'Messiah' Oratorio

Handel's oratorio, the "Messiah," one of the musical traditions of the university, will be given by five university and city choral groups, the university orchestra and guest soloist Sunday, December 15, at 3 p. m. in the coli-

Directing the Choral Union this year for the first time, will be David Foltz, assistant professor of music. Coming to the university from Simpson college at Indianola, Ia., where for seven years he was head of the vocal department and directed all choral activity, Mr. Foltz has acted as general supervisor of All-State Music Clinic in Lincoln for the past five summers.

Four Soloists. Deviating from the last few years' policy of having student soloists, the Choral Union will feature four graduate soloists, J. Dayton Smith ,tenor; Miss Martha McGee, soprano; Mrs. Pauline Smith Anderson, contralto; and Dale Ganz, baritone.

An instructor in voice at the university, Mr. Smith is director of the Lincoln Men's Chorus and soloists at the Christian Science church. His army service took him to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and to Camp Cooke, California. He served with the military department at the university and overseas in England and France.

Music Instructor. Miss McGee, a graduate of 1940, teaches music in junior high Orchesis Group Gives Religious Dance Recital.

"O Holy Night" will be a featured dance number when Or-chesis and Pre-Orchesis groups present their annual Christmas dance program at 7:30 Wednes-day evening in Grant Memorial

The festival, which is open to the public with no admission charge, is directed by Dr. Aileen Lockart and Mrs. Monty Geis-singer. Mrs. H. H. Flood will be the accompanist, and Irma Lou Fisher is the club president.

ticipating in this dance will be Betty Assen, Marion Splichal, Doris Olson, Irma Lou Fisher, Elizabeth Lamb, Pat Toof and Jean Leinberger.

Winifred Peterson will be starred as the juggler and Myrtis Rider as the Madonna in "The Juggler of Notre Dame," a dance based on an old French legend.

Also on the program will be selections from the Christmas ballet, "The Nutcracker Suite," including "Waltz of the Flowers,"
"The Candy Fairy," and "Trepak."

Notice To Vets

The following notice appeared in the November 30 issue of Army Times:

"Income Tax Deadline: Any veteran who paid federal income taxes for either 1941 or 1942 . . . and who thinks he has a claim for refund because of overpayment . . . (no enlisted man was required to pay any Federal income tax on his service pay after January 1, 1941) should hurry and get his claim into the hands of the government. The deadline for such claims is January 1, 1947 claim should be filed with the Office of the Collecter of Internal Revenue in the disrict where the income tax return was filed."

Further information can be obtained at the Office of the Collection of Internal Revenue, 243 Post Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska.

J. P. Colbert, Director Veterans Consultation Board

The annual presentation of school at Beatrice. She previous-andel's oratorio, the "Messiah," ly lived for three years in Seattle, Washington, where she appeared in several municipal musical productions. The past two years she has been studying in New York.

Mrs. Anderson, a graduate of the University of California, sang the contralto solos in Berkely and San Francisco productions of "Stabat Mater," by Dvorak. Also a church soloist, she is the wife of A. T. Anderson, university instructor in modern European his-

Mr. Ganz, who took solo parts in the "Messiah" for Lincoln audiences in 1938 and 1939, graduated from the University School of Music in 1940. Serving two years in the Aleutians and one in the European theater and attaining rank of captain, Mr. Ganz has appeared in undergraduate productions of Haydn's oratorio, "Creation" and a concertized version of Bizet's "Carmen."

Combing to form the choral union will be University Singers, who presented their yearly Christmas Carol Concert last Sunday, two sections of University Chorus, the Agricultural College Chorus and the Lincoln Men's Chorus.

Dr. Janet Fowler Nelson, New York marital relations counsellor and graduate of Vassar college, will address a convocation Thursday at 7 p. m. in the Union ball-room on "Why Education for Marriage and Parenthood?"

Dr. Nelson, who holds a PhD degree from Columbia in psychology, formerly taught at New York University and the Child Development Institute, New York. In 1934 she began and developed the Education for Marriage program of the National Board of the YWCA.

Author and Consultant

She became consultant on personal and family relationships of the US division of the National The processional, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," will be followed by "We Three Kings." Parco-author of "Boy Meets Girl in Wartime.

> At present she serves on the advisory board of the Association for Family Living, and is a member of the American Association of Marriage Counsellors, the National Education Committee of the AmericanSocial Hygiene Association, Dr. Cannon's Medical Advisory Committee (Mass.), and is chairman of the youth committee of the National Conference on Family

Yule Festivities At Union Will Feature Party

Dancing to Jean Mover's or-chestra until 10:15 will highlight the Union Christmas party, open to all students, Tuesday, Dec. 17, at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom. All coeds, including freshmen, will be given a 10:30 night. "Where Do We Go From Here?"

a technicolor movie featuring Fred MacMurray and Joan Leslie will be shown at 7:30 and again at Musical sororities and fraternities will lead in singing caraccompanied by Compton at the organ, in the lounge from 8 to 10. Free brownies and cokes will be served from stations set up at each end of the first floor during the caroling.

The Ag Union will be closed that night, and the Crib will close at 7 p. m., Pat Lahr, Union director, announced.

Choral Group to Give Carmer To Speal t Today's Convo

Veterans GotoPolls morrow

The Veterans Organization has scheduled a general election of officers on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

Newly appointed members of the election board are Ray Coffee, chairman; Jack Norman and Kay Heuser.

All officers of the group make up the executive council which directs the policies and investigates problems brought up within the organization.

