Vol. 47—No. 35

Sunday, November 10, 1946

'Religion in Life' Week Opens

Religious Views Aired Dr. T.Z. Koo Speaks During Coming Week At Convo Tonight Fifteen speakers will participate and seven skeptics' hour groups

Fifteen speakers will participate and seven skeptics' hour groups in the annual Religious Emphasis at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Week on the campus Nov. 10-15, according to Mary Esther Dunkin, executive chairman.

Theme of the week this year is "The Faith that Makes a Difference." Activities for the week will include sermons in Sunday morning church services. Catholic Student Mass, informal discussion, addresses, convocations, seminars, house meetings, personal conferences, classroom discussions, and radio programs.

Altho the program officially begins today, religious leaders and committee members met at the Baptist Student Center Saturday at 4 p. m. for a retreat and dinner. On Saturday morning the Nebraska Forum of the Air over station KOIL presented a discussion of the question, "Can the Old Faith Meet the Test of the Times?" The panel for the broadcast was composed of Dr. Gerald Kennedy, Dr. Arthur Miller and Phillips Moulton, national director of the University Christian Mis-sion, with Gordon Lippit as moderator. The program will be re-broadcast over KFAB at 10:30 p. m. Monday.

Catholic Mass.

Father Weisenberg, S. J., will give sermons at Catholic Masses in the Union, Parlors XYZ, at 9 a. m. and 1 a. m. Other speakers on Monday, Tuesday and Thurs-day, faculty luncheons are scheduled. Catholic masses will be said Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at 7:15.

and for unaffiliated students at Miss Elizabeth Turner, of the Stu-First Plymouth church, and the Union, at 7:30 Monday evening, See RELIGIOUS VIEWS, P. 2

Chairmen.

Dr. C. H. Patterson is chairman of the committee in charge of Religious Emphasis Week; Miss Dunkin is executive chairman; Alice

SAMUEL WOHL.

Rife, secretary, and Burl Johnson, treasurer.

Speakers are: Miss Elizabeth Jones, executive director of the Y. W. C. A., Kansas City, Mo.; Dr. T. Z. Koo, a secretary of the will give sermons at First Evangelical, First Presbyterian and Trinity and Warren Methodist churches, at 1 a. m. today.

DI. 1. Z. Koo, a secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation; Dr. David E. Linstrom, of the University of Illinois; Dr. Carl E.
Lindquist, of the National Luth-From 7-8 a. m. Monday thru Friday will be breakfasts for the leaders and committee members at the City Y. M. C. A. At noon on Monday. Tuesday and Thurs-day faculty luncheous are sched-day faculty luncheous are sched-Przudzik, director of the Lincoln Catholic Social Service Bureau; Dr. Harry Richardson, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; Msgr. George Schuster, Catholic student chap-Special features of the program lain on the campus; Dr. Amos will be discussion groups for mar-ried people at Emmanuel church ward Tuchek, Plattsmouth, Neb.;

Lindstrom Is Guest at Ag Convocation

Dr. David E. Lindstrom, professor of rural sociology at the University of Illinois, will be guest speaker at the Ag campus Religion in Life convocation, which will be held in the College Activities Building Tuesday at 4 p. m. as part of the university Religious Emphasis Week.

Classes will be dismissed for the convocation, when Dr. Lindstrom will speak on "Opportunities for Christian Service in Rural Areas." Following the address, the YM will sponsor a game hour and the YW will serve a dinner. Tickets for the dinner may be purchased from the YM-YW cabinet members by 5:00 p. m. Monday. At 7:30 Dr. Lindstrom will speak on "The Rural Church in a Christian Nation."

Luncheon.

At noon Gamma Sigma Delta, honorary agricultural fraternity, of which Dr. Lindstrom is a member, will sponsor a luncheon in his honor,

Any student who wishes to confer with Dr. Lindstrom may do so Tuesday between the hours of 11 and 12, and 1:30 to 3:30 in Room 110 of the Plant Industry Building.

Veterans.

Veterans and their wives are especially invited to attend the convocation, according to Dean W. W. Burr.

Dr. Lindstrom is a graduate of the university college of agriculture. He is president of the American Country Life Association, and chairman of the conference between theological seminaries Northwestern university. and colleges of agriculture.

AUF Reaches $2,200 Goal

Topping the $2,200 goal set for the All University Fund Drive, students contributed a total of $2259.87, Mary Claire Phillips, AUF director, stated today.

The drive, which began on Oct. 12, collected money for the Community Chest and the World Student Service Fund and was conducted on a basis of a $2 contribution from each student.

Members of the AUF staff who contributions were Beth Norenburg, treasurer; Jean Chilquist, clerical work, Phyllis Mortlock, publicity; and Harriett Quinn, in charge of solicitation.

Workers.

Other workers during the drive included Phyllis Foss, who was in charge of the collection on ag campus; Marion McElhaney, in charge of organized houses; Joan Farrar, sororities; Norm Leger, fraternities; Peggie Lowry and Marcia Mockett, Lincoln students; and Gladys Jackson, organiza-

Solicitors for organizations on campus were: Jean Funk, Brown Palace Coop; Olin Webb, Corn-

See AUF, Page 2.

BY MARY LOU BLUMEL.

Dr. T. Z. Koo, called the "most sought-after religious speaker in the United States today," will give the principal Address at the first convocation of Religion in Life week, at the Coliseum tonight at 7:30 p. m. Now in the United States after nearly three years in Japanese-occupied China where he served as lay-minister in Shanghai Community church and superintendent of a maternity hospital, he is a secretary of the World's Student Christian Federa-tion. He came to this country after he

T. K. KOO.

B. A. DeVoto Will Address Convocation

Bernard A. De Voto, noted writer and lecturer, will speak on "The Maturity of American Literature" at the next all-university convocation at the Union ballroom on Wednesday, Nevember 13, at 3 p. m.

