

Ragged Edges

BY ELLIE SWANSON.

While the big news of the day seems to be politics and elections, the world of society is still crawling along and a few of us pessimistic fools wonder what will become of studying in the shuffle.

Candy passings are becoming more and more plentiful, and Monday night witnessed several fraternities traveling the campus undoubtedly creating a new cigar shortage. The Phi Delt made the trip to the Pi Phi house to celebrate a pinning of sometime between Buzz Black and Jean Harvey. The wedding will take place in the spring. The Sig Alphas went Gamna Phi way to do the honors for Ann Doudna and Reggie Davies, and a slightly belated candy passing was that of Merrill Shutt and Don Grant who were recently married but didn't want to miss the fun either.

Several members of the Awgwan staff were slightly puzzled Tuesday afternoon at the odd behaviour of Elmer Sprague and Phee Mortlock. The two locked themselves in the Awgwan office and spent some time with their heads together . . . politics, no doubt.

Getting Involved.

Jan McArthur, rumor has it, is becoming slightly involved at the Phi Gam house. No names were mentioned, but several brothers wonder what is to become of the poor Fiji who has been dating Jane while two others take over this weekend . . . sounds confusing, but you know as much about it as I do.

Parties are as usual the thing of the weekend. The Sigma Chis will have an open house Saturday night and two to be found in the gaiety will be Katie Phifer and Bill Kiefer.

Monday night the Beta Sigs serenaded the most recent Beta Sig girl, Pat Lee at the Sigma Kappa house, who now wears Bill Stunkel's Cross, Heart, and Rose.

Iowa Bound.

Among the many journeying to Iowa City this weekend are Anne Whitam with Jack Reese, while if everything goes as planned, Norm Leger and Fran Edee will also make the trip.

The weekend, by now practically planned, will find Jean Compton and Dick Howell together again, Marilyn Miller with Herb Frandsen and Mimi Smith with Jack Campbell Friday night. Going steady are Jackie Wightman and Duke Dierry, while sister SDT's expect some such development from Peggy Margolin and Larry "Gavvy" Gavenmann. Another cute couple and also very promising is that of Marilyn Coffey and Bob Cappell.