Candidates for the offices are: President, Bob McNannay and Carl Booton; vice president, Duncan Fraser and Erwin Hatfield; secretary, Ula Mae Schall and Helen Rulla; treasurer, Harry Fike and Bill Brown; housing committee chairman, Arch Johnston nd Jerry Mulraney; athletic commit-tee chairman, Robert T. Johnson and Raphael E. Scdergren; social committee, Betty Larsen, Marjorie L. Dewey, Kay Kelly and Bill Thornton; public relations secretary, Harvey J. Podoll; Ag representative, Joe Pappas, Velma Bernholtz and George Schmid.

The new officers will assume their positions soon after the first of the year.

Social Workers Group Meets Tomorrow Nite

American Association of Social Workers will meet at the Union tomorrow at 6:15 p. m. for dinner and a business meet-superintendent of public instruction, and the Rev. A. Eggings, superintendent of schools, Catholic Diocese of Grand Island. The subject for discussion will be "Trends in Education" with Mr. Reed discussing the topic from the public education point of view and the Rev. Eggings discussing the topic from the private education point of view.

Reservations for the dinner should be made with Mrs. Oliver Warrick, c/o Family Service Association, 228 South 10th street by noon today.

Home Economics Department Plans Special Courses

The home economic department semester which have no pre-requisites ,and which will be open to students who are not home economics majors.

These courses are designed for students who are interested in learning some of the fundamentals of home and family life without taking a major in home eco-

The courses are: home economics 3, clothing appreciation and techniques; home economics 21, designs and essentials, a texture; home economics 91, introduction to the study of family life; home economics 41, food study; and home economics 163, housing and equipment.

Carl Carmer, best-seller author of "Stars Fell on Alabama" and "Genessee Fever," will draw on his tremendous knowledge of American folklore today at 3 p. m., when he will speak to an all-university convocation on "The Cavalcade of American Legend," in the Union ballroom.

Carmer's appearance at Nebraska is linked with the second convocation of the week on Thursday when Dr. Janet Fowler Nelson, Vassar graduate and New York City marital relations consultant, will attempt to answer the question, "Why Edu-cation for Marriage and Parent-hood?" Fund Head One of the most interesting fig-

Response in the campaign for contributions to the University Cornhusker Achievement Fund have been said to be "gratifying," by J. R. Kinder, chairman of the campaign.

The fund, which is being collected to provide scholarships to Nebraskans on a basis of achievement rather than the attainment

See FUND, page 4.

Home Ec Senior Seminar Hears Grad Tuesday

Lt. Bonnie Bernholtz, a graduate of the home economics department in 1943, spoke to members of Ag Instructor Miss Fedde's senior seminar and guests Tuesday afternoon on her experiences as a dietician in the army for the past two years.

Lieutenant Bernholtz spent three months on Tinian island in the Marianas and 12 months in Japan, eight of which were in Tokyo. She described her experiences in helping to organize mess departments in various army hospitals, the difficulties of seting up adequate facilities in bombed Tokyo, and her visit to Hiroshima,

Among the interesting episodes to a number of Japanese homes Tokyo where she served as dietician until sailing for the United States in November. She will be separated from the army in Janures in American letters who will appear at the university this year.

Carmer is a former professor of English at the University of Alabama and historical consultant for the "Cavalcade of America" radio series and contributor to New York Philharmonic Sunday afternoon broadcasts.

Widely Traveled.

The Tuesday afternoon speaker has traveled widely in the United States, collecting folk songs and legends which he has incorporated into two volumes, "America Sings" and "Songs of the Rivers of America." His attention to the of her stay in Tokyo were visits tales of his native New York State provided the background The speakers for this occasion, and the war crimes trials. Lieu- for a novel, 'Listen for a Lone-which is open to the public, will tenant Bernholtz's last station was some Drum," and for one of the be Mr. Wayne O. Reed, state at the 42nd General Hospital in "Rivers of America" series entitled "The Hudson."

Dr. Nelson, who will speak Thursday, holds a PhD from Columbia in psychology and teaches See CONVO, page 4.

Ye Rosebud Gatherers Warned About Approaching MB Ball

BY MARTHELLA HOLCOMB. | Coach Harry Good, basketball

may, old time is still a flying. have not as yet invited their fudge party. Ed Weir, guiding dream men to the Mortar Board light of the track squad, was too ball Friday night.

tioned MB's, drove a hard barwill offer several courses next gain for the dream band of the was expected that pre-season year, Charlie Spivak, and the Tasticket sale as evenly as possible moil, as a jolt back to reality. among the women students. The actual bended-knee proposing, however, has been left to the individual. As a result, the sale of stimulants has skyrocketed over-

Ruf and Tuf.

Some enterprising huntresses have used unique, often dangerously desperate, methods to corral football players for the big evening. Coach Bernie Masterson. in an unofficial statement, precasualties will be healed in sufseveral positions,

Gather ye rosebuds while ye mentor, has been more fortunate, due to the happy circumstance Sadie Hawkins day ala Lincoln, that the thirty odd (yes, they are rather than Dogpatch, has been too) members of his crew will be set as the theme of the week by in Kansas City absorbing the "big those timid campus women who theayter" and a Big Six maplebusy disguising his mainstays as Lenas, in order to guard against Those fiends, the aforemen-further injuries, to give a statement for the Daily Nebraskan. It training will be intensified for sels are distributing a limited those creatures caught in the tur-

> Spivak has promised to provide enough of his honeyed horn tooting to make any supreme sacriworthwhile. The trumpet, ranked highest in the sweet swing division of last year's Downbeat Magazine polls, will be in evidence Friday for the charming and soothing of any aching male breast.

If there seems to be any undue difficulty in contacting eligible study of line, form, color and dicted that all such post-season males for the party, all crib waiters, countermen, and dishwashers ficient time for the Minnesota have volunteered to act as a speopener next September, though cial date bureau. See a Tassel for spring practice may be weak in a ticket, and the crib staff for a