A C ( )

Vol. 47-No. 29

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Friday, November 1, 1946

Victory Bell Symbolizes Old

souri-Nebraska Victory Bell today for the Cornhusker's 34th Homecoming, one of the oldest traditions in the Big Six is being renewed. Highlighting an eventrally and bonfire on the quadrangle tonight and a tug of war between freshmen and upperclassmen, the Victory Bell will be presented to the University of Missouri at the game Saturday

Tug of War.

The winner of the game will take the bell for a year until the Tigers and Cornhuskers meet next season.

Tug of War. afternoon,

Henry Schulte, revered "Pa" and great track coach for the university, suggested the idea for the Victory Bell to the Innocents Society in 1928. Nebraska took possession of the trophy that year and the symbol of rivalry has been in constant interchange since that Motto.

Inscribed with the motto, "Ti-gers-Huskers, Who Win or Lose Gloriously," the bell rests on an on it the final score of every Nebraska-Missouri game since 1928. In a pre-game ceremony to-morrow, Bill Thornberg, Innocents president, will present the bell to Missouri representatives, ful week-end which includes a since the Tigers are in formal possession of it. The winner of the

In pre-game activities, a committee will judge house decorations tonight while the Homecoming rally is in full swing, with the burning in effigy of a tiger over a blazing fire.

After the rally, students can get an advance preview on the Homecoming dance band in the Union since Patricia Lahr, Union director, has announced a record dance featuring music by Elliot Lawrence.

The tug of war, deciding 1946 celebrations.

With the arrival of the Mis- oak platform which has carved whether freshmen can remove their caps or leave them on until the first snow falls, will be held tonight at 7:15 between frosh and upperclassmen. Scheduled to begin at 11 a. m., Saturday, the parade will start from the quad-rangle, ending at the Union after following a path down O street.

> Between halves of the game Saturday afternoon, the university marching band, the Missouri marching band, Corn Cobs, Tassels, Mortar Boards and Innocents 1945-46 Pep Queen.

> Homecoming festivities wil come to a close Saturday night in the coliseum, when Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra will play for the Homecoming dance. The newly elected 1946-47 Pep Queen will be introduced at an intermission at 10:30 p. m. by Don Kline Corn Cob president, to end the

Pep

BY DAKE NOVOTNY

Beauty is as beauty does and this time beauty will also have pep!

Queen season for the campus officially opens today with the student body voting for one of five Tassel candidates for Cornhusker Pep Queen of the current year. Mary Esther Dunkin, Ann Whitham, Donna Alfrey, Phyllis Harris, and Harriet Quinn have received the Tassel nod as nominees for the regal title.

Nebraska's Pep Queen, automatically selected from the will form an honor guard for the presentation of Jackie Tobin, current Tassel delegation, exercises regal authority over all Homecoming events. Final selection of candidates is based on the individual's contribution towards the furtherance of a stronger school-spirited institution. • This year's five coed hopefuls were named, in accordance with traditional secret ballot method, at the regular Tassel meeting last Monday. The final blue ribbon choice will be given to the student body by virtue of today's all-campus election. Voting booths have been set up in the basement of the Union and will be open from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m., Joy Hill, Tassel prexy and charge d'affairs, announced between various meetings yesterday.

Jackie Tobin, last year's queen, will reign over the Homecoming proceedings and thruout the game and will relinquish her crown to the new queen at the Homecoming dance presentation Saturday night.

The Tassel organization, directors of the event, select five candidates each year and present the names to the student body who vote the title to one of the coeds. This year's election is the first all campus polling of the semester and a large turnout is expected.

Students on ag campus will X their votes in Ag Hall between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m.

Honorary Colonel Finalists Named

Anna Margaret "Hink" Aasen, Mary Cox, Betty Lou Horton, Betty Stanton, Ann Doudna and Doris Frahm were chosen yesterday as finalists for Honorary Colonel of the Military Ball from a group of fifteen senior girls nominated by organized coed nouses.

A committee of Mortar Boards and Innocents selected the girls on the basis of appearance, attractiveness, posture, grace and poise. A point system and style sheet were used and each girl received points ranging from 1 to 5 for each of the five qualities. The contestants with the highest total scores were automatically chosen as finalists.

