Law Freshmen Schedule Practice Arguments Today

Law school freshmen will begin their practice round of arguments today in the Allen Moot Court Competition being staged this week.

In this practice, which is being judged by juniors and seniors, there will be no elimination and the first competition round for freshmen will be held the second semester.

First Round

The juniors' first round of competition began Monday and was judged by practicing attorneys, instructors, and senior law students. The senior final round will be held during the second semester.

Anyone may attend the cases in which they are interested. Moot Court cases will be heard in the courtroom on the second floor of the law building. Trials are scheduled every afternoon, Monday through Friday, at 1:30, 3:00 and 7:30 p. m. from December 2 to December 20.

Case Schedules

Cases scheduled for today are: Cummings & Knicely (Pl.), vs. Bocken & Hines (Def.) at 1:00;

Munsterman & Nelson (Pl.) vs. Burgin & Hastings (Def.) at 1:30; Hendricks & Stuart (Pl.) vs. Anderson & Rydman (Def.).

Those to be judged Wednesday: Bestor & Barlow (Pl.) vs. Hilmes & Schwartz (Def.) at 1:30; Van Norman & Dalton (Pl.) vs. Brogan & Bukacek (Def.) at 3:00; Higgins & Elson vs. Finkle & McNutt at 7:30.

The Allen competition was started last spring following a bequest by the late Thomas Stinson Allen, a member of the first graduating class of the law college. Elimination rounds of competition for freshmen and junior law students lead to the final senior competition.

Names of the winning team in the final round of their senior year are engraved on a bronze plaque in the law building. An individual award is given each of the winning contestants. Winners last spring were: F. Blaine Sloan, now attending Columbia University as a graduate student; and Jack W. Stewart, now a practicing attorney in Lincoln.

R.G. Gustavson Talks at Annual Education Meet

Directories Sale Begins This Week

Setting a new record for speed in publication, the Student Foundation has announced the opening sales of the 1946-47 Student Directories today.

Directories will be sold in the Union for one week, combined with a house campaign scheduled to reach every organized body in the university.

The directory, priced at 50c per copy, is a 252 page book containing a complete list of faculty members, students, organizations residences with addresses and telephone numbers.

With only 4,500 copies printed, Joyce Geddes, directory editor, has pointed out the value of obtaining a copy before the supply is exhausted. Directories will be sold in the union, the Co-op Book store, the Nebraska book Store and the Agricultural Administration Building.

Rosenlof Addresses Alum Council Meeting Monday

"What Colleges and Universities Are Doing to Meet Educational Needs of Oncoming GIs" was Dr. G. W. Rosenlof's topic when he addressed a district meeting of the American Alumni council at the Fontanelle hotel in Omaha Monday morning.

Miss Verneda Whitney, assistant secretary of the university alumni association, presided during Dr. Rosenlof's speech.

Musician Termed 'Top Trumpeter'

CHARLIE SPIVAK

Charlie Spivak, the man who plays the sweetest trumpet in the world, has been booked for the Mortar Board Ball Friday, Dec. 13, after breakup of Sonny Dunham's band forced cancellation of his engagement.

Dunham disbanded his outfit as a direct result of the slump in paid admissions which Downbeat magazine has termed general the past several months. Inability to meet his high payrolls made continuation of his western tour impossible, the Chicago booking agent who handled Dunham informed the Mortar Board committee.

Spivak's last Lincoln engagement was at the Coliseum on July 13, 1945.

Spivak, for years termed one of America's top trumpeters, last week released a new Victor record, "It's All Over Now" and "For Sentimental Reasons," which has become one of the best-sellers with local swing fans, according to one of Lincoln's record stores. His last previous waxing, out two or three months ago, was "Flat Feet" and "You Are Too Beautiful."

Network Broadcasts

Long engagements at New Rochelle's Glen Island Casino and Frank Daly's Meadowbrook, with their nightly network broadcasts, have made Spivak's name and trumpet technique widely known.

Tickets for the Ball, second affair of the winter formal season, went on sale Monday night with members of Tassels, pep organization, as sales agents. Prices have been set at $2.40 plus 60 cents tax, making the final price $3 per couple.

Present Bachelors

Highlight of the evening will be presentation of the Eligible Bachelor. See SPIVAK, page 4.

Army Names Colonel John New PMS & T

Col. Howard J. John has been assigned by the Army as the new professor of military science and tactics, in which position he will head the university military department. His predecessor, Lt. Col. Merle Senn, will remain as executive officer.

Colonel John comes here from Camp Campbell, Ky., where he has been artillery executive officer of the Third division.

Record.

He was graduated in 1924 from the U. S. Military Academy, where he won a major letter in lacrosse and was a member of the wrestling squad for two years.

From there, Colonel John went See ARMY, page 4.

Vets Organization Will Elect Officers Wednesday Night

Veterans Organization will elect officers for the second semester Wednesday at 7 p. m. in the Union, according to publicity chairman Dick Sinsel.

Candidates for office were announced as: Carl Booton and R. E. McManney, president; Duncan Fraizer, vice president; Bill Brown and Harry Pike, treasurer; Iona Sherman, secretary; Eleanor Newcomb, social chairman; Harvey Podoll, public relations; Joe Pappas, George Schmidt and Velma M. Bernholtz, ag representatives; and Bob Johnson and Ray Sodergren, athletic chairman.

The slate of candidates was drawn up at the last meeting before Thanksgiving vacation, and new officers will be installed later this semester, Sinsel said.

Since he was discharged in October, 1945, Kuroki has devoted his time to fighting for democracy in America. He has given many addresses stressing the need for "Making one world work at home." An address he gave at the Herald Tribune Forum in New York last November was reprinted in January, 1946, issue of "Readers Digest," and was named by the University of Pittsburgh as one of five required declamations for all Pennsylvania high schools.

Kuroki enlisted in the Air Forces the day after Pearl Harbor. In four years of service he made 30 missions over Europe, including a raid on the Ploesti oil fields of Rumania, and 28 over Japan as gunner on a B-29, during which his plane bombed his mother's home town. He holds three Distinguished Flying Crosses, six Oak Leaf Clusters, a Presidential Unit Citation and ten bronze battle stars.

Nu-Meds Hear Talk by Stein On Wednesday

Dr. Robert Stein, Lincoln psychiatrist, will be the speaker for the Nu-Med meeting, December 4, according to Stanley Johnson, president.

As stated in the November 24 issue of The Daily Nebraskan, a new procedure for banquet attendance has been invoked. Any Nu-Med member planning to attend the banquet is to place his name and 50 cents in an envelope in Dr. Otis Wade's office, 303 Bessey Hall, before Thanksgiving vacation.