After receiving his A. B. degress from Harvard in 1920, De Naming eight finalists for their Voto served as instructor and as-sistant professor of English at chosen Phi Gamma Delta, Phi

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he has written articles and books on the works of Mark Twain and is the author of "The Year of Decision," "The Taming of the Fron-tier," (history) and "The Crooked Mile" to mention a few of his works.

Professor De Voto had contributed, literary articles, historical magazines and is the editor of skits for the revue the Harvard Graduates' magazine.

Renee Stokley, Towne Club Coed Named Hello Girl

Renee Stokley of Towne Club, was named "Hello Girl of 1946" at the BABW dance in the union aided Miss Phillips in collecting last night. Miss Stokley was chosen from a field of 15 candidates representing the various unaffiliated houses and clubs on campus. She was given a corsage during the presentation ceremony.

> students at the dance, the candidates presented a floor show, giv- history of the group. ing the audience an opportunity to view the girls before voting. Miss Kosmet will be introduced dur.og Stokley was chosen on the basis of appearance, popularity and personality.

> Decorated by BABW, the union ballroom held a capacity crowd for one of the more successful social functions of the year featuring the presentation of Miss Tickets are being sold by Kos-Stokley and the formal gathering met Klub workers for 75 censt of many of the unaffiliated stu- and will be on sale until the time dents attending the university.

escaped from Shanghai to Chungking in September, 1944. Currently he is on a speaking tour of North and South America.

In the past, Dr. Koo was a stu-dent at St. John's university in Shanghai; official in the Chinese Railway Service; Secretary of the Student Division of the YMCA of China; member of the Second World Opium Conference of the League of Nations; a speaker at the Oxford, Madras and Amsterdam, Conference; and advisor to the Chinese delegation at the San Francisco Conference. He has been honored by a M. Litt degree from the Chinese government; an L.H.D. from Denver university, and Ph.D.'s from Colgate university and Kenyon college.

Gustavson to Preside.

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will preside at the convocation, which will open with organ music and hymns. Mary Esther Dunkin, executive of Religion in Life Week, will give an outline of the week's work, and Dr. Phillips Moulton, national director of the University Christian Mission, will introduce the 15 members of the team.

Statements will be made by the Rev. Edward J. Weisenberg, S. J., of St. Louis University, St. Mary's, Kas., who will conduct the Catholic Student Retreat; and Rabbi Harry Jolt, of Cincinnati, O., who will be in charge of Jewish activities, before Dr. Koo gives his address.

An organ benediction and postlude will close the convocation.

All students, including veterans and their wives, are invited to attend, according to Miss Dunkin.

Kosmet Klub Chooses Eight House Skits

Delta Theta, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Chi, Delta Upsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon to represent the organized houses on campus, Nov. 22 at 8 p. m. in the coliseum.

Work ing from a field of 16 entries, the judging board of Max Whittaker and Romulo Soldevilla and a group of Kosmet Klub members, decided that the eight essays and reviews to National finalists had the most original Kosmet Klub workers have a supply of tickets, John Dale, group president announced, which will be sold on a first come, first served, basis. There will be no reserved seats, Dale said, and he advises all students wishing good seats at the Revue to be at the Coliseum well before curtain time at 8:00.

Annual Affair.

An annual affair on the university campus, the Kosmet Klub revue will regain some of its pre-war splendor this fall; Dale predicted, as Kosmet Klub members all agreed that the eight frat-With more than 600 hundred ernities selected will present one of the most unique shows in the Nebraska Sweetheart and Prir 2e. the program, with the Sweetheart being chosen by the Innocents and the Prince by the Moriar Boards. This is a new arrangement, the candidates having been voted on by the audience in previous years.

of the Revue, Nov. 22 at 8 p. m.

French Organization Names Officers for Current Year school year the Cercle Francais be announced to all French of the university elected officers.

Robert L. Johnson was chosen president; Mary Rumbolz, vicepresident; and Phyllis Llewellyn, secretary-treasurer. The meeting was an organization meeting, at which the following students of French were enrolled as mem-

Duane A. Adams, Marjorie Brinkman, Mervyn L. Cadwallader, Elaine Carroll, Sam Dubester, Francis Forster, John Harrington, Ann Marie Jones, Mary E. O'Donnell, Mildred Patterson, Edith Roesler and John W. Snyder.

Purpose.

The purpose of the club is to foster an interest in French life, civlization, and language. President Johnson explained that with this in mind the club will present programs designed to create the French atmosphere in literature, music, movies, customs, etc.

The club, in which membership is open to all students of French who are beyond the beginning stage, also voted to have dues of 25 cents per semester, and to hold another meeting toward the end of November, inasmuch as the meeting last Tuesday was for organization purposes. After No- cations, there will be no meeting vember, there will be one meet- this Thursday evening.

At its first meeting of the '46-'47 | ing a month. Time and place will

Dr. Boyd G. Carter, professor of French, was present to welcome new members, and outlined some of the facilities available in the Modern Language department for arranging interesting and appropriate programs. C. D. Shokes, graduate assistant in the French department, has been delegated to represent the faculty as spon-

Open Application Filings for Ag Block and Bridle

Membership applications for the university Block and Bridle club may be obtained in room 201 A.H. hall, and must be filed before Wednesday, Nov. 13.

Membership is open to any student interested in the livestock field. Applicants do not necessarily have to major in animal

The only requirements are completion of two semesters in the tions. university with no "C" or "F" credits, with a 75 average, Due to the opening of membership appli-