

Ragged Edges

BY PAT GILLIGAN.

With the weekend more than jammed full of activities, it is hard to give a complete report on everyone's doings. Campus night at King's is rapidly gaining in popularity as evidenced by such twosomes this week as Leo Beck and Helen Hummel, and a new combo—Tottie Fiddock with Ralph Stuart. Tottie returned her diamond and Phi Psi pin to Milt Mack Tuesday night—after an evidently quick change of heart. Also enjoying the fun were Freddie Dickinson and Kay Schaecker—this may become a steady twosome.

At the Pike.

Taking in the King of Swing at the Pike—braving the crowds—were Pat Toof and Jack Clough; while Francis Fagot enjoyed the music with Nancy King. Larry Cook and Don Kleinschmidt, finding the date situation on the campus too much for them, imported their girls by plane and had a big weekend—including the Pike Friday.

A big romance blossoming in the Rag office is that of Dake Novotny and Pat Jensen. They went all out and spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights together.

A new steady deal that might be a revelation to several people is that of Mary Cox and Bob Martins. They agreed to go steady a week ago, but put off until now because each had several former engagements.

Fiji-Tri Delt Feud.

The feud between the Tri Deltas and Phi Gams which has been simmering for a week with such acts as treks to the enemy house to paint the porch furniture with their own brand (just give them a brush and they go wild) came to a climax Thursday night when the triple Delta girls slipped in a Sig Alph, Bob Burhans, to help them do their work at the Fiji house. Jane McArthur paid for this faux pas by scrubbing the kitchen floor before returning home. Watch for further developments on the R street front.

New Duo.

The constant appearance of the Shirley Peterson and Aubrey Pettit duo of late is enough to cause many eyebrows to rise, as Shirley has plans for a June wedding with home town sweetheart Pat Moss, the giver of the ornament on her third finger, left hand.

Saturday Dates.

Dancing at East Hills over the weekend were Benny Munson and Marilyn Dixon and Bobbie Gundel with Arny Nelson. Another customary after-the-game celebration was held by the Sig Alphas at the Round House Saturday night and the Deltas held their party at the chapter house. Ruth Korb was down from Omaha for the game Saturday and attended the Delt party with her old buddy, Ralph King. Speaking of Korbs, June Korb had a weekend guest, Darrel Graber, of Wayne.

Homecoming . . .

Featured vocalists with the orchestra are Rosalyn Patton and Jack Hunter. Both Miss Patton and Hunter have been with Laurence since the band's inception and have contributed a large part to its success. They have been starred on the Columbia recordings recently made by the Laurence aggregation, particularly Mill Patton's rendition of "Apple Blossom Time."

Tickets will be on sale for the next week, and possibly on the night of November 2 if the supply holds out, Kline said. All Corn Cobs and Tassels will have the tickets which sell for $3.00 per couple.
