

Ragged Edges

By Jeanne Hickey.

Take three deep breaths and slowly exhale in order to get in shape for the gala week end with its many parties and lengthy plans.

The Phi Psi Bowers party Saturday night promises to be a success with such couples as Nadine Anderson and Jack Schultze, Barbie Turk and Davie Miller. Guests must dress to represent persons of the roaring 20's, and the results will probably be amusing.

Dancing to the music of Orin Tucker at the Phi Delt party at the Pike Friday will be Audrey Forsythe and steady, Art Birk, Don Cooper and Sheila Curran, Virg Falloon and graduate, Masie Platner, and Dede Meyer and Hat-tie Wilbourne are looking forward to this event. Jack Dickey and Ellie Detweiler will be back together again for that night.

Sig Alpha Party.

The Sig Alpha "annual" will be a great party, according to reports of their plans. Walt Rungen and Lou Ploun, who were pinned last Saturday, plan to take it in, as well as Bob Burhans and Millie Hayercraft, who people say will be going steady in a very short time.

Soaking of steadies, Peg Cowles and Bill Tyson, Pat Krause and Gene Dildine make two wonderful couples who have decided to date only each other, that is, Peg with Bill and Pat with Gene.

Louise Carter seems to find great interest in Joe Williams. They are seen together quite regularly. Norrie Anderson has been occupying the time of Georgie Wythers of late, and Jack Colgon seems to have his bid in for the time of Sue Alexander.

Bloodshed?

Much blood is being shed by Kent Kratz and Virgil Ohse as to who is taking Marggy Cobb out each week end. The boys in the house are thinking of placing bets.

Buck Barger has found new interest at Omaha U., coed Jean McCauley. Buck is going to Omaha to see her this week end.
