

Doudna Reigns Over Ball Singers Group Offers Carol Concert Today Colonel Revealed To Record Crowd

One hundred and fifty members of University Singers today at 3 p. m. and again at 4:30 will march into the Union ballroom to the processional strains of "O Come All Ye Faithful," to present their eighth annual Christmas Carol Concert.

Under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westbrook and Prof. David Foltz, the Singers will offer songs of the Christmas season as they have been sung over a period of four centuries.

Beginning with a group that includes numbers from 16th century church liturgy or latter imitations of them, the mixed chorus will also sing lighter carols from such nations as Bohemia, Wales, Spain, France, England and our own country. Three carols come from the United States, one a Sioux tribe melody, one from the Tennessee hill country and one from the Appalachian mountain region.

For the first time at the Christmas Carol Concert, the Singers will divide into men and women's voices to present two groups of four numbers, in addition to the mixed chorus selections. Mr. Foltz will direct the women while Mr. Westbrook will conduct the men's section.

The complete CCC program:
O Magnum Mysterium (1540-1611) de Victoria.
Jesu, Priceless Treasure (1685-1750) Bach.
Rosa Mystica (1614-1675) Saboly.
The Mystic Cherubim, Harry Hartel, University Singers.
Old English Carol, Traditional.
O Holy Night, Adam.
Angels We Have Heard on High, French Melody.
Brass Ensemble.
I Wonder as I Wander, Appalachian Carol.
Presents for the Child Jesus, Catalonian Folk Song.
Stars Lead Us Ever On, Sioux Tribal Chorus.
As It Fell Upon a Night, English Carol, Men, University Singers.
I Hear Along Our Street, French Carol of the Hearth.
Break Forth, O Beauteous, Heavenly Light, Bach.
Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming, (1571-1621) Praetorius.
Deck The Hall, Welsh Carol, Women, University Singers.
Greensleeves, Purvis.
Carol Rhapsody, Purvis.
Brass Ensemble.
Still Grows the Evening, Traditional Bohemian.
Tennessee Cherry Tree Carol, Arr. by Gau.
The Shepherd's Story, Dickinson, University Singers.

MISS ANNE DOUDNA, 1946 HONORARY COLONEL.

—Courtesy Lincoln Journal

Presented before a capacity house of approximately 5,500 people, Ann Doudna was named Honorary Colonel of the university's ROTC battalion Friday night for the 1946 Military Ball. The presentation ceremony consisted of Miss Doudna's appearance on the coliseum stage in a gold parachute while the advance corps formed on the coliseum floor.

Dancing to the music of Chuck Foster and his band, the crowded coliseum was the scene of a return to all the tradition and ceremony of the Grand March, the Pershing Rifle drill squad and the honor salute by the entire corps to Chancellor and Mrs. R. G. Gustavson and other honored guests.

T. C. Senior.

Miss Doudna is a senior in Teachers College and a major in primary education. She is member of Gamma Phi Beta, YWCA, WAA bowling club and All-University Fund. The ROTC department presented Miss Doudna with a military blue uniform after her election by student vote.

Cadet Colonel Henry Swartz, commander of the battalion, met the Honorary Colonel on the stage and after giving her a bouquet of red and white roses, escorted her down to open the dance.

M B Ball Tickets

Ticket sales for the Mortar Board ball next Friday night will be limited to make it possible for dancers to enjoy the music of Charlie Spivak, students were told today by Virginia Demel, ball chairman.

Members of Tassels, women's pep organization, have the tickets, which sell for $3. Spivak, known as the man who plays the sweetest trumpet in the world, will play from 8 to 12 in the coliseum. Eligible bachelors, chosen Thursday in a women's election will be presented during the evening.

Housing Bureau Reveals Facilities

Over 850 university men have applied for the 250 family units planned for the completed Huskerville housing project, according to the Student Housing Bureau of the Dean of Student Affairs Office. At present approximately 30 families are accommodated, reports Max Swan, project manager.

In addition, the bureau announces that about 70 men are now living at Huskerville dormitory, there is a generous number of accommodations available which can readily be secured at the bureau's office in B-8 of Administration building. The price is $10 monthly per person for double room, with linens furnished.

Three Facilities.

Huskerville has post office, cafeteria, barber shop, and grocery store services with laundry and dry cleaning pick-up and delivery. A drug store will be located there soon. Movies are shown every Wednesday, and the picture schedule will be increased when Huskerville personnel goes up. Recreations rooms and a sports arena are being arranged, and a basketball team is under organization. The Huskerville bus leaves and reaches the base eight times daily, five times on Sundays with a 12:30 bus to the base Saturday nights. Transportation cost is $1.50 per week for a limitless number of rides.

Family Units.

Family units are two-bedroom apartments, will be available furnished or unfurnished. The apartments are steam heated from a central plant, and are equipped with modern ice-boxes and mod-

See HOUSING, page 4.

Notice to Veterans

Veterans with limited entitlement under Public Law 346 (The GI Bill) may conserve their entitlement time by requesting a termination for the Christmas recess. Such termination would save two weeks of entitlement time. It should be pointed out, however, that any veteran who requests such termination will receive no subsistence during that period.

Forms for requesting termination may be obtained in the office of the Veterans Consultation Board, 101 Mechanic Arts Hall and must be filled out before Saturday noon, December 21, 1946.

J. B. Colbert, Director
Veterans Consultation Board.

Two Modern Dance Clubs Give Festival

Orchests and Pre-Orchests groups, honorary modern dance clubs, will present their annual Christmas Dance Festival Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at Grant Memorial Hall. The program is open to the public with no admission being charged.

The program will open with the multi-colored processional, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and close with the recessional, "Adeste Fideles." The entire orchestra groups will participate in these two numbers.

"We Three Kings," is a colorful presentation danced by Betty Aasen, Marion Spichal, Doris Olson, Irma Lou Fisher, with Elizabeth Lamb, Patricia Toof, and Jean Leinberger as the Kings. An impressive interpretation and the most technically difficult number on the program is "O Holy Night," danced by Irma Lou Fisher, Elizabeth Lamb, Amy Jo Bergh, Myrtis Rider, and Patricia Meyer.

"The Juggler of Notre Dame," a dance drama well received by the Lincoln audience last year,

See DANCE CLUBS, page 2.

Rosenlof Announces Dates For December Registration

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, Registrar, announced the procedure and dates for registration for the second semester, which begins February 3. The general procedure for early registration has been designed to alleviate the congestion of the fall registration and is as follows:

1. DATES

- a. December 9 to 16 for Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors.
- b. January 6 to 18 for students in Junior Division.

2. Each student must make an appointment for registration with his adviser. Schedules for appointments are posted at the entrance to the office of each adviser. The student should write his name on the schedule in the free space convenient for him and report to his adviser at that time.

3. Registrations are to be made out in quadruplicate.

4. Registrations must be carefully checked for time conflicts. It is requested that the daily program blank be used for this purpose.

5. When the registration forms have been completed, the adviser will retain one copy. The remaining three copies are to be taken by the student to the dean of the college in which the student is registered, where they will be countersigned.

6. The registration forms are to be left in the dean's office.

7. The student's copy of registration will be returned to the student at the appointed time for payment of fees.

8. Payment of fees will be cared for in Memorial Hall (east entrance). Students must present identification card at time of payment of fees.

Schedule of dates for payment of fees is as follows:

- Students whose surnames begin with letters
- A to C inclusive—Thursday, January 23.
- D to G inclusive—Friday, January 24.
- H to K inclusive—Monday, January 27.
- L to N inclusive—Tuesday, January 28.

See REGISTRATION, page 2.