A cheerleader for three years, "Hink" was elected Nebraska Sweetheart last year and was a 1945 beauty queen. Mary was chosen Prom Queen last spring and is an active member of the AWS board and Tassels.

Betty is past president of both Pi Beta Phi and the Panhellenic organization.

A Mortar Board, Betty Lou is vice-president of YWCA and a member of AWS. Ann has been active in WAA and YWCA work and Doris was a cover girl for one of last year's Agwan issues.

The honorary colonel will be voted on at an all-student election to be held in the Union basement November 5 between 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.

All students will be eligible to vote, but must present identification cards.

B.A.B.W. to Elect Typical Barb Girl

Presentation of the "Hello Girl," typical barb coed, will highlight dates. the B. A. B. W. get-acquainted dance at the Union ballroom Sat- from 9 to 12 p. m., with interurday, November 9, according to mission curtain acts. publicity chairman Harriett Mo- Tickets will be sol has been chosen by a student vote at the dance. Candidates were introduced at the dance and voted on by ballot. Last year's "Hello" girl was Helen Wulf, who was chosen from seventeen candi-

In years past the "Hello Girl" the dance.

Tickets will be sold for twenty cents at the Union office and at

Rally

BY NORM LEGER.

One event of the year that no one should miss is tonight's spectacular Homecoming rally which will begin the week end's colorful activities. The Husker pepsters will meet at 16th and R at 7 p. m., and will proceed down fraternity and sorority row to the mall where gigantic bonfire will light up the campus and serve as a funeral pyre for the Mizzou Tigers to be thrown to a flaming death.

Next in line is the freshman-upperclassmen tug o' war to determine whether the freshmen can discontinue wearing their beanies now, or whether they will have to wait until the first snowfall.

Yell King Art Beindorf and his assistants will lead the ralliers in some rousing cheers, and Ellsworth DuTeau will give a pep talk after which the student body will parade down town behind the varsity band.

Stopping at 13th and O, the paraders will climax the evening with songs and yells which will echo thruout the city as a forecast of tomorrow's victory All Corn Cobs and Tassels will meet at the Union ten minutes before the rally is scheduled to begin.

Corn Cobs

All Corn Cobs must turn in their money from the sale of dance tickets to Martin Pesek between 3:30 and 5:30 in the Union basement today. More tickets will be ehecked out to all Cobs who want them.

Dr. R. Bragg Lund-Quist Will Address Convocation Convocation Lund-Quist Will Speak On Religion

The second convocation address of the year will be delivered by Dr. Raymond Bragg, associate editor of the "Humanist" magazine, in the Union ballroom Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m.

Dr. Bragg will draw on experiences and observations from his

In addition to his travels and editorial duties, Dr. Bragg has been the minister of the First Unitarian church in Minneapolis since 1935. His educational background stems from attendance at a number of universities, including Brown university, the University of Chicago, and the Universities of Frankfurt and Hamburg in Germany.

Because of this background and his exceptional speaking ability, Dr. Bragg has become a prominent lecturer on foreign relations, social and economic questions.

The convocation series planned and scheduled by Prof. Carl Arndt, chairman of the convocation committee.

Carl E. Lund-Quist, executive director of the Twin City Lutherand Student Body, will be one of the 12 speakers to come to the Nebraska campus to conduct "Re-ligion in Life Week," Nov. 10-15.

He has served for five years in his present capacity, and during this time, he has worked with five to six thousand Lutheran students travels in Europe and Asia for his subject, "Europe's Rehabilitation —How Far to Go?"

The subject in Europe and Asia for his group is the largest Lutheran group in the country.

Degrees

Lnd-Quist received his Bachelors degree from Bethany College, Landsborg, Kas., in 1932, and continued his studies in the Augustana Seminary, Rock Island, Ill.; the University of Geneva, Switz-erland, and the University of Min-nesota, Minneapolis.

Judging Judging of Homecoming house decorations will take place between 7:30 and 9:30 tonight, according to Bill Thornburg, president of Inno-