

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

Time again for a bit of prognostication.

Nebraska vs. Kansas—Despite the talk of wise boys that the Jayhawks are favored, I'll stick with the steadily improving Huskers. For the first time this season Nebraska will be on the top side as far as weights are concerned.

Injuries to the KU backfield stars may clear up by gametime, but regardless of their condition I like the scrappy Nebraska line and believe that they will halt the galloping Kansans.

Kansas State vs. Oklahoma—The Sooners should have a field day against the puny Wildcats who have scored one touchdown in three games. After Army and Texas, the K Staters will be a soft touch for Oklahoma.

Missouri vs. Iowa State—Coach Don Faurot's charges should maintain their undefeated status in the Big Six against the Cyclones who have been unable to uncover a consistent offensive combination.

Indiana vs. Iowa—The Hoosiers are rolling on the comeback trail after two early defeats and should sweep aside a good Iowa team that will be fighting all the way against the passes of Ben Raimondi and running of Pete Pihos.

Wisconsin vs. Illinois—Protests from the student body about the coaching situation at Champaign will not help Illini spirit, and the tough Wisconsin line will not help the Illini ball carriers. The Badgers in a close one.

Michigan vs. Northwestern—Reserve strength should be the difference between these two. The winner is tabbed as the probable Big Nine ruler. A nod to Michigan.

Ohio State vs. Purdue—Two disappointing elevens come to grips at Columbus. The Buckeyes have shown flashes of power while Purdue has shown nothing. Paul Bixler's crew should rise a notch in loop standings.

Minnesota vs. Wyoming—The Cowboys can't beat teams in the Rocky Mountain area. They shoulda stayed in Laramie.

Army vs. Columbia—Lou Little's Lions have come through with upsets two weeks in a row. They would hit the jackpot with a win over Army, but until proved otherwise I think Davis, Blanchard and company should continue unbeaten.

Navy vs. North Carolina—This seems to be the spot where the Middies can get back into the win column.

Arkansas vs. Texas—Dana Bible's supercharged Longhorns venture into Southwestern league competition for the first time against the Razorbacks who are no pushover. However they haven't shown enough to rate the edge over Texas.

Alabama vs. Tennessee—One of the top games of the day, a Bowl bid should be forthcoming to the winner. Alabama was good last year and I like them over the Vols Saturday.

Penn vs. Virginia—A breather for the potent Quakers who are one of the strongest teams in the East. They'll be looking to that Navy contest a week hence.

Yale vs. Cornell—Two of the best in the Ivy League get together for a renewal of a long-standing rivalry. The Bulldogs will be out to redeem themselves

Football Cancelled

All intramural football games scheduled for yesterday afternoon were postponed on account of the weather and will be played at a later date.

after losing to Columbia last week in the last quarter.

UCLA vs. California—There's no stopping the Uclans who seem to be Rose Bowl bound. The Berkley Bears scored their first win last week in a surprise over St. Mary's but this week it's a different story.

AUF Donations Rebuild Student Minds, Schools

Yes, the war has ended. But starvation and famine in all their ugliness are still with us.

The All University Fund drive provides the student the opportunity to directly aid this situation. One of AUF's subsidiaries is the World Student Service Fund. Any person in foreign countries in need of educational aid is sought by the WSSF. For example, 50 percent of Poland's instructors were lost in the war. WSSF offers educational opportunities to Polish students until their government takes over.

Second Loop Win Aim of UN Squad

Two changes in the Husker starting lineup are indicated as the Nebraska squad prepares to entrain for Lawrence and a Saturday clash with the Kansas Jayhawks.

Jack Pesek, 206 pound Ravenna end, has returned to the starting lineup in place of Alex Cochrane, jr., Ord wingman, and Bill Moomsey will open at the right half-back spot in place of the injured Cletus Fischer.

Coach Bernie Masterson has indicated that the traveling squad will include 35 players. They are:

Ends: Jack Hazen, Willard Bunker, Fritz Mandola, Jack Pesek, Ed Nyden and Bob Scheiger.
Tackles: Carl Samuelson, Bob Tegt, John Sedlack, Vern Stiner, Mike DiBlase, Gordon Hall.
Guards: Fred Lorenz, Bob Deviney, Ed Schwartzkopf, Frannie Lelk, Gene Wilkins, Bob Lipps.
Centers: Joe Partington, Jim Taylor, Jim Thomson.
Quarterbacks: Sam Vacanti, Dick Thompson, Fred Metheny.
Fullbacks: Tom Novak, Gerry Moore, Wally Hopp.

End Willard Bunker is slated to make the trip but will not see action against the Jayhawks because of a knee injury.

Guard Freddie Lorenz will captain the Huskers in the game, a Big Six contest which will find both teams attempting to remain undefeated in conference play.

A capacity crowd of approximately 35,000 fans is expected to be on hand for the battle between teams coached by two former high school and college teammates, George Sauer and Bernie Masterson. If the anticipated crowd materializes a new attendance record for KU home games will be established, and it will be the first time that the Jayhawk stadium has been completely filled.

IM Golf Tourney Postponed; Reset For October 27

The fall golf tournament has been postponed a week because of the student migration to the Nebraska-Kansas game Saturday.

The new date for the golf tournament is Sunday, Oct. 27, at the Pioneer Golf Course. Teeing off time will be between 8:00 and 10 a. m. and 1 and 2:30 p. m.

Coke Hour
 YWCA members and all those interested are reminded of the Coke hour, Friday at 4 p. m. in Ellen Smith Hall. This is an hour of fun and fellowship in addition to food.

"Wow! This job sure keeps me hopping!"

"BELIEVE me, fitting all the new dial and manual switch-board equipment and long distance facilities into Bell System central offices all around the country is keeping me mighty busy!"

"In a single big dial exchange there may be 4,000 miles of wire. I may have to solder 2,500,000 connections before everything's ready for you to dial a number.

"Besides installing this complex apparatus, I build it. That's part of my job as manufacturer for the Bell System.

"I also purchase all manner of things for the Bell Telephone Companies . . . and distribute these supplies to them along with the equipment I make.

"Ever since 1882, I've been helping to make our nation's telephone service the best in the world. Today . . . with the Bell System's construction program of more than $2,000,000,000 in full swing . . . I'm busier than ever.

"Remember my name . . . it's Western Electric."
