Mr. and Mrs. John D. Campbell of Lincoln announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Janice, to James Everett Nicola at a luncheon at the University club Saturday. Mr. Nicola is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle B. Nicola of Norfolk. The couple will be married Dec. 28. Miss Campbell, who will be graduated from the university in June, is a member of Alpha Phi and Phi Chi Theta. Before his graduation from the university, Mr. Nicola was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Auction Surplus House Furniture

In need of a chair or table? Or perhaps a red leather couch Tuesday night at 7 p. m., at the Hornbuckle Auction house at 24th and O, the Delta Tau Deltas will hold a sale of surplus house furnishings.

Here's a chance for all organized houses to pick up a few needed furnishings, or to replace old and worn ones. In addition to chairs, tables, and couches, the Deltas have bedsprings, rebuilt mattresses, dishes, and rugs to offer to prospective buyers.

Nebraska Sweetheart announced and voted upon at the entrance to the revue were Carmen De Vore, Mildred McAdams, Connie Cathcart, Betty Beckner and Regina Bradley.

Master of ceremonies for the show was Romulo Soldevilla, university speech instructor, who acted in the role of city editor to carry out the program's newspaper theme.

Wearing a white tie and tails and accompanied by a bodyguard wearing a tuxedo and a checkered cap, Sigma Chi Gus Douvas was revealed as Carton Broderick, jr., before the show. Johnny Cox, and his orchestra, played between the fraternity skits.

Another Kosmet Klub Fall Revue is over and congrats go to the frats for all their toil and time spent in perfecting the skits to make them such fine entertainment. Also congrats to Alpha Tau Omega for the honors bestowed upon them and last, but not least, congrats to the new Nebraska Sweetheart. Leading the cheers for the victorious brothers were Mark Hargrave and Chick Story, joined in their enthusiasm by their dates, Joan Farrar and Georgie Wythers.

More Rumors.

Rumors are flying thick and fast these days. One has to do with Betty Lysinger and Lou Reinhard, who are reportedly apartment seeking. This means wedding bells in the near future. Incidentally, Jim Van Landingham and Roland Finley also are in the market.

Thanksgiving vacation is being awaited anxiously by Frannie Buck and Norma Rakow, who will be visited at Norma's home over the holidays by Ben Pickering and Tom True. Shirts McKenna will have as her guest in Sioux City, her pinmate, Bob Heinke.

Enjoying themselves at the Sig Chi pledge sweetheart party Saturday night were Tootsie Campen and Steve Reed (which is all but a steady twosome), another fast becoming familiar couple, Rosalie Weatherfield and Dwight Housman, and Charlotte Dixon escorted by Bob Wenke.

Jerry Whalen and Ginny Kellison are dating each other exclusively now and Bill Waldie will be confining his dates to a certain Kappa after the holidays. The correspondence between Dina Buckingham and Iowa State boy, Jack Haa is coming thicker and faster. The situation began when Jack met Dina at an hour dance while here for the week end to see his alma mater play.

The Military Ball dates are a cut and dried affair by now. Sally Graham will attend with Mickey Stewart. Norm Williams has chosen Nancy Howie for his date.
