overall scene into comprehension, Elmo drew these deductions. Unadulterated punch meant stricter jurisdiction from certain sources, and the Collecta Pinna's were the smartest girls on campus, because they served their doughnuts stuffed with whipped cream.

YM, YWCA Recruit New Members

The YM and YWCA are looking forward to having the largest enrollment in history, according to Ed Jordan and Mimi Ann Johnson, membership chairmen of the respective organizations.

The booth located in the lobby of the Union is recruiting new members and answering questions for interested students. Phil Franson, president of the YM, stated that the booth will be open on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Ag Reports

Reports from the Ag campus indicate that they are having success in the present membership drive. Francis Wagner, president of the Ag division, emphasized the importance of all members attending the meeting at 7:30 Tuesday night.

There will be a combined meeting of the city campus "Y" organizations in Temple at 7:00 p. m.,

Football Films

Coeds who were screaming so loud they had their eyes shut at the game yesterday, and any students or townspeople who wish to view movies of the Nebraska-Kansas State clash Saturday, are invited to the public screening of the films 7:30 Monday night at the Coliseum.

The same films will be shown Tuesday night at the Hotel Paxton in Omaha, as the beginning of an arrangement which will carry through all football games of the 1946 season, according to A. J. Lewandowski, director of athletics.

Wednesday, Bill Miller, last year's president, who is now president of the National Student YMCA, will be the featured speaker. Bill has just returned from the World Student Christian Federation conference at Geneva, Switzerland, and will undoubtedly have a great deal to report. The meeting will end at 8 o'clock.

Another plan of the "Y" groups is to attend the district conference at Doane college on Saturday, October 12. The feature speaker at this meeting is to be Dr. Kirby Page, noted author.

President . . .

Continued from Page 1

article IV the provisions of election rules:

"No vote shall be solicited at the polls or in the building in which election is being held during election day. No money shall be spent in behalf of any candidate. No printed, mimeographed, typed or otherwise published material in behalf of any candidate shall be permitted except the impartial announcements of the candidates appearing in the press. Any candidate violating these rules either in person or through his supporters shall thereby become ineligible."

Activities of the candidates for junior class president are as follows: Darrel Devoe, Kosmet Klub, Corn Cobs, and Phi Gamma Delta; Dake Novotny, Student Council, Student Union board, Daily Nebraskan news editor, and Beta Theta Pi; Jackie Tobin, Tassels, Awgwan exchange manager, Newman club, and Alpha Omicron Pi. For senior class president: Peggy Shelley, president of Delta Omicron, past president of Alpha Chi Omega, Pi Lambda Theta, Y. W. C. A. and Alpha Lambda Delta; article:

Engel . . .

Continued from Page 1

"So once in Sandy Palestine there crawled Over the floor of his father's shop a little Boy with dull knife and long brown hands who hauled Scraps for his own inventing. He would tress The new work up and show how he could whittle Look. I'm learning. I can make a cross."

Mr. Eggle is a midwesterner by birth and choice, having lived most of his life in Iowa. Among his higher accomplishments is the winning of a Rhodes Scholarship. He attended Oxford University in England, from which he received th edegrees of A. B. and M. A.

Innocents Meet

The Innocents will meet Monday night at 10 p. m., according to Bill Thornberg, president.

Classified

LOST—Delta Omicron pin. Call Elizabeth Wacker, Phone 2-2495.

FOUND—Fountain pen in Social Science Room 101A on Oct. 2 by D. A. Worcester. The pen can be claimed by seeing D. A. Worcester in Teacher's College Room 309C and paying for this ad.

FOUND—Two Chemistry Books. Owner can have by coming to 2400 Dudley and paying for ad.

DON'T READ THIS if you like being kicked in the face by the NAM and our alleged representatives in Congress. Vets interested in protecting their rights as citizens come to the American Veterans Committee meeting, YMCA, Tues., Oct. 8, 7:15 p. m.

LOST—Brown billfold, Tuesday, between Coliseum and Union. Return identification, Beverly Secord, 1529 E. Call 5-7361.

The Main Dining Room of the Student Union

Will Be Open Sat. Noon Oct. 5, 11 to 1 P. M. and will Feature

An 85c Buffet Dinner

5:30 to 7:00 p. m., SUN., OCT. 6

Dinner Music by Jay Norris, Pianist

Union 2nd Floor West Wing

CASH PAID FOR ALL USED BOOKS

WHETHER USED HERE OR NOT

$

LONG'S

NEBRASKA

BOOK STORE

WE PAY MORE FOR ALL BOOKS BECAUSE WE ARE WHOLESALE JOBBERS