

Kosmet Revue . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)
for the revue, the Kosmet vice president stated.

Candidates for the Prince Kosmet and their activities are: Roland Hermann, Cornhusker Co-op; Roland "Bud" Johnson, Phi Gamma Delta and Agricultural Society; Norm Leger, Kappa Sigma, cheer leader, reporter Daily Nebraskan, A.U.F., Corn Cob pledge, and experimental theatre; Bob Martens, Alpha Tau Omega; Jim Pettis, Delta Upsilon and Gerald Wilson, Sigma Nu, cheer leader and A.U.F.

No change has been made in plans for keeping secret the names of Nebraska Sweetheart candidates until Friday and revealing their names at the door, Klub President John Dale said yesterday.

Kosmet Klub workers have tickets for the show at 75 cents each.

Hambro . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)
way's delegate commented on the frequent practice of newspapers in playing up the faults and passing over the positive sides of a highly publicized group such as the one constituting the League. Speaking of the highly successful opium control committee and many other sub-groups which made great strides in international co-operations, Hambro brought to light facts which a majority of his audience had never heard concerning the international group's activities.

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, university registrar, congratulated Dr. Hambro on the excellent presentation of a difficult subject and commented on the superlative clarity of the Norwegian's remarks at the end of the convocation.

Theta Sigma Phi
Theta Sigma Phi will meet in Ellen Smith Hall Thursday at 5 p. m. All members are urged to attend, according to Mary Alice Cawood, president.

CAMPUS HEADQUARTERS FOR . . . CHRISTMAS GIFTS & CARDS

1/2 Block South 13th & "O"

- For Your Convenience*
- OPEN EVENINGS
 - FREE GIFT WRAPPING
 - CONVENIENT LAYAWAY PLAN

Your Campus Clerks
Ginny Pester & Doddie Hand say

"For Guys and Gals
It's Gifts from Dels

Gifts of Quality and Distinction. Gifts for all members of the family at prices you can afford.

A HUSKER'S CREDIT IS ALWAYS GOOD!

LISTEN

To KFOR Sunday 1:25 P. M. For "That Reminds Me!"

"Gifts from Del's
Always Please

Del Lienemann, '41, Pres.
Charlotte Lienemann, '45, Mgr.
OWNED by HUSKER GRADS

Federalists Plan Radio Talk, Speeches

Student Federalists will meet in room 202 of social science at 7 p. m. Thursday. Herman Turk, chairman of the organization, announced today.

This meeting will be concerned with pertinent business of the organization, including final preparations for the club's radio programs. Also to be considered are future plans of the group and preparations for the speaking tour of the national president, Colgate Prentice.

Discussion.
A discussion period will also be held on the subject, "The Development of Federalism in America." The general facts of the subject will be presented to the group in a short talk by Milton Field, with group discussion following.

Part of the time at this meeting will be given over to a discussion of Carl J. Hambro's speech given at a convocation in the Union Tuesday. Another point that will be discussed is the Philippine proposal to make the United Nations a limited world government.

All faculty members and students are welcome to attend these meetings and to take part in the discussions, according to Mr. Turk.

Y Commission Groups to Hold Joint Meeting

Three YM commission groups, Political Effectiveness, World Relatedness and Faith for Life, will meet at 7:15 tonight in the YM rooms for a short meeting. The commission groups will then hold individual meetings.

The Political Effectiveness commission will meet at the home of Prof. N. L. Hill. Discussion will be on the question, "G.O.P.—Which Way Politics?"

Lecture.
Sam Warren, chairman of the World Relatedness commission, announced that his group would receive the first of a series of three lectures on "Our Foreign Policy." These discussions will be led by John Jacobson, with the aid of professor of law, Julius Cohen. This evening Jacobson will lead a discussion on the conflict between the president and congress in shaping the U.S. foreign policy. The two following meetings will take up discussion on public opinion, state department, and recent legislation improving the foreign services.

Meeting at the home of Gordon Lippitt, University YM field secretary, the Faith for Life commission will have as a topic for discussion the question, "Are Churches Really Necessary?"

Architect Society Will Hear Akeson At Meeting Tonite

Hans Akeson of Malmo, Sweden, will speak to the Architectural society tonight at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Social Science building.

He will present an illustrated talk on the design and construction of contemporary Swedish housing programs.

At the last meeting, Kenneth E. Bergmeier was nominated as a candidate for chairman of Engineer's Week and Charles H. Grimes Jr. as candidate for vice chairman. Both of the candidates are architectural engineering seniors in the Engineering college. Rush J. McCoy was chosen to direct the architectural department in the building of the scale model of the city of Lincoln, which is a part of the Civic Planning Project for Engineers' Week.

Vet's Dinner
A Veterans' Thanksgiving Dinner will be held in the Student Union XYZ room Saturday, Nov. 23, at 6:30 p. m. Tickets are $1 per person and can be obtained at the Veterans' Organization office, 209 Nebraska Hall, or from Bill Thorton and Social Chairman Iona Sherman.

Jonas . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)
Everyone come to see am I really so good. It is not art, it is sport. It is football! If I have goal, bravo! If no goal, goodbye!"

But Maryla (pronounced Marie-la) Jonas had made her goal. "It was not goodbye," said "Time" magazine. "It was a big hello."

Stuart Theater.

Beginning with tonight's recital, all Lincoln Symphony Orchestra series concerts will be held at the Stuart theater for the first time in the 20-year-old history of the organization. Some balcony and main floor season tickets are available at the Stuart box office for $9, and some loge tickets at $12 for the remaining five concerts. Student section is sold out. Single admission tickets for the 8:30 concert sell at $3.

Miss Jonas' program as scheduled is:

Passacaglia	Handel
Capriccio	W. F. Bach
Variations	Haydn
Sonata, Op. 31, No. 2	Beethoven
Largo
Allegro
Adagio
Allegretto
Scenes of Childhood, Op. 15	Schumann
First Sonata, Op. 1	Prokofiev
Nocturne	Chopin
Three Mazurkas	Chopin
Two Waltzes	Chopin
Polonaise, Op. 44	Chopin

Loretta Young, starring in "The Perfect Marriage," Hal Wallis production for Paramount, has been honored three times by the American institute of voice teachers as having the finest feminine speaking voice on the screen.

VOGUE'S CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

from Nov. 15 Vogue

Ours alone in Lincoln

Gold-finish metal cigarette case, and matching compact. $5 each, plus tax

TOILET GOODS—FIRST FLOOR

Designer Nina Wolf's "Cleo-twisted" bracelet. $10 plus tax

JEWELRY—FIRST FLOOR

Wedding-ring rhinestone earrings, $15 pair plus tax

JEWELRY—FIRST FLOOR

Ebony satin belt for a tiny waist, $7

BELTS—FIRST FLOOR

Double-pouch bag of black rayon satin for after dark, $15 plus tax

Handbags—First Floor

Black rayon satin gloves by Kay Fuchs, $15 pair

GLOVES—FIRST FLOOR

MILLER & PAINE