

Cornhuskers Share Top Spot in Big Six

BIG SIX STANDINGS

Nebraska	2	0	47	14
Missouri	2	0	59	13
Oklahoma	1	0	28	7
Kansas	1	1	38	24
Iowa State	0	2	21	57
Kansas State	0	3	7	85

Results Last Week
 Nebraska 16, Kansas 14.
 Missouri 33, Iowa State 13.
 Oklahoma 28, Kansas State 7.

Games This Week
 Oklahoma at Iowa State.
 Indiana at Nebraska.
 Kansas at Tulsa.
 Southern Methodist at Missouri.

Nebraska provided the week-end fireworks in Big Six play as all conference teams were involved in loop games. The Huskers' 16-14 win over Kansas gave Coach Bernie Masterson's crew a share of first place with Missouri and assured them of a place at the top of the loop scramble until November.

Although not on the winning side, Kansas State showed signs of developing into a stubborn team by giving Oklahoma a whale of a battle for three quarters before dropping to the running wizardry of the Sooners' Joe Golding.

Tigers Keep Rolling
 While Nebraska and Oklahoma were scoring league victories, the Missouri Tigers kept pace by blasting Iowa State 33-13. Once again the Cyclones began to roll only when they trailed by a couple of touchdowns.

Most of the Big Six teams desert conference warfare this week to face outside foes prior to going into the intensive stages of league campaigning. Oklahoma journeys to Iowa State for the lone conference game.

Nebraska will be host to Indiana, the third start the Scarlet will make against Big Nine opposition, and the chances for a Husker victory are not hopeless. Iowa's two touchdown win over the Hoosiers on Saturday was enough to give Nebraska gridders hopes for a triumph.

Jayhawks Meet Tulsa
 The Jayhawks will attempt to regain their winning ways against Tulsa Saturday. However the Hurricanes also suffered their first defeat last week and will be anxious to prove that the Detroit University victory was all a mistake.

In the renewal of a rivalry which began last fall, Missouri will entertain Southern Methodist at Columbia. Last year the Tigers grabbed a 10 to 7 win and this year's game could be just as close.

Kansas State will take a much needed rest this Saturday after absorbing three conference defeats in succession. Coach Hobbs Adams and his staff will be working overtime preparing the Wildcats for the Iowa State clash on November 2. If the K Staters are to score a victory in Big Six play, the Cyclone game looks like the spot.

UN Golf Team Downs Pioneer Squad 32½-21

Golfers of the University of Nebraska defeated the Pioneers club, 32½ to 21½ Sunday at the west Lincoln course.

Low scoring honors for the day went to Bernie Mortenson of the Husker squad, who fired a 79. Close on his heels were Ery Peterson 81, Wilbur Everett 81, and Charles Moyer 81.

The Cornhuskers will play the Hillcrest shotmakers next Sunday at Hillcrest. Results of Sunday's rounds:

FIRST MATCH: Don Waite (86), and Bernie Mortenson (79), Nebraska defeated Ery Peterson (80) and Wilbur Everett (81), Pioneers, 5½ to 3½.

SECOND MATCH: Floyd Mosher (86), and Dick Greenmeier (83), Pioneers, defeated Don Greenwood (87) and Willie Polite (86), Nebraska, 7 to 2.

THIRD MATCH: Ray Wallasky (82) and Bob Cox (92), Nebraska, defeated Stan Stroh (83) and Henry Herzog (91), Pioneers, 6 to 3.

FOURTH MATCH: Ed Dosek (86) and Morris Costello (91), Pioneers defeated Jim Kressen (86) and Phil Simpson (88), Nebraska, 5½ to 3½.

SIXTH MATCH: Charles Moyer (81) and Steven Flansberg (81), Nebraska, defeated Ray Johnston (83) and Paul Keller (96), Pioneers, 8 to 1.

TOM NOVAK — Powerhouse of the Nebraska backfield, his line plunging was instrumental in the Huskers' 16 to 14 win over Kansas Saturday at Lawrence.

Oregon State Included On '47 Slate

Athletic Director A. J. Lewandowski announced Saturday that Oregon State has been added to the Huskers' football schedule for 1947, replacing the University of California at Los Angeles which was unable to arrange a date with Nebraska.

The Beavers will play in Lincoln on November 29 and the following year the Huskers will journey to Portland for a game on November 27. Oregon State is coached by Lonnie Stiner, former UN star, who is an uncle of Vern Stiner, regular right tackle on this year's Nebraska team.

Five home games are listed on the Nebraska schedule for next year, which was completed with the signing of the Beavers. The only drawback is that the four games on the road come in succession.

From October 11 until November 8, Nebraska will play away from home, meeting Iowa State, Notre Dame, Kansas State and Missouri in that order.

At home Bernie Masterson's team will play Indiana, Minnesota, Kansas, Oklahoma and Oregon State. The complete schedule lists one open date, on November 13, which will not be filled.

The Oregon State contest replaces the Iowa University date on the schedule. Next year's meeting will be the first since 1936 between Oregon State and Nebraska, and the six game in history between the two schools. The Huskers have won all of the preceding contests.

Complete schedule:
 September 27: Indiana at Lincoln.
 October 4: Minnesota at Lincoln.
 October 11: Iowa State at Ames.
 October 18: Notre Dame at South Bend.
 October 25: Kansas State at Manhattan.
 November 1: Missouri at Columbia.
 November 8: Kansas at Lincoln.
 November 15: Open (will not be filled).
 November 22: Oklahoma at Lincoln.
 November 29: Oregon State at Lincoln.

Selzer, Gade Rejoin Nubbins for KS Battle

With the return of favorable football weather, Coaches Ray Prochaska and Bob Kahler have been putting the Nebraska B team through a rough series of practices in preparation for a game with the Kansas State Wildcats this Friday at Manhattan.

Having defeated the Kansans by a 25 to 14 count earlier in the season, the Huskers hope to maintain their undefeated and untied status at the expense of the Wildcats.

Prochaska has been well pleased men dropped from the varsity with the showing made by the squad. The line play of Keith Manning and Jerry Jacupke, along with the general all-around spirit of the men, shows that they are going all out to win back their varsity togs.

Ackerman Sparkles.
 The running of Bob Ackerman, Sidney freshman halfback, has also been a bright spot in late practices, indicating that Prochaska will not have to worry too much about a replacement for Harvey Stroud.

Gail Gade, regular first string center, and Jack Selzer, hard running Scottsbluff halfback, who has been out most of the season with injuries, have returned to the squad and will offer additional strength for the game this week.

Following the K-State contest, the Nubbins have only Midland College and the University of Kansas B team to dispose of in their quest for a perfect season. The game with Midland will be played at Fremont on Nov. 1, while the final struggle will be with Kansas at Lincoln on Nov. 9.
