

Ragged Edges

With the dream of a weekend in Kansas, a pheasant hunting trip or a big date on the campus, most of us are struggling without much enthusiasm to put tests behind us with as few flunks as possible.

Newest additions to the troops heading Lawrence way will be Jo Patton, Jerry Thomas, Marilyn Coffey and Bill Stunt. Barbara Hunter will be with Norbert Tieman and Jim Liggett with his pinmate Pat Graham. Shirts McKenna and fiance Bob Heinke, Mary Cox and Bob Martins, and Jan Wilson and Paul Burden are a few more . . . will this list ever end?

Many who plan to desert the campus this weekend and are not traveling to Kansas will be opening the hunting season with a bang . . . bang, that is it. A few of our hunters will try the vicinity near Verdigre. They are Jim Loneragan, Charlie Smith and Dick Hepperly, while Bob Wefso, Carroll Loudon and Chick Morhman will try their luck near Lexington.

More Candy Passings.

Passing the candy after four years of going together were Dud Olney and Elaine Washburn Monday night, and Jim Pettis experienced a new punishment for not passing cigars in the form of being tied up at the Kappa house on a lawn chair by the DU pledges.

Barbara Cypreasen is probably having the most different weekend of anyone on the campus. She is leaving Friday for Minneapolis to see Wyoming play Minnesota . . . a Wyoming fan tat that. Have fun, Zip!

A romance that began when Betty Kremlicak and Charles Hayes worked in the Crib, culminated with an elopement to Kansas last Saturday. Both Betty and Charles will remain in school. Two new steady combinations of late are those of Betty Hubka and Jack Meehan and Betty Bahensky and Pete Durland.

Two individualists will be dancing to Gene Moyer Friday night at the Cornhusker . . . Harold Johnson once again with Better Gustavson. Also watch the Tri-Delt front porch in warm or cold weather after football practice and you will see Fran Mandula (of BMOG fame) with Betty Keebler.

Farmer's Formal

Dancing in calico dresses and blue jeans at the Farmer's Formal Friday night will be Betty French with Dale Landgren, Maurine Steyer with John Bunner, Pat Crownover with Dale Narsteadt and Marilyn Lyness and Duane Nielson. A few more who will attend this event in Ag Hall and help to make it a big success are Bob Koeler and Betsy Kovanda, Jo Bridenbaugh with Gordon Luhr, Dorothy Luther and Paul Grosserode and Marianne Srb and Bob Otte.

I will close now with this thought . . . if you coeds find any men's clothes laying around your house, please notify a Kappa Sig pledge. (This is really a very innocent statement as the actives who hid the clothes will be glad to explain.)

Religious Week To Emphasize Faith Theme

"The Faith That Makes a Difference," will be the theme for Religious Emphasis Week to be held on the campus Nov. 5-10, according to Mary Esther Duncan, executive secretary of the Committee in charge of arrangements for the week.

Speakers will include the Rev. Harry V. Richardson, Jacksonville, Fla., director of religious activities and vice president of Tuskegee Institute; Carl E. Lundquist, Minneapolis, Minn., pastor of Twin City Lutheran Student Foundation, and former president of the Lutheran Student Association of America; Dr. John Oliver Nelson, director of the Commission on Ministry of the Federal Council of Churches; Phillips Prentice Moulton, New Haven, Conn., national director of University Christian Missions; Dr. H. G. Harmon, Des Moines, Ia., president of Drake University; and the Rev. E. J. Weisenberg, S. J., associate professor of dogmatic theology, St. Louis University, St.

The engagement of Miss Elaine Rosenblum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Rosenblum of Lincoln, to Peter Garfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garfield of Salt Lake City was announced Tuesday. Miss Rosenblum graduated with distinction from the University where she is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Chi, national honorary psychology fraternity.

Twenty-Nine Pledge Kappa Phi at Dinner

Kappa Phi sorority announced the pledging of 29 freshman girls Wednesday, Oct. 16, after a Big
